

Beautiful Songs and Star Singers

It Contains the Sweetest Songs of all Nations.

The great music repertoires of America, England, France, Germany, Italy, Austria and Russia have been searched for their sweetest gems of song, and the best, and that only, gathered in this volume.

It is by the First Composers of the Age.

The melodies in this volume are the favourite productions of composers who by their genius have won the admiration and applause of crowned heads and music lovers throughout the world.

It is Unquestionably the most Charming Collection ever Gathered in one Volume.

Never before has such painstaking effort been made or so much money expended to gather into one handy volume so delightful and useful a collection of songs specially adapted for the home circle.

La it are Found the Richest Gems of the Divine Art,

Those soul-stirring or mirth-provoking melodies that always please, and that will be loved and sung till time shall end and we all sing the new song in a better land.

It is Adorned with an Exquisite Gallery of Portraits, and an Accurate and Inspiring Biographical Sketch of Renowned Musicians.

Scarcely, if ever, has a book of its price been so enriched as is this volume with beautiful illuminated half-tone portraits of twenty-four of the most celebrated musicians of the world to-day, accurate likenesses and charming as works of modern art.

It is Pre-Eminently a most Charming Volume for the Home Circle. It is also Perfectly Indexed, Handsomely Bound and Marvellously Cheap.

In a similar amount of sheet music you would search half an hour often for a certain piece. In this volume you turn to its perfect index and find any desired piece in ten seconds. Sheet music is getting continually scattered, torn, soiled and lost. This volume is elegantly and firmly bound, easily handled, lays open nicely on the instrument, and is always ready for use with all its treasure of 200 lovely gems of song.
