

TIMBER LIMIT TRANSACTIONS.

The Pacific Coast Lumber Company, of Vancouver, B. C. has just purchased from the Sayward Estate 15,000 acres of the finest fir timber in the Province of British Columbia. It is situated in six different blocks along the Campbell river, Vancouver Island, and is very accessible.

The entire property of the Dominion Lumber Company at St. Margaret's Bay, N. S., is said to have finally passed into the hands of Louis Miller, of Glasgow, Scotland, for a consideration of $350,000. It is also understood that Mr. Miller has options on several other large properties in Nova Scotia.

THE BOSTON MARKET.

The market at Boston for spruce lumber continues to manifest notable strength, the consumption, although limited, being more than equal to the ready absorption of the unusually limited supply. The situation is such that large wholesale houses there, with a well established connection, are turning down orders for quick frames from all but old and valued customers. The bulk of the spruce moving from eastern mills is going to New York, where prices are a trifle higher than they are at Boston. Laths are firm. For 1 5/8 in. sellers at less than $3.35 are hard to find and buyers are fairly plentiful. There is no change in shingles, it being still possible to procure good extra cedars for $3.40. For special brands $3.50 is asked. Quotations are as follows: Rail shipments, spruce lumber, 10 and 12 in. dimensions, $21; 9 in. and under dimension, $19; 10 and 12 in. random lengths, 10 ft. and up, $20.50; 2x3, 2x4, 2x7, and 3x4, 10 ft. and up, $17 to $17.50; all other randoms, 9 in. and under, 10 ft. and up, $18 to $18.50; merchantable boards, 5 in. and up, $17; matched boards, $18.50@20.

Spruce clapboard rule about as follows: Extra, $43 to $44; clear, $41 to $42; second clear, $37 to $39; extra No. 1, $27 to $29.

The assets of Damase Pariseau, lumber dealer, Montreal, are to be sold.

A meeting of the creditors of James Harrison, lumber dealer, Burlington, Ont., has been called for November 11th.
