

The Weekly Monitor,

At Bridgetown, Annapolis Co., N. S. M. K. PIPER, Proprietor and Publisher JOHN R. PUDNEY, Manager.

TERMS: $1.00 per annum in advance.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 30TH, 1898.

—In spite of her protests Spain has consented to hand over the Philippines, Porto Rico and Guam to the United States for the consideration of $20,000,000.

—The price of potatoes, in the Halifax market, has advanced from 30c. to 40c. per bushel.

—The annual business meeting of the Baptist Church will be held next Monday afternoon at 7 o'clock.

—Mr. H. J. Crowe is loading the Oona at Goodwin's wharf, Bellisle, with lumber for the offer of purchase.

—Rev. Mr. McMillan, of Kentville, preached in the Gordon Memorial Church Sunday evening last.

—Longfellow's packets Temple Bar and Hunter arrived from St. John on Saturday, with heavy freight.

—The Bridgetown boys want to play football and are soliciting contributions for the purchase of the necessary equipment.

—Mr. E. L. Fisher has closed his tailoring business here for the winter and will devote his entire attention to his Annapolis branch.

—J. W. Hockwith will appear in the Friday challenge sales on Friday of this week.

—Pastor Young's anniversary and memorial service next Sunday morning will mark the close of the 13th year of his Bridgetown pastorate.

—The Bridgetown Band are practicing assiduously for a public concert which will take place under their direction sometime next month.

—The last of the interesting series of lectures by the Rev. F. P. Creators, descriptive of his trip to London and Paris, will be published next week.

—The four-masted schooner Nimbus, sailed last Wednesday from Annapolis for Boston with 100 tons of lumber, shipped by Mr. H. J. Crowe of this town.

—This month is the time for your Xmas Presents. What is better to send your friends for Xmas than a good Photo. Call early and secure a sitting at Rice's Studio at once.

—A letter from President Davison, of the Nova Scotia Pork Packing Co., is printed in another column and is of peculiar interest to the many shareholders and others interested.

—Thanksgiving day was a quiet holiday in Bridgetown. The factories and stores were closed and though the streets were lined with people in the afternoon and evening good order prevailed.

—On the 10th December the sun will set at 4.14, and on the 13th it will set 1 minute later. The mornings here yet to grow 25 degrees shorter, and will not begin to lengthen until New Year's day.

—Rev. Silas L. Moore, has removed from Plymouth, Mass., to Medford in the same State. He enters upon his new field of labor with much hope. Mr. Moore was at one time in the Methodist office.

—About 125,000 barrels of apples have been shipped from the Annapolis and Cornwallis Valleys, to the English market, and this certainly does not represent more than half the quantity available for export.

—Mr. Eugene W. Cleveland, has gone to Philadelphia to superintend the adjustment of the Cleveland cylinder to the new locomotives now under construction for the I. C. R. at Baldwin works there.

—The D. A. R. steamer, Prince George, arrived at Yarmouth, last Thursday. She has 200 feet long, one steam 20 knots, and accommodation for 240 first class passengers, and is a fine specimen of modern architecture.

—Bridgetown investors continue to speculate in British Columbia gold mines. Many thousands of dollars worth of stock in some of the most promising mines is held here, and first ventures have proved so successful that the investment is being increased.

—Mr. H. H. Taylor, former blind engineer, assisted by Miss Stella B. Taylor and Archie Hawbold, will give an entertainment in Y. M. C. A. Hall next Friday evening. The program will comprise violin, pianoforte and vocal solos, songs, recitations and sketches.

—Mr. J. C. Wood with a firm believer in the efficacy of printer's ink as an antidote against cholera, and his opinion was justified by the fact that he and his family were not affected by the cholera which was so prevalent in the city of St. John, N. S., during the epidemic.

—The Rev. Josephine, chartered by Mr. H. J. Crowe to load lumber at Bridgetown, Boston, is ashore at Erie, where she had a cargo of cornmeal consigned to Pichels Mills, Mississippi. Efforts will be made to float her today, and, if successful, she will be taken to "Highly" for repairs.

—Rumsey v. Rumsey is likely to be before the Supreme Court once more. Although the suit was settled at the last term of the court it appears the trouble was not and a fresh writ has been issued and served. The validity of a deed in question and the action is brought to have it set aside.

—Saturday night's storm did considerable damage to Annapolis shipping and the loss of some of the vessels that were in the path of the storm. The schooner, J. B. Macfar, Capt. E. J. Chute, and the Schooner, Capt. E. J. Chute, and the Schooner, Capt. E. J. Chute, were bound for local ports and have not been heard from.

—Mr. Laurie Giles, son of Rev. J. B. Giles, of Granville Ferry, died in Boston last Thursday from diphtheria, contracted while in the hospital where he had been recovering from an attack of measles. The news of his death has caused deep regret among his many friends in Bridgetown and vicinity. The body was taken to Annapolis for interment.

—Rev. J. R. Hart has a three acre farm that has few equals in the county as a producer of valuable crops. About one-third of the land is in hay, from which hay is annually cut and wintered and a horse is usually kept on the farm. The remainder is divided into fruit trees. From these trees Mr. Hart picked 270 barrels of apples this year which at the price that are ruling now will net a fair income. The plot is well watered and an abundance of small fruits and vegetables.

—Captain N. V. Mauro of this town is having an unpleasant experience with the law of Lunenburg at Norfolk, Va., where his ship, the Canada, is now docked. He is detained by the authorities on a charge of having aided the escape of his mate, K. N. Crowley, who was charged by the crew with killing a West Indian seaman, early last June. The Captain's detention is probably not a serious matter at all, however unpleasant it may be, but the fact of the case are being widely discussed by local gossip.

—The Rural Dairy meeting of this district met in the Episcopal Church here yesterday afternoon with the following clergyman in attendance: Rev. H. A. Harley, Dulby; Rev. H. H. Hovey, Annapolis; Rev. L. Amos, Middlesex; Rev. F. T. Creators, of Bridgetown. A business meeting was held in the Sunday School building in the afternoon, and fell seven in the church in the evening. The usual Wednesday evening service will take place to night, the sermon to be preached by either Rev. L. Amos or Rev. H. A. Harley.

—An insane man named Marshall escaped from the County Asylum on Saturday last and was found before day-break on Saturday morning in the Home stable at Mrs. Hector MacLean's, lying on a work bench with his hands up for covering, his feet scribbled and wrapped in a sheep skin he had found there. One ankle was covered and striped with blood and the other had been bandaged with a handkerchief. He was covered with mud and drenched with rain and mud and was wandering about some time before he began to freeze. That night (Friday) was the coldest of the season, and the poor fellow was thoroughly chilled. He was taken to the house, warmed and fed and put to bed in a warm bed with his clothes being changed. In the meantime Mrs. MacLean telephoned to town to have the proper authorities notified of his whereabouts, and about ten o'clock Mr. Clarke sent one of his sons to remove the man to the asylum. Marshall says he had a fit and rained a window and jumped out, which was the cause of his iced condition. Whatever way he managed to escape he had a rough experience, and must certainly have suffered from exposure.

—The assortment of Fancy China at Shaw & Lloyd's.

Local and Special News.

—Last Saturday and Sunday were windy days.

—Best Raisins, at lowest prices at Shaw & Lloyd's.

—The sch. Annie G. sailed on Saturday with piling for New York.

—There will be services in Gordon Memorial church next Sunday morning and evening.

—The D. A. R. bridge builders are completing the repairs on the railway bridge here.

—Mr. Ingram Oakes, of New Albany, was admitted to the Bar of Nova Scotia last week.

—We are selling Eggs at 20c. per dozen at Shaw & Lloyd's.

—The price of potatoes, in the Halifax market, has advanced from 30c. to 40c. per bushel.

—The annual business meeting of the Baptist Church will be held next Monday afternoon at 7 o'clock.

—Mr. H. J. Crowe is loading the Oona at Goodwin's wharf, Bellisle, with lumber for the offer of purchase.

—Rev. Mr. McMillan, of Kentville, preached in the Gordon Memorial Church Sunday evening last.

—Longfellow's packets Temple Bar and Hunter arrived from St. John on Saturday, with heavy freight.

—The Bridgetown boys want to play football and are soliciting contributions for the purchase of the necessary equipment.

—Mr. E. L. Fisher has closed his tailoring business here for the winter and will devote his entire attention to his Annapolis branch.

—J. W. Hockwith will appear in the Friday challenge sales on Friday of this week.

—Pastor Young's anniversary and memorial service next Sunday morning will mark the close of the 13th year of his Bridgetown pastorate.

—The Bridgetown Band are practicing assiduously for a public concert which will take place under their direction sometime next month.

—The last of the interesting series of lectures by the Rev. F. P. Creators, descriptive of his trip to London and Paris, will be published next week.

—The four-masted schooner Nimbus, sailed last Wednesday from Annapolis for Boston with 100 tons of lumber, shipped by Mr. H. J. Crowe of this town.

—This month is the time for your Xmas Presents. What is better to send your friends for Xmas than a good Photo. Call early and secure a sitting at Rice's Studio at once.

—A letter from President Davison, of the Nova Scotia Pork Packing Co., is printed in another column and is of peculiar interest to the many shareholders and others interested.

—Thanksgiving day was a quiet holiday in Bridgetown. The factories and stores were closed and though the streets were lined with people in the afternoon and evening good order prevailed.

—On the 10th December the sun will set at 4.14, and on the 13th it will set 1 minute later. The mornings here yet to grow 25 degrees shorter, and will not begin to lengthen until New Year's day.

—Rev. Silas L. Moore, has removed from Plymouth, Mass., to Medford in the same State. He enters upon his new field of labor with much hope. Mr. Moore was at one time in the Methodist office.

—About 125,000 barrels of apples have been shipped from the Annapolis and Cornwallis Valleys, to the English market, and this certainly does not represent more than half the quantity available for export.

—Mr. Eugene W. Cleveland, has gone to Philadelphia to superintend the adjustment of the Cleveland cylinder to the new locomotives now under construction for the I. C. R. at Baldwin works there.

—The D. A. R. steamer, Prince George, arrived at Yarmouth, last Thursday. She has 200 feet long, one steam 20 knots, and accommodation for 240 first class passengers, and is a fine specimen of modern architecture.

—Bridgetown investors continue to speculate in British Columbia gold mines. Many thousands of dollars worth of stock in some of the most promising mines is held here, and first ventures have proved so successful that the investment is being increased.

—Mr. H. H. Taylor, former blind engineer, assisted by Miss Stella B. Taylor and Archie Hawbold, will give an entertainment in Y. M. C. A. Hall next Friday evening. The program will comprise violin, pianoforte and vocal solos, songs, recitations and sketches.

—Mr. J. C. Wood with a firm believer in the efficacy of printer's ink as an antidote against cholera, and his opinion was justified by the fact that he and his family were not affected by the cholera which was so prevalent in the city of St. John, N. S., during the epidemic.

—The Rev. Josephine, chartered by Mr. H. J. Crowe to load lumber at Bridgetown, Boston, is ashore at Erie, where she had a cargo of cornmeal consigned to Pichels Mills, Mississippi. Efforts will be made to float her today, and, if successful, she will be taken to "Highly" for repairs.

—Rumsey v. Rumsey is likely to be before the Supreme Court once more. Although the suit was settled at the last term of the court it appears the trouble was not and a fresh writ has been issued and served. The validity of a deed in question and the action is brought to have it set aside.

—Saturday night's storm did considerable damage to Annapolis shipping and the loss of some of the vessels that were in the path of the storm. The schooner, J. B. Macfar, Capt. E. J. Chute, and the Schooner, Capt. E. J. Chute, were bound for local ports and have not been heard from.

—Mr. Laurie Giles, son of Rev. J. B. Giles, of Granville Ferry, died in Boston last Thursday from diphtheria, contracted while in the hospital where he had been recovering from an attack of measles. The news of his death has caused deep regret among his many friends in Bridgetown and vicinity. The body was taken to Annapolis for interment.

—Rev. J. R. Hart has a three acre farm that has few equals in the county as a producer of valuable crops. About one-third of the land is in hay, from which hay is annually cut and wintered and a horse is usually kept on the farm. The remainder is divided into fruit trees. From these trees Mr. Hart picked 270 barrels of apples this year which at the price that are ruling now will net a fair income. The plot is well watered and an abundance of small fruits and vegetables.

—Captain N. V. Mauro of this town is having an unpleasant experience with the law of Lunenburg at Norfolk, Va., where his ship, the Canada, is now docked. He is detained by the authorities on a charge of having aided the escape of his mate, K. N. Crowley, who was charged by the crew with killing a West Indian seaman, early last June. The Captain's detention is probably not a serious matter at all, however unpleasant it may be, but the fact of the case are being widely discussed by local gossip.

—The Rural Dairy meeting of this district met in the Episcopal Church here yesterday afternoon with the following clergyman in attendance: Rev. H. A. Harley, Dulby; Rev. H. H. Hovey, Annapolis; Rev. L. Amos, Middlesex; Rev. F. T. Creators, of Bridgetown. A business meeting was held in the Sunday School building in the afternoon, and fell seven in the church in the evening. The usual Wednesday evening service will take place to night, the sermon to be preached by either Rev. L. Amos or Rev. H. A. Harley.

—An insane man named Marshall escaped from the County Asylum on Saturday last and was found before day-break on Saturday morning in the Home stable at Mrs. Hector MacLean's, lying on a work bench with his hands up for covering, his feet scribbled and wrapped in a sheep skin he had found there. One ankle was covered and striped with blood and the other had been bandaged with a handkerchief. He was covered with mud and drenched with rain and mud and was wandering about some time before he began to freeze. That night (Friday) was the coldest of the season, and the poor fellow was thoroughly chilled. He was taken to the house, warmed and fed and put to bed in a warm bed with his clothes being changed. In the meantime Mrs. MacLean telephoned to town to have the proper authorities notified of his whereabouts, and about ten o'clock Mr. Clarke sent one of his sons to remove the man to the asylum. Marshall says he had a fit and rained a window and jumped out, which was the cause of his iced condition. Whatever way he managed to escape he had a rough experience, and must certainly have suffered from exposure.

—The assortment of Fancy China at Shaw & Lloyd's.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—J. R. Mills, M. P., was in town yesterday.

—Mr. L. E. J. is suffering from an attack of pneumonia.

—Mr. F. L. Miller, has in Dulby last Wednesday and Thursday on business.

—Mr. Frank Crowe, of Halifax, was looking up his many friends here last week.

—Capt. Alfred Manley, of the Mutual Reserve Fire Life Assn., was in town last week.

—Mrs. John Dilliver, of Trenton, paid a visit to Mrs. F. L. Miller, Thanksgiving Day.

—Mrs. Edward Marshall left on Wednesday for Lynn, to visit her son Dr. C. F. Marshall.

—Mrs. Purser, of Yarmouth, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Gibson, and other relatives here.

—Mrs. Reginald Miller, of Annapolis, spent Thanksgiving with friends in town.

—Mrs. H. W. Freeman, of Shelburne, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Dilliver.

—Miss S. Jordan, of Boston, has returned home after a pleasant visit with her cousin at Granville.

—Mrs. E. A. Doring, of Boston, is spending a few days at her residence "Charlottesville" Central Clarence.

—Mrs. Newcomb, of Cornwallis, has been spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. E. Douglas, N. S.

—Mayor Johnston, of Dartmouth, spent a portion of last week at the home of his brother-in-law, S. S. Douglas, N. S.

—Miss Jennie Sargent, who has spent the summer with her father, Mr. S. S. Douglas, N. S., has returned to Sharon, Mass., for the winter.

—Miss B. Parker, daughter of Mr. Israel Parker, of Bellisle, left last week to spend the winter in Texas, with her aunt, Mrs. Dilliver.

—Mr. E. L. Fisher has closed his tailoring business here for the winter and will devote his entire attention to his Annapolis branch.

—J. W. Hockwith will appear in the Friday challenge sales on Friday of this week.

—Pastor Young's anniversary and memorial service next Sunday morning will mark the close of the 13th year of his Bridgetown pastorate.

—The Bridgetown Band are practicing assiduously for a public concert which will take place under their direction sometime next month.

—The last of the interesting series of lectures by the Rev. F. P. Creators, descriptive of his trip to London and Paris, will be published next week.

—The four-masted schooner Nimbus, sailed last Wednesday from Annapolis for Boston with 100 tons of lumber, shipped by Mr. H. J. Crowe of this town.

—This month is the time for your Xmas Presents. What is better to send your friends for Xmas than a good Photo. Call early and secure a sitting at Rice's Studio at once.

—A letter from President Davison, of the Nova Scotia Pork Packing Co., is printed in another column and is of peculiar interest to the many shareholders and others interested.

—Thanksgiving day was a quiet holiday in Bridgetown. The factories and stores were closed and though the streets were lined with people in the afternoon and evening good order prevailed.

—On the 10th December the sun will set at 4.14, and on the 13th it will set 1 minute later. The mornings here yet to grow 25 degrees shorter, and will not begin to lengthen until New Year's day.

—Rev. Silas L. Moore, has removed from Plymouth, Mass., to Medford in the same State. He enters upon his new field of labor with much hope. Mr. Moore was at one time in the Methodist office.

—About 125,000 barrels of apples have been shipped from the Annapolis and Cornwallis Valleys, to the English market, and this certainly does not represent more than half the quantity available for export.

—Mr. Eugene W. Cleveland, has gone to Philadelphia to superintend the adjustment of the Cleveland cylinder to the new locomotives now under construction for the I. C. R. at Baldwin works there.

—The D. A. R. steamer, Prince George, arrived at Yarmouth, last Thursday. She has 200 feet long, one steam 20 knots, and accommodation for 240 first class passengers, and is a fine specimen of modern architecture.

—Bridgetown investors continue to speculate in British Columbia gold mines. Many thousands of dollars worth of stock in some of the most promising mines is held here, and first ventures have proved so successful that the investment is being increased.

—Mr. H. H. Taylor, former blind engineer, assisted by Miss Stella B. Taylor and Archie Hawbold, will give an entertainment in Y. M. C. A. Hall next Friday evening. The program will comprise violin, pianoforte and vocal solos, songs, recitations and sketches.

—Mr. J. C. Wood with a firm believer in the efficacy of printer's ink as an antidote against cholera, and his opinion was justified by the fact that he and his family were not affected by the cholera which was so prevalent in the city of St. John, N. S., during the epidemic.

—The Rev. Josephine, chartered by Mr. H. J. Crowe to load lumber at Bridgetown, Boston, is ashore at Erie, where she had a cargo of cornmeal consigned to Pichels Mills, Mississippi. Efforts will be made to float her today, and, if successful, she will be taken to "Highly" for repairs.

—Rumsey v. Rumsey is likely to be before the Supreme Court once more. Although the suit was settled at the last term of the court it appears the trouble was not and a fresh writ has been issued and served. The validity of a deed in question and the action is brought to have it set aside.

—Saturday night's storm did considerable damage to Annapolis shipping and the loss of some of the vessels that were in the path of the storm. The schooner, J. B. Macfar, Capt. E. J. Chute, and the Schooner, Capt. E. J. Chute, were bound for local ports and have not been heard from.

—Mr. Laurie Giles, son of Rev. J. B. Giles, of Granville Ferry, died in Boston last Thursday from diphtheria, contracted while in the hospital where he had been recovering from an attack of measles. The news of his death has caused deep regret among his many friends in Bridgetown and vicinity. The body was taken to Annapolis for interment.

—Rev. J. R. Hart has a three acre farm that has few equals in the county as a producer of valuable crops. About one-third of the land is in hay, from which hay is annually cut and wintered and a horse is usually kept on the farm. The remainder is divided into fruit trees. From these trees Mr. Hart picked 270 barrels of apples this year which at the price that are ruling now will net a fair income. The plot is well watered and an abundance of small fruits and vegetables.

—Captain N. V. Mauro of this town is having an unpleasant experience with the law of Lunenburg at Norfolk, Va., where his ship, the Canada, is now docked. He is detained by the authorities on a charge of having aided the escape of his mate, K. N. Crowley, who was charged by the crew with killing a West Indian seaman, early last June. The Captain's detention is probably not a serious matter at all, however unpleasant it may be, but the fact of the case are being widely discussed by local gossip.

—The Rural Dairy meeting of this district met in the Episcopal Church here yesterday afternoon with the following clergyman in attendance: Rev. H. A. Harley, Dulby; Rev. H. H. Hovey, Annapolis; Rev. L. Amos, Middlesex; Rev. F. T. Creators, of Bridgetown. A business meeting was held in the Sunday School building in the afternoon, and fell seven in the church in the evening. The usual Wednesday evening service will take place to night, the sermon to be preached by either Rev. L. Amos or Rev. H. A. Harley.

—An insane man named Marshall escaped from the County Asylum on Saturday last and was found before day-break on Saturday morning in the Home stable at Mrs. Hector MacLean's, lying on a work bench with his hands up for covering, his feet scribbled and wrapped in a sheep skin he had found there. One ankle was covered and striped with blood and the other had been bandaged with a handkerchief. He was covered with mud and drenched with rain and mud and was wandering about some time before he began to freeze. That night (Friday) was the coldest of the season, and the poor fellow was thoroughly chilled. He was taken to the house, warmed and fed and put to bed in a warm bed with his clothes being changed. In the meantime Mrs. MacLean telephoned to town to have the proper authorities notified of his whereabouts, and about ten o'clock Mr. Clarke sent one of his sons to remove the man to the asylum. Marshall says he had a fit and rained a window and jumped out, which was the cause of his iced condition. Whatever way he managed to escape he had a rough experience, and must certainly have suffered from exposure.

—The assortment of Fancy China at Shaw & Lloyd's.

New Advertisements.

—Bank of New Brunswick stock sold in St. John last week for 2000. This will be a gratifying news to several Annapolis county investors, who have all along been getting a 12 per cent. dividend on their holdings. S. W. W. Pickup, of Granville Ferry, holds 25 shares of this stock.

—The Midland Railway Co. directors met at Truro last Saturday and decided to do but little work between Truro and Shabascadie until next year. They expect to complete the road led on the Windsor end as far as Shabascadie before Christmas.

—There were five Nova Scotia moose in the hands of the Government on Saturday. This gives the Wanderers the league trophy again.

—There were five Nova Scotia moose in the hands of the Government on Saturday. This gives the Wanderers the league trophy again.

—L. Melrose, custom officer at Winnipeg, died last week. He was a Nova Scotian but has been in Winnipeg since 1878.

—The Wanderers from Dalhousie in a closely contested football match at Halifax last Saturday by a score of 6 to 5. This gives the Wanderers the league trophy again.

—L. Melrose, custom officer at Winnipeg, died last week. He was a Nova Scotian but has been in Winnipeg since 1878.

—The Wanderers from Dalhousie in a closely contested football match at Halifax last Saturday by a score of 6 to 5. This gives the Wanderers the league trophy again.

—L. Melrose, custom officer at Winnipeg, died last week. He was a Nova Scotian but has been in Winnipeg since 1878.

—The Wanderers from Dalhousie in a closely contested football match at Halifax last Saturday by a score of 6 to 5. This gives the Wanderers the league trophy again.

—L. Melrose, custom officer at Winnipeg, died last week. He was a Nova Scotian but has been in Winnipeg since 1878.

—The Wanderers from Dalhousie in a closely contested football match at Halifax last Saturday by a score of 6 to 5. This gives the Wanderers the league trophy again.

—L. Melrose, custom officer at Winnipeg, died last week. He was a Nova Scotian but has been in Winnipeg since 1878.

—The Wanderers from Dalhousie in a closely contested football match at Halifax last Saturday by a score of 6 to 5. This gives the Wanderers the league trophy again.

—L. Melrose, custom officer at Winnipeg, died last week. He was a Nova Scotian but has been in Winnipeg since 1878.

—The Wanderers from Dalhousie in a closely contested football match at Halifax last Saturday by a score of 6 to 5. This gives the Wanderers the league trophy again.

—L. Melrose, custom officer at Winnipeg, died last week. He was a Nova Scotian but has been in Winnipeg since 1878.

—The Wanderers from Dalhousie in a closely contested football match at Halifax last Saturday by a score of 6 to 5. This gives the Wanderers the league trophy again.

—L. Melrose, custom officer at Winnipeg, died last week. He was a Nova Scotian but has been in Winnipeg since 1878.

—The Wanderers from Dalhousie in a closely contested football match at Halifax last Saturday by a score of 6 to 5. This gives the Wanderers the league trophy again.

—L. Melrose, custom officer at Winnipeg, died last week. He was a Nova Scotian but has been in Winnipeg since 1878.

—The Wanderers from Dalhousie in a closely contested football match at Halifax last Saturday by a score of 6 to 5. This gives the Wanderers the league trophy again.

—L. Melrose, custom officer at Winnipeg, died last week. He was a Nova Scotian but has been in Winnipeg since 1878.

—The Wanderers from Dalhousie in a closely contested football match at Halifax last Saturday by a score of 6 to 5. This gives the Wanderers the league trophy again.

—L. Melrose, custom officer at Winnipeg, died last week. He was a Nova Scotian but has been in Winnipeg since 1878.

—The Wanderers from Dalhousie in a closely contested football match at Halifax last Saturday by a score of 6 to 5. This gives the Wanderers the league trophy again.

—L. Melrose, custom officer at Winnipeg, died last week. He was a Nova Scotian but has been in Winnipeg since 1878.

—The Wanderers from Dalhousie in a closely contested football match at Halifax last Saturday by a score of 6 to 5. This gives the Wanderers the league trophy again.

—L. Melrose, custom officer at Winnipeg, died last week. He was a Nova Scotian but has been in Winnipeg since 1878.

—The Wanderers from Dalhousie in a closely contested football match at Halifax last Saturday by a score of 6 to 5. This gives the Wanderers the league trophy again.

—L. Melrose, custom officer at Winnipeg, died last week. He was a Nova Scotian but has been in Winnipeg since 1878.

—The Wanderers from Dalhousie in a closely contested football match at Halifax last Saturday by a score of 6 to 5. This gives the Wanderers the league trophy again.

—L. Melrose, custom officer at Winnipeg, died last week. He was a Nova Scotian but has been in Winnipeg since 1878.

—The Wanderers from Dalhousie in a closely contested football match at Halifax last Saturday by a score of 6 to 5. This gives the Wanderers the league trophy again.