We direct special attention to the following remarkable statement:
For many years I suffered from Catarrh, which destroyed my hearing, and for twenty-five years I was so deaf that I could not hear a clock strike by holding my ear against it. I had tried every known remedy, and nothing gave me the slightest relief. I obtained Dr. Moore's treatment, and in three weeks my hearing began to improve and now I can hear common conversation across a room; can hear a clock strike in an adjoining room, 30 feet away. I think I am entirely cured, and my hearing permanently restored.

To Clean Carpets.—For soiled carpets at the time of spring cleaning, salt is a restorer of faded color; the coarsest kind is the best, and should be spread without stint. Let it lie on the carpet for a few hours, then brush it off with a hard broom; the result is most satisfactory. A pinch of salt dropped in the receiver of a lamp where kerosene is burned gives the light brilliancy.

Spring is a trying time to the delicate. But it need not be so if he or she gradually lowers the temperature of the bedrooms, and gradually lessens the amount of clothes worn when sleeping. But in the morning and evening beware of the cold and rawness, which is even worse. Cod liver oil helps to keep up the animal heat, but so does good butter, bacon fat, and good creamy milk.

Salt rheum, with its intense itching, dry, hot skin, is cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it purifies the blood.

Maple Biscuits.—Make an ordinary biscuit dough, and when it is ready to roll out, stir in a large cupful of maple sugar cut into pieces the size of peas. Cut out the biscuit as usual and put them quickly into a hot oven. As the biscuits bake the sugar melts and makes a syrup coating, which is liked by maple sugar lovers. They can be eaten either hot or cold, and the children are pretty sure to like them.

Chicken with Oyster Dressing.—Select a large, plump chicken. Make a dressing of bread crumbs, seasoning well with butter, pepper, and salt; add a dozen large oysters. Tie in cheese cloth and put to cook in warm water; cover closely. When done, make a sauce of the gravy, pour a little over the chicken; strew parsley on edge of platter. The goodness of any dish depends upon the seasoning and care in cooking.

Bread Meringue. Beat the yolks of four eggs light, add gradually one cup of granulated sugar, beating all the while, and the grated rind of one lemon. Mix one pint of bread crumbs with one quart of milk, pour this on the eggs and sugar; mix well and bake in a moderate oven until stiff. When done make a meringue of the whites of two eggs and four tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar, heap on the pudding, and brown in a quick oven. When using the cake crumbs use the yolks of two eggs, and one-half of a cup of granulated sugar.

Jelly Glasses.—A cheap way to make jelly glasses (says the Weekly Times) is suggested by a house keeper who never thinks of spending a penny on glass for jelly. Take bottles of the size desired—beer bottles make splendid ones—and saturate a cord with coal oil, then tie it tight around the bottle. Be sure that none of the coal oil runs down the sides of the bottle; if it does, wipe it off. Touch a lighted match to the string, and the bottle will cut in two as neatly as though made that way. Wrap the cord three times around right close together, and just as the shreds drop away dash a cup of cold water on the bottle and tap the neck end with the handle of a knife.
