—DO YOU WANT US TO ESTIMATE AS TO HOW MUCH AN ADVERTISEMENT WILL COST YOU? SEND INQUIRY ON A POSTAL CARD AND YOU WILL BE ANSWERED BY RETURN MAIL.

—Hon. D. Mills, Q.C., has taken his son, Mr. Walter Mills, into law partnership.

—There are lots of happy people nowadays, including stable-keepers, coal dealers and plumbers.

—It is understood that Major.-Gen. Herbert will attend the Hunt ball on Friday evening next.

—There were three drunks at the Police Court this morning. Two were discharged and one remanded for a week.

—Mr. George Grossmith, of London, Eng., whom Sir Arthur Sullivan always chose as the creator of comic parts in his different operas, will give a unique entertainment at the Grand shortly.

—Mr. Robert Raison, of 313 King street, was badly burned at the gas works the other evening. He lit a match in a room filled with gas and might have been fatally hurt. He is recovering.

—Local home mission collections have been asked for by the association board of the Baptist Church as follows: Talbot Street, $175; Adelaide Street, $100; South, $50; Grosvenor Street, $25.

—Mr. J. W. Jones yesterday sold the stock of R. Weatherell, of Oil City, general merchant (insolvent), to Mr. W. T. Trapp, of that place for 50½c on the dollar. The stock was valued at $6,757 87.

In like manner many a middle-aged merchant is to-day enjoying trade that was originally secured by an advertisement inserted a score of years ago.

—Miss Lizzie Ballantyne, of Toronto, who was a short time lady superintendent of the Nicholl's Hospital, Peterboro, died on Saturday morning from the affects of diphtheria. Miss Ballantyne was a graduate of the Guelph Hospital Training School for Nurses, and a cousin of Miss Duncan, lady superintendent of the London Hospital. David Mills to deliver addresses at the annual meeting of the East Elgin Dominion Reform Association, to be held in Aylmer on the 20th inst. Change of Business.

The drug business lately carried on by Mr. J. G. Shuff at 174 Dundas street has been purchased by Mr. Neil McDermid, who was with the late Mr. Harkness for over five years, and also with Messrs. Cairncross & Lawrence for some time. Mr. McDermid is having the store remodeled and painted. He will no doubt secure a full share of the public patronage.

Two Weddings.

One of the events of the season occurred in Strathroy on Thursday, when Miss Albertena Smith, a former resident of London, was married to Mr. Albert E. Raymond, of the firm of Humbrick & Hodgins, Buffalo, N. Y. The ceremony took place at 4:30 p.m. at the residence of W. M. Smith, brother of the bride, about 30 guests being present. The groom was attended by Mr. Geo. W. Ashwell, and Miss Victoria Raymond attended the bride. The bridal costume was of white silk, with orange blossoms and veil. The bridesmaid wore white cashmere. The marriage was performed by Rev. P. K. Dayfoot, M.A. The dinner was sumptuously served and the dining hall was draped in red, white and blue colors. Post prandial addresses were made by Mr. John Raymond, father of the groom, Mr. Smith, D. M. Cameron, ex-M.P., Mr. Ashwell, Dr. Brownlee, of Mount Forest, uncle of the bride, Dr. Jennie Carson, of Strathroy, Rev. P. K. Dayfoot and the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the east-bound train at 7:30 p.m. for Woodstock, en route for Buffalo, where they will make their home.

On Wednesday evening, Jan. 11, at Strathroy, Mr. F. T. Robinson was united in marriage with Miss Anna Stonehouse, of the same town. Mr. John Stonehouse, brother of the bride, acted as best man, and Miss Annie Charlton, of Ilderton, as bridesmaid. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. K. Dayfoot, in the presence of a goodly company of guests.

The City Council of 1893.

The City Council of 1893 will commence business at 11 o'clock Monday morning at the old stand. Mayor Spencer will formally hand over the seals of office to his successor, Mayor-Elect Essery. The new council will have to elect the following: No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3 committees, the directors of the London and Port Stanley Railway Board, the Board of Health, two high school trustees (the terms of Messrs. Cook and Tanton having expired), the Court of Revision, representatives to the Western Fair Board, two city auditors; and do some general business, including communications, etc.

Convalescent Home.

The monthly meeting of the board of management of the Convalescent Home was held on Thursday. Four inmates were reported as having left the home, expressing themselves most gratefully for the benefits received, and a letter was laid upon the table with seven signatures, "returning thanks for the bountiful provision made for their enjoyment of the late festive season by the kind friends of the home." A standing vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. McCallum for their kindness in throwing open their house for the purpose of the reminiscent evening, the proceeds of which, augmented by gifts, realized $170, enabling the trustees to pay an installment of $200 upon the purchase of the building. Hearty thanks were given to Mrs. Reid, Mrs. Edge, Miss Hamilton, Miss G. Imlach, etc., for the mince meat, Christmas cake and candy, the profits from which made a considerable item in the sum total handed to treasurer. A beautiful motto quilt from the "Endless Chain" of the King's Daughters, per Mrs. Nelles, had been presented to the home, and hearty thanks were accorded to the generous donors. The King's Sons had visited and provided good new clothing for two young men inmates, and promise to continue their interest in the home in future, following the good example set by the King's Daughters, Christian Endeavor Society, and Bible Flower Mission. The matron and her sister, with words of appreciation, received a token of esteem by vote of the board. By kindness of friends, an invalids' wheeled chair has been provided, which when not required at the home can be hired to responsible parties who may be glad to avail themselves of it from time to time.

MIDDLESEX ASSIZES.

Verdict for Plaintiff for $300 and Costs in Wood vs. Baldwin—Other Cases Disposed Of.

Lewis vs. Struthers, a suit to recover damages for sale of lumber, was argued and judgment reserved. Cameron for plaintiff, Gibbons, Q.C., for defendant.

In Woods vs. Baldwin, the jury returned a verdict of $300 and costs for the plaintiff. E. Meredith, Q.C., for plaintiff, W. W. Fitzgerald for defendant.

Merchants' Bank vs. Gilroy was undefended and judgment was given for the plaintiff for $5,476. Gibbons, Q.C., for plaintiff.

Cooper vs. Elliot was referred to the Master in Chancery. Folinsbee for plaintiff, Macbeth and Stuart for defendant.

At 5:30 court adjourned until 9:30 this morning. It will take a couple of days more to dispose of the docket.

When court resumed to-day, Edwards vs. Campbell was called. It was a suit brought by Samuel Edwards, of Adelaide township, to recover damages from Duncan A. Campbell, of the same township, for an alleged illegal seizure of a steam engine and boiler. The plaintiff held a mortgage on the property of the defendant, and the land was sold to a man named Holton. After the sale the plaintiff claims Campbell removed the engine and boiler and the plaintiff sues on account of this removal. A number of practical engineers who had repaired the machine and had known it for years were called by the defense and swore that it was worth little more than its value as old iron. Judgment was reserved.

SAFE IN PORT.

Arrival of a Vessel Given Up as Lost—A Storm That Lasted Seventy Days.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 13.—The ship Lord Templemore arrived here to-day, 212 days from Liverpool. The Templemore was long overdue, and had been given up for lost.

She had a terrible experience during the voyage. She was caught in the storm off the eastern coast of South America which lasted 70 days.

It took her 60 days to get around Cape Horn. Her rigging was badly used up and several of her crew hurt, but no lives lost.

At Last.

The sports of summer are always prolific of all kinds of physical injuries, and for the treatment of such here is a most striking example. Mr. Jacob Etzensperger, 14 Summer street, Cleveland, Ohio, U. S. A., says. "I sprained my arm clubbing chestnuts: could not lift it; suffered for years; but St. Jacobs Oil cured me." After many years he hit the right thing at last. The best thing first saves much.

Pleasure and Profit.

The desire for residing in a climate possessing qualities alike adapted to the benefits of people with weak lungs, catarrh, delicate throats, etc., is growing stronger from year to year. The mere accumulation of money at the expense of health is not regarded in the same favor as formerly. The combination of pleasure and profit is now regarded as most desirable. In no place in America is there a point where this combination exists to a greater degree than in Galveston county, Texas. The wonderful growth of North Galveston and the handsome profits that are being steadily made there, both by capitalists and men of small means, has been attracting the attention of investors from all parts of the United States. The literature of the North Galveston Association, giving fully detailed information on the subject, can be obtained from W. D. Buckle, London, Ont., local agent of the association, the address of the general office being the North Galveston Association, Box 963, Minneapolis, Minn.

Valuable Paintings Sold.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Before an audience in size and quality most complimentary to the artist and his works, the paintings in oil and water color and drawings of Frederick Remington, A.R.A., which have been shown for some days at the American Art Gallery, were sold last evening at auction. The 95 numbers brought $7,299.

Steamboat Disaster.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Dec. 14.—At 5 o'clock last evening as the steamer J. C. Warner was towing the steamer R. T. Coles in the Tennessee River, fifteen miles below Chattanooga, two flues in the boiler collapsed. Two of the colored deck hands were blown into the river and drowned. Twelve other colored deck hands were scalded more or less seriously, and the second engineer of the Warner and two other white men were seriously scalded. Neither of the steamers were injured to any great extent.

A Steam Barge Burned.

WINDSOR, Jan. 14.—The steam barge Lothair, lying at McKee's dock, was badly damaged by fire last night. At 6:30 an alarm was turned in, but when the department arrived the fire had gained considerable headway, the mass of the fire being located in the after part of the boat. The department soon got two streams turned on, but the location of the fire and the fact that it had got well started in the coal piles made the fight a stubborn one. After three hours' fighting the fire in the hull was put out and the firemen then turned their attention to the cabin. It took an hour's work to put out the flames there. The fire is supposed to have been caused by some men who had been working at the boilers during the day allowing some coals to drop out of their furnace. The loss cannot be estimated until the machinery has been examined. The Lothair is owned by R. Thompson & Co. and is well insured. The fire department did excellent work and was treated to a supper at the City Hotel by W. J. Pulling, who is part owner of the boat.

Real Merit

Is the characteristic of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it is manifested every day in the remarkable cures this medicine accomplishes. Druggists say: "When we sell a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla to a new customer we are sure to see him back in a few weeks after more, proving that the good results from a trial bottle warrant continuing its use. This postive merit Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses by virtue of the Peculiar Combination, Proportion and Process used in its preparation, and by which all the remedial value of the ingredients used is retained. Hood's Sarsaparilla is thus Peculiar to Itself and absolutely unequaled in its power as a blood purifier, and as a tonic for building up the weak and weary, and giving nerve strength.

In matters of conscience, first thoughts are best; in matters of prudence, last thoughts are best.

Nothing impure or injurious contaminates the popular antidote to pain, throat and lung remedy and general corrective, Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It may be used without the slightest apprehension of any other than salutary consequences. Coughs, rheumatism, earache, bruises, cuts and sores succumb to its action.

People who cling to the anchor of hope often have to go down into the mud with it.
