WALKER-SKILLEN

WALKER—SKILLEN A pretty wedding took place at the the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Skillen, 2nd line, S. E. R., Warwick, on Wednesday, Sept. 24th, at high noon, when their second daughter Clara Belle was united in marnage to Archibald C. Walker, a prosperous young farmer of Brooke by Rev. J. C. Forster of Watford Presbyterian Church. The bride, gowned in cream georgette over white taffeta with pearl trimmings, and leaning on the arm of her father, en-tered the parlor to the strains of the Lohengrin Bridal Chorus played by Miss Reta Bryce, cousin of the bride, and took her place beside the groom in front of an arch of maple leaves and ferns. She car-ried a boquet of Ophelia roses and orchids. They were unattended. Little Marjory Jean Parker, niece of the bride, made a charming little ring-bearer carrying the ring in a basket of sweet peas and maiden hair fern while Master Melvyn Parker acted as page. After the usual congratulations the guests numbering about thirty repaired to the dining room, which was tastefully becorated in pink and white, where the wedding dinner was served. The bride received many 'beautiful and useful presents. The groom's gift to the-bride was a-substantial check, to the guests numbering about thirty repaired to the dining room, which was tastefully becorated in pink and white, where the wedding dinner was served. The bride received many beautiful and useful presents. The groom's gift to the pianist a pearl ring, to the ring bearer a gold chain and locket, and to the page a signet ring.

After dinner the happy couple left amid showers of confetti and best wishes for Hamilton, Toronto and Niagara Falls, the bride travelling in a French navy blue broadcloth suit with hat to match. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm, Con. 9, Brooke. On Friday evening previous to her marriage the girl friends of the bride-elect gathered to gether at the home of Mrs. Jno. K. Parker, Rossvale Farm, and presented her with a prettily decorated wedding cake which on being cut was ful pieces of china. The evening was spent in music and games after which a dainty lunch was served.
