

YOUTH.

And I Know the Value of Health—Why Did Not the Friendly Hand of Me?

Young Men and Women—It is dimmed by the loss of that because the nerves are weak and the head is dizzy, and there are YOUTH of youthful vigor. Feel the electric brain. There is a new electric belt. It replaces the old one at a time. Thousands of all you. Write to Dr. Sanden, men or for women, which will be addressed.

ISSUE OF THE COLONIST

Eight Pages.

The News of the Gold Fields.

formed, you cannot do WEEKLY COLONIST.

PER ANNUM $1.50.

ING IN YOUR EARS and noises in your head are the certain warnings of approaching danger. You ought to know also of the great value of HUDYAN treatment. This remedy treats young and middle-aged men, alike.

HUDYAN HUDYAN HUDYAN

The cures effected have been lasting ones. You can write yourself to these men whom we have cured.

SEND FOR CIRCULARS AND TESTIMONIALS

ON MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Francisco, - Cal.

ers' Institutes.

meetings will be held at the Public

Parsons Bridge Hotel, on Thursday, the 28th Instant, at 1 p.m.

purpose of giving information as to the which will accrue to agriculturists themselves of the provisions of the Institutes and Co-operative Act.

will be addressed by Mr. T. F. who has had considerable experience working of Farmers' Institutes in Ontario.

J. R. ANDERSON, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, Acting Sup't. of Farmers' Institutes, 22nd Oct. 1897.

WANTED—Vine maple and yew in lengths. Standard delivered in truck per cord of 6 ft. lengths x 4 ft. in length. Board of Trade building.

ADVERTISING will secure you trade public know what you have for sale fair trial.

FORTIETH YEAR.

SOLDIERS IN THE SULK.

Reports that for such reason the Royal Irish Battalion had to be Retired.

Lieuting Explanations as to the Incident and Official Inquiry Called For.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Daily Chronicle prints to-day a sensational telegram from Bombay, which says: "There is much speculation here as to the reason for the withdrawal of the Second Battalion Royal Irish Regiment from Samana to Rawalpindi. It is asserted on one hand that the men sulked at the critical moment and refused to march further. On the other hand Colonel Lawrence says that two companies were at the front with the other troops on the day in question, while the remaining companies were retired by an order of a staff officer."

MR. DALY'S DEPARTURE.

An Exciting Time at the Farewell Demonstration in Limerick.

DUBLIN, Oct. 29.—According to a despatch from Limerick there was great excitement throughout that county last evening in anticipation of Mr. John Daly's departure for the United States. The police patrolled the entire town in special force, as it was feared there would be disturbances, and a strong force guarded the residence of the Mayor. Mr. Daly addressed a large and enthusiastic meeting of his admirers, and in the course of an impassioned speech denounced the Mayor of Limerick as "the myrmidon of Dublin Castle."

DYNAMITE IN SOUTH AFRICA.

President Kruger Would Not Cancel the Concession to the Company.

PRETORIA, Oct. 28.—The Volksraad having under consideration the report of the sub-committee on industrial conditions recommending a reduction of duty to the amount of ten shillings per case on dynamite and large reductions in the railroad tariff on mining requirements, President Kruger made a general statement to the effect that he would not allow the dynamite industry to oppress the mines, neither would he allow the mines to strangle the dynamite industry.

KILLED IN A CHURCH.

Forty-Four Persons Lose Their Lives and Eighty Seriously Injured.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 28.—A terrible calamity has taken place at the village of Khameloff in the Kozloff district, on the western coast of the Crimea. While service was in progress in the village church an alarm of fire was raised. A panic ensued in the crowded congregation, and the efforts of the officiating priests to calm the tumult were unavailing. In the stampede for the exits 44 persons were killed by suffocation or being trampled, and 80 others were seriously injured.

RUSSIA'S NAVAL STRENGTH.

It Would Enable Her to Seriously Harass the British in India.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Odessa correspondent of the Daily Mail, commenting on the "immense growth of the Russian navy in recent years, especially in transport vessels," says: "Russia could quickly pour hundreds of thousands of troops and materials of war into India by way of the Black sea and the trans-Caucasian and Daghestan railways. England would be at an enormous disadvantage if involved in a war with Russia. Her victorious and earnest campaigner her touching appeals for votes have practically driven the man who is her opponent out of the race."

CARNEGIES CLOSING OUT.

Armor Plate Making Has Not Paid and They Are Tired of the Experiment.

PARIS, Oct. 29.—Andrew Carnegie, who is here, says that he has offered the Carnegie armor plate works to the United States government. If the offer is not accepted, the firm will sell them abroad. He says that he only took up the armor business from a sense of duty to his country and the works have never paid. The firm means to sell out at the smallest possible loss.

KLONDYKE LIFE INSURANCE.

The Late Fred Cope Had an Accident Policy But It Is Declared Not Applicable There.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 29.—(Special)—The late Fred Cope held an accident policy in the London Guarantee and Accident Company for $5,000. The statement has been made repeatedly on the street recently that the policy would not be paid as the Canadian territory adjoining Alaska is uncivilized territory—so far as insurance companies are concerned for A. A. Bock's name, as agent for the company, has been repeatedly mentioned in connection with the rumor, and being seen by a Colchester correspondent, he said:

"I did not see the late Mr. Cope at all in connection with the insurance risk. It was brought to me by Mr. McGregor. That gentleman or his assistant mentioned the fact that Mr. Cope was going to Klondyke with my partner, who conducted me. I stated that we had no instruction regarding merchant's travelling to Klondyke, but that the applicant could read over the policy and satisfy himself before accepting such insurance. My partner telephoned this conversation in effect to Mr. McGregor's office. The policy was made out according to the application, for Fred Cope, merchant. At this time all other accident companies in town were accepting similar risks. On the same day that the policy was written I wrote to the head office asking them if they wished to accept risks of merchants going to Klondyke for trade—as separate and distinct from miners, not accepted."

According to dispatches from Gundiak Sir William Lockhart explained his plan of attack to his officers last evening and the advance from Gundiak commenced in the darkness about 5 o'clock this morning. The main force, with six batteries, moved straight on the pass. Detachments were sent to operate against the villages of the summit. When day dawned all the troops were in position at the foot of the pass. The enemy's position was very strong and the approach was greatly exposed, but until now the resistance has been trifling, the tribesmen having been easily expelled from the villages of Nazens and Kundiakish.

GREAT WORK IN INDIA.

Well Planned Attack by the British Completely Rout the Tribesmen's Host.

Semphagna Pass Captured With Small Loss—Afridis in Desperate Straits.

SMILTA, Oct. 29.—The British forces under General Sir William Lockhart captured Semphagna pass at 11:15 o'clock this morning. General Caselee, in command of the second brigade, led the advance upon the enemy's position, which was of the strongest description. The casualties among British officers already reported are: Capt. Debbats, artillery, who succumbed to wounds received during the engagement, and Major Handford Flood, of the West Surrey Regiment, who was killed and wounded. The British force will halt to-night at Mustura valley and attack Arghaia to-morrow.

NEWS OF THE CAPITAL.

Intense Strain of the New York Mayoralty Contest Proved Too Much for Him.

Campaign Affairs Thus Thrown Into Utter Confusion Four Days Before Election.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Henry George died at the Union Square hotel about 5 o'clock this morning. After speaking at several campaign meetings last evening Mr. George returned to the hotel about 10 o'clock. He ate a light supper and immediately retired. About 3:30 this morning he awoke and complained of suffering severe pains. He then became unconscious. Mrs. George was with him, and his son, Henry George, Jr., who also was in the hotel, was hastily summoned. Dr. G. E. Kelley, Henry George's physician, in the death certificate says: "Chief cause, apoplexy cerebral; contributory cause, apoplexy cerebral; physical structure, and those who know him best feared for the result of an exciting cause such as that which is now in its last hours was sure to be. Newspaper men who have been in part of George's campaign, felt he was undergoing a strain, and surely and rapidly breaking down. At times he had been incoherent. His whole temperament underwent complete change."

HENRY GEORGE IS DEAD.

Rev. Dr. McGlynn, a staunch supporter of Mr. George, reached the Union Square hotel a little before 11 o'clock. When he was taken into the room where his friend lay dead he burst into tears. There was a distressing scene. Afterwards he said: "Henry George died as the brave man Lincoln died. Lincoln was assassinated just after his great work of saving the union was completed. It was said that he was mercifully spared the petty annoyances and humiliations of the reconstruction period. Henry George was not spared any of these in the zenith of his powers. But the great work that he inaugurated will go on. As a man and a philosopher it will be long before his age has been equaled. His goodness and gentleness singled him out among all men, and with others, I almost worshipped him. When Dr. McGlynn was able to speak last night over his recent intercourse with the dead man, he recalled that his friend had frequently expressed to him premonitions of his death, and was approaching an end of language that he now said indicated a presentiment that he would not outlive his campaign."

THE MAYORALTY CONTEST.

Campaign Put Upon An Entirely New Basis Four Days Before the Election.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—When the news of Mr. George's death was spread broadcast, a great crowd, impelled for the most part by curiosity, gathered in the corridors of the hotel. The George headquarters were in a state of demoralization. It seemed as though the work of weeks had been lost. Messages of condolence were pouring in upon the widow, and on all sides there were expressions of regret. In financial districts the news of the candidate's death brought the purpose of urging the endorsement of Low. At the juncture, however, a telegram came from Allan W. Thurman, urging the nomination of Henry George. This suggestion was adopted unanimously and enthusiastically. Tom L. Johnson was appointed a committee to see whether the son would accept. Henry George, Jr., was seen almost immediately and he accepted.

LAVIGNE A WINNER.

Walcott Throws Up the Sponge After Twelve Rounds.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—The eagerly looked for bout between Lavigne and Walcott came off at the Mechanics' Pavilion to-night, the men entering the ring at 10:30. In the first round Lavigne opened with a lead for Walcott's face, and then landed under his heart. Walcott was on defensive, and both men fought fiercely. Lavigne landed a heavy blow to the stomach and heart, punishing Walcott's face as well in the fifth, but evidently beginning to tire. In the sixth, however, he again had the advantage, and in the seventh he chased Walcott about the ring. The eighth was a hard round; Walcott made Lavigne's head bleed freely from a stiff right hander and the referee was covered with blood from separating the men. The blood made Lavigne fiercer in the ninth, but Walcott stood well up to him. In the tenth Walcott came to the center of the ring with one leg stiff. Lavigne landed several body blows, Walcott was groggy, but landed on the eleven Lavigne was still limping. Both were fighting slowly. Lavigne rushed and Walcott ducked and threw him over his head for the third time. Walcott then landed right and left on Lavigne's head and in return was smashed under the heart. The twelfth round opened with Lavigne forcing the fight, planting right and left on Walcott's face. Walcott landed a heavy right on the ribs, but Lavigne continued to force the fighting and Walcott resorted to clinching. Lavigne forced Walcott into a corner and landed four or five times on his face and body. O'Rourke then threw up the sponge and the referee declared Lavigne the winner. O'Rourke says Walcott wrenched his leg early in the fight and was unable to longer continue.

ENGLISH OPINION.

"Henry George Could Hardly Have Chosen A Better Death"—His Son's Nomination.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Commenting on the death of Henry George, the Chronicle says: "The news of the death of Henry George came with great sadness to millions throughout the civilized world. He died in harness, the victim of a herculean effort to raise New York from the slough of corruption and misrule. He could himself have hardly chosen a better death."

The Daily Mail thinks the nomination of the late Henry George's son will be "quickly repented." The afternoon papers to-day publish further sympathetic comments on the death of Henry George similar to the references made by the morning papers to the deceased philosopher and political economist. Columns of stories about the dead man and incidents of his career are printed by the afternoon papers.

FREE FOR A DAY.

The Windsor Inlanders Escapes From a Sleepy Gable But Is Recaptured.

WINDSOR, N.S., Oct. 29.—John McIntyre, the fire-bug, escaped from the block house yesterday while the gable-keeper was asleep. He had been left with his hands free and climbed through a window. The alarm was raised immediately after. Soldiers went out over the country and the bridges were guarded, while the citizens turned out armed. McIntyre was eventually captured and held by some section men in a railway cut.

ESCAPED FROM THE ICE.

Two Hundred Passengers for Dawson Who Were Caught Off the Mouth of the Yukon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—The steamer Excelsior, which arrived from St. Michael's last night, brought the news that the river steamers Alice and Merain with over two hundred persons bound for Dawson City, which were caught in the ice in the Bearing sea off the mouth of the Yukon, were released by a sudden thaw. A large number of the soldiers are incurably diseased.

UNFORTUNATE SPANIARDS.

CAJAL, Oct. 28.—The steamer Buenos Ayres has arrived here from Havana bringing 1,200 troops who are invalided by me. Twenty died on the voyage and about 100 were in a dyking condition upon their arrival here. A large number of the soldiers are incurably diseased.

THE TURKISH NAVY.

German and British Firms Competing for Its Reconstruction.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 28.—The agents of the Elewisk works, Baron Wm. Armstrong, and of Her Krupp, the great German gun-maker, are here with proposals for the reconstruction of the Turkish navy and the contest between the British and Germans in this enterprise is being keenly watched. It is believed that Emperor William has appealed to the Sultan to favor the Krupp proposals, but there is a strong public feeling on the side of the British firms.

NEWFOUNDLAND ELECTIONS.

Whiteway Government's Strength Reduced and Two Ministers Defeated.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Oct. 29.—The results of the general elections of members of the assembly, which took place yesterday, are coming in slowly. The indicate that the Whiteway government will have a much smaller majority in the new assembly. Hon. H. J. E. Woods, surveyor-general and a member of the cabinet, has been defeated. Hon. E. P. Morris, member of the cabinet without portfolio and solicitor-general, basely carried his seat. All the government majorities have been largely reduced.

GERMAN COURT IS MOURNING.

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—The German court has been ordered to go into mourning for ten days as a mark of sympathy for the relatives of the late Duchess of Teck.

MILITARY REFORM.

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—It is officially announced to-day that the bundsrath on opening its plenary sittings will discuss the military reform bill. This measure the bill being presented to the reichstag.

WELL PLANNED ATTACK BY THE BRITISH COMPLETELY ROUT THE TRIBESMEN'S HOST.

Semphagna Pass Captured With Small Loss—Afridis in Desperate Straits.

SMILTA, Oct. 29.—The British forces under General Sir William Lockhart captured Semphagna pass at 11:15 o'clock this morning. General Caselee, in command of the second brigade, led the advance upon the enemy's position, which was of the strongest description. The casualties among British officers already reported are: Capt. Debbats, artillery, who succumbed to wounds received during the engagement, and Major Handford Flood, of the West Surrey Regiment, who was killed and wounded. The British force will halt to-night at Mustura valley and attack Arghaia to-morrow.

NEWS OF THE CAPITAL.

Intense Strain of the New York Mayoralty Contest Proved Too Much for Him.

Campaign Affairs Thus Thrown Into Utter Confusion Four Days Before Election.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Henry George died at the Union Square hotel about 5 o'clock this morning. After speaking at several campaign meetings last evening Mr. George returned to the hotel about 10 o'clock. He ate a light supper and immediately retired. About 3:30 this morning he awoke and complained of suffering severe pains. He then became unconscious. Mrs. George was with him, and his son, Henry George, Jr., who also was in the hotel, was hastily summoned. Dr. G. E. Kelley, Henry George's physician, in the death certificate says: "Chief cause, apoplexy cerebral; contributory cause, apoplexy cerebral; physical structure, and those who know him best feared for the result of an exciting cause such as that which is now in its last hours was sure to be. Newspaper men who have been in part of George's campaign, felt he was undergoing a strain, and surely and rapidly breaking down. At times he had been incoherent. His whole temperament underwent complete change."

HENRY GEORGE IS DEAD.

Rev. Dr. McGlynn, a staunch supporter of Mr. George, reached the Union Square hotel a little before 11 o'clock. When he was taken into the room where his friend lay dead he burst into tears. There was a distressing scene. Afterwards he said: "Henry George died as the brave man Lincoln died. Lincoln was assassinated just after his great work of saving the union was completed. It was said that he was mercifully spared the petty annoyances and humiliations of the reconstruction period. Henry George was not spared any of these in the zenith of his powers. But the great work that he inaugurated will go on. As a man and a philosopher it will be long before his age has been equaled. His goodness and gentleness singled him out among all men, and with others, I almost worshipped him. When Dr. McGlynn was able to speak last night over his recent intercourse with the dead man, he recalled that his friend had frequently expressed to him premonitions of his death, and was approaching an end of language that he now said indicated a presentiment that he would not outlive his campaign."

THE MAYORALTY CONTEST.

Campaign Put Upon An Entirely New Basis Four Days Before the Election.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—When the news of Mr. George's death was spread broadcast, a great crowd, impelled for the most part by curiosity, gathered in the corridors of the hotel. The George headquarters were in a state of demoralization. It seemed as though the work of weeks had been lost. Messages of condolence were pouring in upon the widow, and on all sides there were expressions of regret. In financial districts the news of the candidate's death brought the purpose of urging the endorsement of Low. At the juncture, however, a telegram came from Allan W. Thurman, urging the nomination of Henry George. This suggestion was adopted unanimously and enthusiastically. Tom L. Johnson was appointed a committee to see whether the son would accept. Henry George, Jr., was seen almost immediately and he accepted.

LAVIGNE A WINNER.

Walcott Throws Up the Sponge After Twelve Rounds.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—The eagerly looked for bout between Lavigne and Walcott came off at the Mechanics' Pavilion to-night, the men entering the ring at 10:30. In the first round Lavigne opened with a lead for Walcott's face, and then landed under his heart. Walcott was on defensive, and both men fought fiercely. Lavigne landed a heavy blow to the stomach and heart, punishing Walcott's face as well in the fifth, but evidently beginning to tire. In the sixth, however, he again had the advantage, and in the seventh he chased Walcott about the ring. The eighth was a hard round; Walcott made Lavigne's head bleed freely from a stiff right hander and the referee was covered with blood from separating the men. The blood made Lavigne fiercer in the ninth, but Walcott stood well up to him. In the tenth Walcott came to the center of the ring with one leg stiff. Lavigne landed several body blows, Walcott was groggy, but landed on the eleven Lavigne was still limping. Both were fighting slowly. Lavigne rushed and Walcott ducked and threw him over his head for the third time. Walcott then landed right and left on Lavigne's head and in return was smashed under the heart. The twelfth round opened with Lavigne forcing the fight, planting right and left on Walcott's face. Walcott landed a heavy right on the ribs, but Lavigne continued to force the fighting and Walcott resorted to clinching. Lavigne forced Walcott into a corner and landed four or five times on his face and body. O'Rourke then threw up the sponge and the referee declared Lavigne the winner. O'Rourke says Walcott wrenched his leg early in the fight and was unable to longer continue.

ENGLISH OPINION.

"Henry George Could Hardly Have Chosen A Better Death"—His Son's Nomination.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Commenting on the death of Henry George, the Chronicle says: "The news of the death of Henry George came with great sadness to millions throughout the civilized world. He died in harness, the victim of a herculean effort to raise New York from the slough of corruption and misrule. He could himself have hardly chosen a better death."

THE MAYORALTY CONTEST.

Campaign Put Upon An Entirely New Basis Four Days Before the Election.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—When the news of Mr. George's death was spread broadcast, a great crowd, impelled for the most part by curiosity, gathered in the corridors of the hotel. The George headquarters were in a state of demoralization. It seemed as though the work of weeks had been lost. Messages of condolence were pouring in upon the widow, and on all sides there were expressions of regret. In financial districts the news of the candidate's death brought the purpose of urging the endorsement of Low. At the juncture, however, a telegram came from Allan W. Thurman, urging the nomination of Henry George. This suggestion was adopted unanimously and enthusiastically. Tom L. Johnson was appointed a committee to see whether the son would accept. Henry George, Jr., was seen almost immediately and he accepted.

LAVIGNE A WINNER.

Walcott Throws Up the Sponge After Twelve Rounds.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—The eagerly looked for bout between Lavigne and Walcott came off at the Mechanics' Pavilion to-night, the men entering the ring at 10:30. In the first round Lavigne opened with a lead for Walcott's face, and then landed under his heart. Walcott was on defensive, and both men fought fiercely. Lavigne landed a heavy blow to the stomach and heart, punishing Walcott's face as well in the fifth, but evidently beginning to tire. In the sixth, however, he again had the advantage, and in the seventh he chased Walcott about the ring. The eighth was a hard round; Walcott made Lavigne's head bleed freely from a stiff right hander and the referee was covered with blood from separating the men. The blood made Lavigne fiercer in the ninth, but Walcott stood well up to him. In the tenth Walcott came to the center of the ring with one leg stiff. Lavigne landed several body blows, Walcott was groggy, but landed on the eleven Lavigne was still limping. Both were fighting slowly. Lavigne rushed and Walcott ducked and threw him over his head for the third time. Walcott then landed right and left on Lavigne's head and in return was smashed under the heart. The twelfth round opened with Lavigne forcing the fight, planting right and left on Walcott's face. Walcott landed a heavy right on the ribs, but Lavigne continued to force the fighting and Walcott resorted to clinching. Lavigne forced Walcott into a corner and landed four or five times on his face and body. O'Rourke then threw up the sponge and the referee declared Lavigne the winner. O'Rourke says Walcott wrenched his leg early in the fight and was unable to longer continue.

ENGLISH OPINION.

"Henry George Could Hardly Have Chosen A Better Death"—His Son's Nomination.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Commenting on the death of Henry George, the Chronicle says: "The news of the death of Henry George came with great sadness to millions throughout the civilized world. He died in harness, the victim of a herculean effort to raise New York from the slough of corruption and misrule. He could himself have hardly chosen a better death."

THE MAYORALTY CONTEST.

Campaign Put Upon An Entirely New Basis Four Days Before the Election.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—When the news of Mr. George's death was spread broadcast, a great crowd, impelled for the most part by curiosity, gathered in the corridors of the hotel. The George headquarters were in a state of demoralization. It seemed as though the work of weeks had been lost. Messages of condolence were pouring in upon the widow, and on all sides there were expressions of regret. In financial districts the news of the candidate's death brought the purpose of urging the endorsement of Low. At the juncture, however, a telegram came from Allan W. Thurman, urging the nomination of Henry George. This suggestion was adopted unanimously and enthusiastically. Tom L. Johnson was appointed a committee to see whether the son would accept. Henry George, Jr., was seen almost immediately and he accepted.

LAVIGNE A WINNER.

Walcott Throws Up the Sponge After Twelve Rounds.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

IN GREATER NEW YORK.

How the Four Parties Estimate Their Chances in the Race for the Mayoralty.

Imposing Honors for Henry George—English Opinion on His Son's Nomination.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The various campaign managers go out their final campaign views to-day regarding the New York mayoralty fight as follows: Newell E. Quigg, (Rep.) The Democratic vote is split up between Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican organization has made an especially careful canvass of those heavily Republican districts which the citizens have not constantly allowed to have a large Low vote. All these canvasses tell the same story. They prove that there is no large Low vote in any one of them. To distribute 3,077 for Van Wyck, George and Low. The Republican vote is consolidated on Tracy, and Tracy is the winner. Mr. Quigg settled the 23rd assembly district as characteristic of the condition of the whole city. He said: "The Republican