Exeter, president of the London con-ference, and about a dozen years ago pastor of the Watford circuit, occupied the pulpit morning and evening and preached sermons which were much enjoyed. The choir of the church was ably assisted by Miss Bernice Anderson, of London, a soloist of considerable merit.

IF there's anything a stranger likes to see, it's a clean town and, since this place has some record along that line, it might help cinch that reputation if a little extra furbishing were done before fair day on some of the vacant lots in town. A HANDSOMELY gotten up pamphlet entitled "Chevalier de la Corne and the Carrot River Valley of Saskatchewan," has been received from the author, A. S. Beanatt ed Malfard Back V. Bennett, of Melfort, Sask. It is a treatise resources where agricultural effort was made in Western Canada in 1754, and gives an account of the events leading up to the first farming fete to be celebrated at Melfort in August, 1914. It makes very interesting reading. ROUNDS' Ladies' Orchestra, consisting of ten musicians and a first-class comedi-an, of the Canadian Lyceum Association, of Toronto, will give a concert in the Lyceum, Tuesday, Sept. 23rd, under the auspices of the Watford Concert Band. The above company comes high-Jy recommended and you are assured of a first class concert. Come along and help the band boys out. Proceeds go towards buying new uniforms. Tickets 35c. and 50c. Plan of hall at drug stores.

THE FAIR-OCT. 7th and 8th.

THE FAIR—OCT. 7th and 8th. Mark off on your calendar the above dates—especially the 8th—as the time when all the family, not forgetting the children, expect to spend the day at the big East Lambton Fair at Watford. There is every prospect that it will be bigger and better than ever this year. The first day will be spent in arranging and judging articles in the hall and tents. Wednesday there will be trials of speed, a baby show, (cash prizes), highland dancing, good platform per-formance and lots of fun for young and old. The Pipers Band will be in attend-ance, also the Watford Concert Band. A merry-go-round for the children and a good time in general for all.

AUTOMOBILISTS would confer a great favor, if, when meeting a horse and buggy, they would turn out sooner than buggy, they would turn out sooner than some of them do now. A horse may be very quiet, but when an auto is rushing toward him and is turned out only a few feet from his nose, he is very apt to shy to one side. Several people have com-plained of this practice.

MANY persons feel offended because their comings and goings are not men-tioned while those of others are, and wonder what the matter can be. The explanation of the matter is that the editor means to be impartial, but some escape mention. The likes and dislikes of an editor have nothing to do with it, and while it is not pretended that the ed-itor is more than human, he knows that the success of his journal depends on his fairness and impartiality to all.
