

THE Presbyterian College Journal

VOL. XIII—JANUARY, 1894—No. 3.

EDITORIAL STAFF:

W. McN. TOWNSEND, B.A., - - - Editor-in-Chief

D. GUTHRIE, B.A., J. TAYLOR, B.A., J. S. GORDON, B.A., Associate Editors.

L. R. GIROUX, E. BRANT, - - - - - French Editors.

P. D. MUIR, B.A., - - - - - Local and Exchange Editor.

W. PATTERSON, B.A., - - - - - Corresponding Editor.

F. W. GILMER, - - - - - Reporting Editor.

G. D. IRELAND, - - - - - Treasurer and Business Manager.

A. GRAHAM, W. C. SUTHERLAND, - - - - - Associate Manager.

The JOURNAL is published about the first of each month from November to April inclusive, under the auspices of the Philosophical and Literary Society of the Presbyterian College, Montreal.

All business communications should be addressed to the Manager, G. D. IRELAND, and all other correspondence to the Editor in Chief, W. McN. TOWNSEND, B.A.

MANAGER'S NOTICE—Subscribers are requested to examine the label on their JOURNAL, as it indicates the date up to which the subscription is paid, and to kindly remit their subscription at an early date.

ADDRESS—17 MCLAVISH STREET, MONTREAL, QUE.

Our Graduates' Pulpit

A SERMON PREACHED TO YOUNG MEN.

BY REV. D. L. DEWAR, B.A., AILSA CRAIG, ONT.

"Seek if ye can find a man."—Jer. 5:1.

THE wicked world has in the pious and believing a noble treasure and defence. Abraham with the knowledge of this fact intercedes on behalf of Sodom, which was, notwithstanding his intercession, subsequently destroyed. Zoar, one of the cities of the plain of Jordan would doubtless have met with the same fate had it not been for the presence of a righteous soul found in it in the person of Lot. Pliny relates a story of King Demetrius, which illustrates my opening statement, who retired from the city of Rhodium because he