NEWS

THANK ADVERTISER—Members of the committee in charge of the convention of Women's Institutes called up The Advertiser this morning to express their thanks for the excellent reports of the meetings and also the generous notices given the convention before it took place.

BABY RECOVERING—The 3-week-old baby girl of Russell Eyre is now expected to recover from burns which she received when placed too close to a steam radiator shortly after her birth in Victoria Hospital. It was at first thought that they might result in the loss of the leg but the hospital authorities think that she will now fully recover.

BLUEJACKETS COMING—The detachment of Royal Canadian Volunteer Naval Reserve Bluejackets who, it was feared, would be unable to come to London, will arrive this afternoon on the 4:25 train from Toronto. They will be present at the meeting of Associated Kin of Canadian Expeditionary Forces tonight at the Normal School, together with a number of naval veterans.

IS LONDON MAN—Corp. Fred White, who was listed among the wounded the other day, is a Londoner. His father and sister live in St. Thomas, and the casualty was mentioned among the St. Thomas news. Corp. White lived in West London at 17 Wyatt avenue. He was a member of the original 9th Field Battery under Major, now Lieut.-Col. Wood Leonard, and has scores of friends here.

BURNED MAN IMPROVES—Wilson Wright, a G. N. W. Telegraph Company lineman, who was nearly electrocuted last Tuesday, is reported by Victoria Hospital to be progressing favorably. While working on a pole at the corner of William and the Hamilton road, Wright came in contact with a high-tension wire. His hand was severely burned, as well as his hip, and he dropped 30 feet to the ground.

ASSIZES CLOSED—The fall assizes of the supreme court of Ontario closed yesterday afternoon, after being in session since Monday, October 30 last. The last case on the list was that of the Imperial Bank vs. Reid, an action brought by the plaintiff to set aside the assignment of stocks made by the late W. J. Reid to Laura King. The plaintiff claims that when the stocks were assigned that W. J. Reid was insolvent. Judgment was reserved.

SENDS ENGLISH ADDRESS—Rev. W. R. McIntosh today received a cable from his son, Gunner Gordon McIntosh, who recently went overseas with a battery draft. The young gunner gives his address as follows: 1st Reserve Battery, Substation D, Shorncliffe, Eng. This should be interesting information to relatives of men of the 62nd and 64th Batteries. Mr. McIntosh states he understands the same address will reach all.

ORGAN RECITAL—The organ recital to be given in First Presbyterian Church Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Mr. Lethbridge will be the second of a series of fortnightly recitals. The program will include: Fantasia in G, Bach; Vorspiel in D minor, Wagner; Promenade, Saint-Saëns; Fantasia and Fugue, Bach. These programs will include the greatest organ works. Mr. Lethbridge is desirous of keeping his church as possible the strictly organ school, with a popular number of two on each program. In the great library of organ music both ancient and modern are to be found numbers to suit all lovers of music.

RESERVE JUDGMENT IN LIQUOR CASES UNTIL NEXT WEEK

Magistrates Hear Evidence On Two Charges.

Judgment was reserved for one week in the case of William Lake of 1032 Pine street, who appeared in police court today on two charges laid by Sgt. Birrell, one for keeping liquor for sale without a license and a second for selling it without a license.

Both charges were laid under the Ontario temperance act, and the case was heard before Mayor Stevenson and Henry Macklin, J. P.

A. H. M. Graydon appeared for Lake, and argued that his client should not be tried on more than one count. He further maintained that, whereas the prosecution had a chance to appeal the act if so desired, the defence was not allowed that privilege under the act.

Caught in Cellar
Sgt. Birrell, who accompanied Sgt. Bolton, testified that he had gone to the cellar at Lake's home and found two men and Lake drinking ale.

He found seven bottles of whisky, six sealed, and upstairs two dozen more. He found also four cases of whisky in a clothes closet.

Sgt. Bolton, who accompanied Sgt. Birrell, corroborated the testimony of the latter. Patrolman Toll testified that he had watched the house after Sgt. Birrell and Bolton had left, and had seen Mrs. Lake come out with a box and take it and leave it in a lot a short distance away.

Got the Box
He had afterwards recovered it, and the box was shown in court today along with the other four cases seized.

Pte. Selacher and Thomas Rue testified that each had been invited to have a glass of porter by Lake, but no money had been paid over.

John Anderson, colored, gave evidence to the effect he had been stopped and searched by Officer Toll. "He just grabbed me and went right through me like I was a thief. Yes, and he knocked me out of a date I had on, too. I had that bottle he found on me long before the bars closed," said Anderson.

Lake took the stand in his own defence, and testified that he had produced the whisky from Montreal, and that it had been delivered last Friday at 11:35 a.m.

Got Five Cases
He had secured the five cases, he said, one for himself and one each for E. McGillivray, E. Evans, T. Deans and his son, James Lake. Each had contributed 50 pieces, as having a quantity sent made a reduction in the cost and saved the express.

Patrolman Toll, he stated, had come to him in civilian clothes and said he was from Flint, Mich., and would like to buy a bottle of liquor, but that he had refused to either sell or give him any.

The evidence of Miss Laveda Lake and that of the four women who testified he had bought the liquor for her corroborated the testimony of Lake.

Court remained in session until 12:30 when the magistrates announced that judgment would be given next Friday.

MACCABEES TO AID ALL SICK MEMBERS AND PAY INSURANCE

Will Look After Friends Incapacitated by War.

CONVENTION HELD HERE

Patriotic Declaration Calls Forth Great Enthusiasm at Meeting.

The district convention of the Maccabees for district No. 2 of Ontario was held in London yesterday with representatives present from Clinton, Teeswater, Strathroy, Springfield, Aylmer, St. Thomas, Waterloo, Kitchener, Crediton and other points, and all reports showing a decided growth in the tents and hives of the district.

The new membership plans, as adopted at a recent supreme tent review, giving greater choice in the mode of their protection, were freely discussed and fully endorsed by all the delegates present.

The adoption of the home and relief fund, by which members of the order in distress shall be taken care of, was also endorsed. This fund is available to any member who needs care because of illness or tuberculosis, or any soldier members who might return from beyond the seas incapacitated for work.

Patriotic Declaration
When the matter of the paying of claims on account of members of the order who have gone to serve the Empire came up for consideration the convention took on the nature of a patriotic demonstration, and the reading of the declaration, adopted at the recent special review of the supreme tent in this regard, created the greatest enthusiasm. It was as follows:

"We declare it to be the policy and purpose of the Maccabees to encourage and recognize members who are in the service of their country, and who are citizens of any nation in which our association has jurisdiction, who shall in the spirit of a true patriotism, enlist in the army or navy of such country in time of war.

No virtue is more dominant in Maccabeanism than patriotism. It burns out every man in the service of his country, distinguished the life and sacrifice of Judas Maccabees, for whom our order is named. He was not only the most splendid of our history, but the willingness of a patriot to die for his country, but of a purpose to live for it as well. It was Judas Maccabees who, in sustaining the spoils of war, was first to set aside a selfish ambition for the generous care of widows and orphans.

Guarantees Insurance
It is the spirit of the Maccabees today, enforcing its purpose through adequate laws and efficient organization, guarantees in full the insurance protection of all members who now and hereafter engage in the lawful service of their country. Likewise, the association purposes to provide generously for the families and dependents of such members through its general relief department."

Resolutions of condolence were ordered prepared and sent to Mr. Janzen of Kitchener on account of the death of Mrs. Janzen, who was an officer of the district at the time of her demise.

The election of officers resulted in the return of practically the same officers as in the last year. Mrs. J. M. Trimm of Aylmer being elected as chaplain to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mrs. Janzen.

The knights and ladies of London entertained the visiting delegates at a social evening in their lodge rooms last night and a very enjoyable time was spent.

CAPT. E. B. NELLES CABLES TO FATHER "LEAVING FOR HOME"

Was Wounded in September and Has Since Been in Hospital.

"Leaving for home."
This cable message reached J. A. Nelles, 24 Prospect avenue, this morning from his son, Capt. E. B. Nelles, in England. Whether Capt. Nelles is coming home on short leave or to stay indefinitely, his friends have no idea, as the three words quoted are the only indication they have had that they would have the pleasure of seeing him in the near future.

Capt. Nelles went overseas with the 70th Battalion, and was not long in reaching the front. On September 25 he was wounded in two places, one bullet penetrating his chest and another his leg, near the knee. Since that time he has been in hospital.

It is supposed, from the cablegram that Capt. Nelles either sailed yesterday from England, or is sailing today.

In a letter to his family here, Capt. Nelles tells of the battle in which he was wounded. He writes that he received his wounds in the attack when the Canadians captured Tulleval on September 25. That the battalion suffered heavily is shown by the fact that only 150 men and 4 officers came through unscathed. The soldiers, however, were not in vain, as they gained their objectives, which were three lines of Hun trenches. Once there, they grappled with the enemy, and after several counter-attacks and taking over 100 prisoners. The full particulars of the battle only reached Capt. Nelles when he was in the hospital, the commanding officer of his battalion having written to him there.

GINSBERG HAS NOT TOLD RELATIVES OF HIS PLIGHT

William Ginsberg, who, according to a dispatch from Windsor, is being held there by the orders of the immigration officials, charged with bringing into this country an undesirable alien in violation of the immigration laws, has not been heard from at his home here, according to Miss Ginsberg, when speaking to The Advertiser this morning.

It is alleged that he attempted to smuggle David Rosenberg, a baker, of Detroit, past the officers at the dock, without the usual examination. Rosenberg had to have told the authorities that Ginsberg had written him offering him $25 per week to come to London and enter his employ, and that he also carried his suitcase over on the ferryboat, and arranged to meet him at the Grand Trunk depot in Windsor.

The dispatch this morning was the first intimation that his people received of the incident. Miss Ginsberg told The Advertiser. She knew he had gone to Windsor on business, but declared she was unaware that he was in need of a baker, or that he had written a letter to one. David Rosenberg was unknown to her, she said.

BOARDS OF TRADE HAVE PLANS FOR LEGISLATION

Immigration, Daylight Saving and Other Questions Subjects of Resolutions.

Gordon Philip, secretary of the board of trade, has received the agenda of the Associated Boards of Trade, whose annual session will be held in Hamilton on November 21st and 22nd.

It includes a resolution relative to immigration, brought forward by the Brantford Board of Trade. It suggests that all immigrants from the British Isles be kept in Canada, and deterred from crossing into the United States, the majority be placed on the land, and that only immigrants be admitted who will make loyal citizens.

Hamilton and Toronto ask legislation the daylight saving scheme, and suggest that it be made Dominion-wide. The Kingston Board of Trade suggests that the Government investigate all issues of stocks and bonds before issued to the public. The local organization of Trade is anxious to have the Welland Canal completed, and also that the resources of Canada be subjected to a rigorous investigation, to find out what is to be found here.

There are many other resolutions from boards of trade that were too late for the agenda. Two of them are from the London board. The local organization endorsed the plea of the bakers that bread be sold according to weight, and another asking that excise duties be removed from alcohol used for manufacturing purposes.

A number of members from London will attend the session.

DETROIT LONDONERS ARE HELPING SOLDIERS' BAZAAR

Take Up Idea of Helping Canadian Forces With Enthusiasm.

Former residents of London are taking an active part in the great bazaar for the Canadian soldiers which is being held in Detroit this week, in the tabernacle constructed for Evangelist Billy Sunday.

Thousands of former Londoners reside in Detroit. They are still conscious of the bond of common interest that binds them together, especially because of the Old Boys' Reunions which were held in the city in years gone by. Recently some of them got together and hit upon the idea of securing the Sunday tabernacle for a Canadian soldiers' bazaar and the idea spread like wildfire. It is said that 20,000 Canadians from Western Ontario counties reside in Detroit, and from such an army there was a great response.

Some Londoners are in charge of booths at the bazaar.
