

2. What did he send them to do?
To tell about his coming.
3. What did he say was great?
The harvest.
4. What were few?
The labourers.
5. Who are the labourers in the heavenly harvest?
Those who know Jesus.
6. What did he say they would find?
Enemies like wolves.
7. What should they be?
As harmless as lambs.
8. What power did he give them?
To heal the sick.
9. What power will he give to all his children?
Power to do right and to speak right.

A BOY HELPED BY GOD'S SPIRIT.

Little Ben ran in from school smiling brightly. "Why, my dear, you look very happy," said his mother.

"Well, mother, I've had a regular fight, and now that it is over I do feel happy indeed."

"Had a fight, my boy? I'm sorry to hear you say that."

"Well, the other boys stopped on the way home to pick some of Farmer Adams' apples. I stopped, too, and as we were climbing over the fence something said to me: 'Don't do it.' I looked around, but could see no one. The voice was so small that it seemed like a little girl's voice. Then I heard quite a loud voice say: 'O go on; he has plenty of apples.' 'It is wrong,' said the little voice again. 'O, it will not hurt any one, and the other boys are going,' the loud voice said. But the little voice said softly: 'It will hurt you, Ben; don't do it.' Then I jumped down and ran home, and I have not been able to do anything but smile ever since.

When little Ben jumped down from that fence Jesus smiled upon him. No wonder Ben smiled too. Look out, children, for the little pleading voice, God's Holy Spirit. Obey that, and you will always have Jesus' smile.
