Sparkles. STRANGER (first day in Bowery restaurant): Bring me some roast pork with Worcester sauce, a cup of coffee without milk and some mashed potatoes. Waiter (to cook): Have the pig dressed up in black, make the boot-leg in the daik, and mash the murphys. Waiter (to stranger next day): Watlyerhaveterday? Stranger (with vim): Make the boot-leg for the pig, fire off the cannons, mash Mr. Murphy's eye, and hit the water in the dark. (As the waiter collapses): Why, what's the matter with that order? By constipation is meant irregular action of the bowels, often called costiveness, and commonly caused by dyspepsia, neglect, excess in eating or drinking, etc. It is a serious complaint, and not to be neglected under any circumstance, as it leads to impure blood, headache, debility, fevers, etc. A uniformly successful remedy is Burlock Blood Bitters, which, if faithfully tried, never fails to effect a prompt and lasting cure even in the worst cases. The following extract from a letter from Mr. Jas. M. Carson, Banff, N.-W.T., will speak for itself:—"I have been troubled with constipation and general debility, and was induced to use your B. B. B. through seeing your advertisement. I now take great pleasure in recommending it to all my friends, as it completely cured me."

A FRIEND of ours, then living in Racine, ordered, with other books, from Chicago, a copy of Canon Farrar's book, "Seekers after God," just then out. In a short time the other volumes came to hand, but being out of the Canon's book the publishers wrote at the bottom of the invoice: "No seekers after God in Chicago."

SIRS.—For five years I suffered from lumbago and could get no relief until I used Hagar's Yellow Oil, and must say I find no better remedy for it. JOHN DESHERDAN, Sandwich, Ont.

THE bye-elections have passed by and we can now consider the best protection against disease. There is unrestricted reciprocity of sentiment between all people in Canada in pronouncing Burdock Blood Bitters the very best blood purifier, dyspepsia and headache remedy, and general tonic renovating medicine before the public.

SHE: What a delightful old settle this is! It looks as if there might be some real old legend connected with it. HE: Well, there was; but as I couldn't afford to pay the price the dealer asked, he said at last I could have the settle, but he would have to keep the legend and connect it with a sixteenth century bedstead that he had.

MRS. BERKELEY-JONES: I'm so disappointed in that beggar, Arthur. I gave him a pair of your old trousers, and I believe he's pawned them. He says he's keeping them to honour the Sabbath. Mr Berkeley Jones: Ah, the Sabbath in his case will be more honoured in the breeches than in the observance.

MR. ALEXANDER GUN was dismissed from a post in the customs at Edinburgh for circulating some false rumour. The dismissal is said to have been thus noted in the customs books at the time: "A. Gun discharged for making a false report." "If your gashtomer do an sec vat he van's, neck him vant vat he see."
