

TO PROMULGATE THE TRUTH. The way to get a thing believed by the public at large is to first have a truth to announce without any doubt or suspicion as to its being the truth; and then to keep on telling by speech and pen, by type and figure, in every way repeating it constantly. Thus it was that when The Louisiana State Lottery was incorporated in 1868 at New Orleans, for charitable and educational purposes, there was a doubt that the managers would act as fairly as they announced, but the fact that Gen'l. G. T. Beauregard of La., and Jubal A. Early of Va. have the sole supervision of the drawings removes this suspicion, and it has been proven up to the 15th monthly drawing on Nov. 14th, that millions have been distributed to parties applying to Mr. Desha, in New Orleans, La., in sums ranging as high as $100,000, and so on down. Tickets cost $5, but are sold at $1 each, and the certainty of the event is supplemented by the knowledge that some one will get $75,000, or fractional parts thereof. Who will it be?

THE TRUE WITNESS FOR 1883.

FREE TO THE END OF THE YEAR 1882.

The True Witness has within the past few years made an immense stride in circulation, and if the testimony of a large number of our subscribers is not too flattering it may also claim a stride in general improvement. This is the age of general improvement and the True Witness will advance with it. Newspapers are starting up around us on all sides with more or less pretensions to public favor, some of them die in their tender infancy, some of them die of disease of the heart after a few years, while others, though the fewest in number, grow stronger as they advance in years and root themselves all the more firmly in public esteem, which is their life. However, we may criticize Darwin's theory as applied to species there is no doubt it holds good in newspaper enterprises, it is the fittest which survives. The True Witness is now what we may term an established fact, it is over 34 years in existence. But we want to extend its usefulness and its circulation still further, and we want friends to assist us if they believe this journal to be worth $1.50 a year, and we think they do. We would like to impress upon their memories that the True Witness is without exception the cheapest paper of its class on this continent. It was formerly two dollars per annum in the country and two dollars and a half in the city, but the present proprietors having taken charge of it in the hardest of times, and knowing that to many people a reduction of twenty or twenty-five per cent would mean something and would not only enable the old subscribers to retain it but new ones to enroll themselves under the reduction, they have no reason to regret it. For what they lost one way they gained in another, and they assisted the introduction into Catholic families throughout Canada and the United States of a Catholic paper which would defend their religion and their rights. The True Witness is too cheap to offer premiums or "chromos" as an inducement to subscribers, even if they believed in their efficacy. It goes simply on its merits as a journal, and it is for the people to judge whether they are right or wrong. But as we have stated we want our circulation doubled in 1883, and all we can do to encourage our agents and the public generally is to promise them that, if our efforts are recorded by our friends, this paper will be still further enlarged and improved during the coming year. On receipt of $1.50 the subscriber will be entitled to receive the True Witness for one year. Any one sending us the names of 5 new subscribers, at one time, with the cash ($1.50 each) will receive one copy free and $1.00 cash; or 16 new names, with the cash, one copy free and $3.50. Our readers will oblige by informing their friends of the above very liberal inducements to subscribe for the True Witness; also by sending the name of a reliable person who will act as agent in their locality for the publishers, and sample copies will be sent on application. We want active intelligent agents throughout Canada and the Eastern, Northern and Western States of the Union, who can, by serving our interests, serve their own as well and add materially to their income without interfering with their legitimate business. The True Witness will be mailed to clergymen, school teachers and postmasters at $1.00 per annum in advance. Parties getting up clubs are not obliged to confine themselves to any particular locality, but can work in any quarter, from city to city or districts; nor is it necessary to send all the names at once. They will fulfil all the conditions by forwarding the names and amounts until the club is completed. We have observed that our paper is, if possible, more popular with the ladies than with the other sex, and we appeal to the ladies, therefore, to use the gentle but irresistible pressure of which they are mistresses in our behalf on their husbands, fathers, brothers and sons, though for the matter of that we will take subscriptions from themselves and their sisters and cousins as well. Rate for clubs of five or more, $1 per annum in advance. New subscribers for the True Witness between this date and the 31st December, 1882, will receive the paper for the balance of the year free. We hope that our friends or agents throughout the Dominion will make an extra effort to push our circulation. Parties requiring sample copies or further information please apply to the office of The Post Printing and Publishing Company, 761 Craig Street, Montreal, Canada. Remittances may be sent by P. O. money order, bank draft, registered letter, or by express, at our risk. In conclusion, we thank those of our friends who have responded promptly and so cheerfully to our call for amount due, and request those of them who have not, to follow their example at once. A CARD OF THANKS.

The lady directors of St. Patrick's bazaar have great pleasure in announcing to their generous friends that the bazaar realized the handsome sum of four thousand two hundred and eleven dollars and seventy-one cents ($4,211.71). This must be considered a success, when it is known that the bazaar was kept open only five days, and that it was closed by the bazaar of the Gesù which remained open for weeks and appealed for support to a large number of the friends of the Gesù. Success in such an enterprise is due to God, who has pleased to bless their efforts; then to their kind and constant friends, P. O. subscribers and Catholics in general.

A LADY OF HIGH BANK.

Wife of one of the leading statesmen of England, says: "I have duly received the case of MURRAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER, which you were kind enough to send me. I have tested its merits, and find it a most delightful perfume, more delicate and flowerlike in its aroma than any other toilet preparation I have before used." A girl, named Mary Henry, aged nine years, while sliding down the balustrade of an outside stair in Bedford street, on Monday afternoon, over-balanced herself and fell a distance of sixteen feet, sustaining serious injuries.

nately, whose charity has never failed when appealed to on behalf of the orphan and the destitute poor. At the successful close of this their thirty-fourth (34th) annual Bazaar in support of their dear orphans, the ladies feel called upon to express, with all the sincerity they are capable of, their obligations to the charitable citizens of Montreal, irrespective of religion, who never tire in the heavenly work of helping God's poor. Special thanks are due to the St. Patrick's Temperance Society for their important services during the time of the bazaar; also to Mr. James Connaughton, builder, who set up the tables and fixtures, and arranged the decorations of the Hall free of charge; to Mr. Shaw, who kindly lent a grand Weber piano, one of the attractions of the bazaar; to Mr. Sharpe for the free services of his express to transport the above piano; to Mr. B. Taussey, Mr. Cooper and other kind friends for their welcome offerings to the refreshment table; to the band of the Sixth Fusiliers for their sweet music the last night of the bazaar; and, finally, to THE POOR for many friendly notices during the progress of the good work. The names of all benefactors are known to God, who will bless and reward them.

IT HAS ENRICHED THE CAPITAL BUILDINGS.

It has finally gained its point and no less a personage than the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Commons, Mr. D. W. McDonnell, Ottawa, thus indorses the Great German Remedy: "St. Jacobs Oil is a splendid remedy. I used it on my hand which was writhed for rheumatism, and found it all that it is claimed to be. Mr. McDonnell used it for a most severely sprained ankle; by the steady use of the article for a few days a complete cure was effected. St. Jacobs Oil does its work very satisfactorily and also rapidly; its use at least is my opinion."

THE "MARMION" CONTROVERSY.

BISHOP CLEARY ON THE QUESTION. Kingston, Nov. 3.—Last evening His Lordship Bishop Cleary addressed the congregation of St. Mary's Cathedral on the subject of education in Ireland and Canada. After reviewing in a very able manner the educational institutions of Ireland, he dwelt for some time on the "Marmion" controversy. For the past two or three weeks he had been travelling in the United States, and had not had an opportunity of seeing any of the Canadian papers, or of hearing of the difficulty as to the reading of "Marmion" in the schools. He expressed his astonishment that the Archbishop should be blamed for interfering in the matter. It was the Archbishop's duty to discuss any topic that concerned his people. In regard to the poem itself, he thought that an answer to the following questions would pretty well state his views:—Is "Marmion" offensive to Catholics? Is it immoral? Is it irreligious? Is it historically unjust? Is it not exceedingly offensive to represent to the youth of this Province the Catholic institutions of Europe as sacred virginity espoused to Christ in voluntary poverty, chastity and obedience, represented as fallen and dishonored women, who had fled the world to hide their shame, their priests and sisters represented as men addicted to swearing, stabbing, brawling, going about to towns and castles wherever the wine and ale flowed freely, and violating the rights of hospitality by the most atrocious of all crimes, the foul dishonoring of the host's wife? Is "Marmion" immoral? No, not in intent. Is it of its nature likely to awaken impure emotions in the readers' minds? No, if the reader be a man of educated feeling and well-balanced judgement, and steady virtuous disposition; but for boys and girls virtuous at that critical period of life when nature has awakened a new sense within them, and they have begun to recognize an order in society and a relation between the two classes in human life, hitherto concealed by a wise providence. As to the irreligion and historically unjust character of the poem, His Lordship declared the foregoing remarks enabled ever one to form a judgment. What over tends to weaken in the youthful mind the tendencies of religion, or the honor of virtue, whereby alone the innate corruption of the human heart is to be checked and counteracted, is decidedly irreligious. To offer the poem of "Marmion" as a faithful history of Catholic life in the convents and institutions of piety, whether in the middle age or any other age, is one of the foulest of historical injustices ever done to a religious body.

WOMEN AND MUNICIPAL FRANCHISES.

In view of the approaching municipal elections in Edinburgh a meeting for women, and especially for female electors, was held on Tuesday in the Oddfellows' Hall, Edinburgh, the object being to instruct them in regard to the exercise of the municipal franchise, which the Act of last session has conferred upon women householders. About 150 ladies attended. Mrs. Stephen Wellstood, Edinburgh, was called upon to preside, and on the platform were Mrs. McLaren, Mrs. Nichol, Mrs. Shearer, Mrs. Grievie, Miss Wigham, Miss Burton, Miss Stoddart, and others. After asking the meeting to engage in silent prayer, Mrs. Wellstood intimated that apologies for absence had been received from Dr. Sophia Jex Blake, Dr. Agnes McLaren, Mrs. Kirk, the Misses Flora and Louisa Stevenson, and others. She then briefly addressed the meeting, stating that she had been credibly informed that in one of the wards in Edinburgh at this time 14 gentlemen had been asked to stand for the vacancy, and all had declined the honor. Miss Wigham moved the first resolution, which was—"That the thanks of this meeting, representing the women householders of Edinburgh, be recorded to Dr. Cameron, M.P., for having secured the right of the municipal vote to women householders in Scotland; and this meeting further pledges itself, in token of gratitude, to endeavor to provide a general,

SCOTCH NEWS.

A miner named Robert Martin, 55 years of age, was instantaneously killed on Monday afternoon by falling down the shaft of a pit near Airdrie, a distance of 23 fathoms. He was pulled over by a loaded hutch. On Saturday afternoon Eyemouth parish bell tolled and a service was held in commemoration of the dreadful disaster of 14th October last year, when 167 fishermen lost their lives. The relief fund is now over £50,000.

The Prize Committee of the Royal Scottish Society of Arts have awarded their honorary silver medal to Mr. George J. Wishart, F.O.S., of Iquique, for his paper on the manufacture of sulphuric acid, which was read by Mr. Richard K. Miller, of Edinburgh.

EDUCATIONAL CRISIS IN THE DIOCESE OF GALLOWAY, SCOTLAND.

The following statement of circumstances deeply compromising the religious interests of the Diocese of Galloway, will be respectfully submitted to you by the Rev. PATRICK WAGNER of Dalbeattie, or by the Rev. PATRICK WAGNER of Givray—two respected Priests of the same Diocese have sent them to America, in the hope that, through their efforts, and under the kind permission of the Right Rev. Bishops and the Rev. Clergy of the country, some assistance for pending souls may be procured from the United States. Catholics of Canada and the English-Heart: I am well aware that America, in the religious and moral respect, is not in a position to receive the influx of Catholics of Catholic Religion and Charity are usually rare in excess of the available means. I know that the Rev. Clergy of the Diocese of Galloway are severely and justly censured for their plain statement of its wants will elicit the sympathy and help of our more favored brethren across the Atlantic.

When I entered on charge of this Diocese, now more than four years ago, I could not fail to have seen that the Diocese of Galloway, a large number of towns supplied with Catholic schools. I felt that, some time or other, a strenuous effort must be made for their erection, and that the Diocese of Galloway, which has fully confirmed the decision of the Rev. English Bishops 30 years ago, that the school is to be the foundation of the Catholic Church, and that in any town where the school is to be erected, the school should be preferred. In truth, we see and feel that the Catholic Church in Galloway is in a state of decay, and that the children, there the Faith languishes and decays and its final extinction is only a question of time. The Rev. Clergy of the Diocese are erecting schools where they are, and in the Diocese there are not, and could not be two opinions. Unfortunately to us as so many of our people are ignorant of the law, it seemed an insuperable obstacle; so much so indeed as to render the more attempt apparently justified in overweighing the Diocese in debt to end perhaps in bankruptcy, even for an object so laudable and needful. I was vain to hope that the Diocese of Galloway, which is only temporary, and that gradually, year by year all the schools would ultimately be erected on the other side of the border. The Government has made a move in Educational matters that may well force us to instant action.

The Duke and Duchess of Albany visited the city on Saturday for the purpose of opening a bazaar in connection with the Glasgow branch of the Royal School of Art Needlework. The Corporation took advantage of the occasion to present His Royal Highness with the freedom of the city and to entertain the Duke and Duchess to luncheon. The visit and various ceremonies passed off unobtrusively, the royal visitors being heartily cheered by the crowds which, despite a drizzling rain, thronged the streets through which they passed.

GOUBROK THE HEALTHIEST PLACE IN SCOTLAND.

At the monthly meeting of Gourock Police Commissioners, held on Tuesday night, Mr. Gossman, in moving the adoption of the Works Committee minutes, said that a copy of the quarterly report of the Registrar of Gourock had been sent to the Commissioners. This had chiefly been done in compliance with a former request, when the sanitary condition of Gourock was very severely attacked. The report embraced the months of July, August, and September, and during that period 33 deaths had occurred in the registrar's district. Fifteen of these were in Smithston Asylum, which was outside of the boundary, and one within the district, but not within the burght boundary, thus bringing down the net amount of deaths during the last quarter to 17. If they calculated the number upon their last census return, which was taken during that quarter, they would find that the Gourock death-rate was as low as 10 per 1000 of the population. It was the lowest death-rate that he knew of in the whole of Scotland. (Applause.) The Commissioners retiring in November are Messrs. Wallace and Gossman.

On Tuesday night Matthew Buchanan, lawyer's clerk, at Bath, by Detective Weaver, Bath, and Alex Morton, messenger-at-arms, Glasgow, charged with having stolen on the 3rd inst., £491 from his employer, Mr. John Erll, writer, West Regent street, Glasgow. £392 was found in his possession. The prisoner was brought before the Magistrates on Wednesday morning and remanded. Since the robbery he has shaved his whiskers off, completely altering his appearance. Buchanan, it is alleged, forged the signature of his master's client, a lady, to an insurance surrender. He received a cheque in payment from the insurance company, and cashed it at the Cleland Bank, getting large notes for the amount. He then decamped. He first went to Kilmarnock, where he sought out a companion, with whom he continued his journey southwards to London the same night. His movements up to the point when he left Kilmarnock for London had been traced by Glasgow detectives, who were, however, a day behind hand, and they communicated the facts to the London police, who took up the hunt after the defaulter. Mr. Morton, messenger-at-arms, referred to above, knew Buchanan personally, and acquainted Superintendent Boyd of this circumstance, and was sent to London to assist the Scotland Yard staff in getting the man "wanted." An officer left Glasgow on Wednesday night to bring the prisoner here to be dealt with.

JOHN McLAUREN, Bishop of Galloway, Subscriptions, if not given to Fathers Agnew and Wright, may be forwarded to the following address: JOHN J. McDONALD, No. 15 St. Ann's Concession of Lacometer, Glencovey P. O., Ontario.

Several of the Montreal creditors of G. B. Mahan, manager and proprietor of the Empire Agricultural Works, were interviewed today, but they are in the same position as the gentlemen interviewed by us yesterday, they are fully secured, as a rule, and, of course, are quite indifferent to Mahan's movements. He may stay away, or come back; just as he likes. Many think that he will return after a time and resume his old business, affecting some sort of a compromise. The factory and stores on Dalhousie street have been attached on a claim for the year's rent, consisting of $1,800 and also to secure payment of notes. The former is shut down. From investigations made to-day, it is quite clear that the banks and other holders of the notes are amply secured. The victims are the farmers, and they have been deceived with their eyes open, for they signed notes which one would suppose any man who had intelligence enough to read and write would have seen a "meant business." It appears that one of Mahan's agents would call on a rich farmer to induce him to become agent for the sale of implements. From a list produced, the farmer would select such articles as he thought he could sell, and he was then asked by the agent to sign certain notes in security, &c., for the articles, which were to be delivered to him. Speaking to our reporter to-day, Mr. McCaffrey, of Sherbrooke, said:—"About a year ago I was approached by an agent of the Empire Works, and when I signed those notes I thought I was only going to sign by the statement that he wanted the memorandum and my address as the firm had made losses by dishonest agents. I did not get all the articles enumerated in the list and many others only got a portion and sometimes none at all. From what I know there must be 800 to 1,000 farmers in the same position as myself, the amounts for which they are liable, ranging from $200 to $600." Our reporter was shown several copies of lists of articles made out on the company's blanks and duly signed by the contracting parties, besides that the parties subscribed to a note made out like the following which is a true copy:—

VICTIMIZED FARMERS.

St. QUENNE, P.Q., Nov. 1, 1881. Twelve months after date I promise to pay to the order of the Empire Works, G. B. Mahan, manager, two hundred and twenty-three dollars, payable at Post Office in St. Quenne, Quebec, for value received. CHARLES PRYOR, Empire Works, G. B. Mahan, Manager." Two copies, taken against Mahan through the legal firm of Robidoux & Fortin, were settled a few days ago. The first was that of former Boivin, of Naperville, for $482, which was paid in full. The second is that of M. Lebert, hotel keeper, of St. Johns, for $200, also settled satisfactorily. Quite a small battalion of farmers besieged the city law offices to-day, and suits pending include one by M. Vinette, of St. Hubert, for nearly $400; M. Thibadeau, of Naperville, for over $200; M. Loyerer, of Lacadie, for $685. These parties have made attachment on the property of the works. Messrs. Pare and McCaffrey, of Sherbrooke, took action to-day. Mr. Robidoux says he feels sure that all those who have given cases into his hands will be paid a large amount of the face value of these notes. The possession of these farmers' notes meant gold to Mahan. The banks would not discount his own notes without good security, but these notes of the farmer furnished splendid collateral security. From a well known and reliable credit bureau here, that of Gagnon Freres, the standing of the different farmers was obtained and the certificate furnished by this bureau being annexed to the notes, the banks had no hesitation in discounting them. Among the creditors of Mahan are the Banque Quebec Carlier for $8,000, secured; the Banque de St. Jean $7,000; the Banque de St. Hyacinthe $8,000; Charles H. Walters $5,000; James Baxter $5,000; the Banque of St. Remi, Banque du Peuple, Banque Villie Marie and Gilmore's private bank, situated in Stanbridge. H. J. Russell & Co., the iron merchants here who furnished material, are secured. The Stanbridge Bank is said to be interested to the extent of $20,000, but is quite secured, as on some notes only advanced 35 per cent of their face value.

NOTED BUT UNTHINKING WOMAN.

(From the Boston Globe.)

The above is a good likeness of Mrs. Lydia E. Plankham, of Lynn, Mass., who bore the unfortunate name of the "Dear Friend of Woman," as some of her correspondents love to call her. She is a religious devotee, and her work, which is the outcome of a life of study, and its object is to help the poor, to help her answer the large correspondence which daily pours in upon her, each bearing its special burden of suffering, or joy at release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. It has been generally investigated and is an established fact of the truth of this.

On account of its proven merits, it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. One says: "It works like a charm and saves much pain. It cures indigestion, flatulency, and all the ailments of the stomach, irregular and painful menstruation, all ovarian troubles, inflammation and Ulceration, Floodings, all Displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life." It cures every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes fatness, restores the system, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Irritability, and all the ailments of the system. It is a permanent cure by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system. It costs only 25c per bottle or six for $1.50, and is sold by all druggists. Any druggist who does not have it, send the name of Mrs. Plankham to the publisher, and a copy of the Compound will be sent to you. It is a permanent cure by its use. NOTED BUT UNTHINKING WOMAN.

(From the Boston Globe.)

The above is a good likeness of Mrs. Lydia E. Plankham, of Lynn, Mass., who bore the unfortunate name of the "Dear Friend of Woman," as some of her correspondents love to call her. She is a religious devotee, and her work, which is the outcome of a life of study, and its object is to help the poor, to help her answer the large correspondence which daily pours in upon her, each bearing its special burden of suffering, or joy at release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. It has been generally investigated and is an established fact of the truth of this.

On account of its proven merits, it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. One says: "It works like a charm and saves much pain. It cures indigestion, flatulency, and all the ailments of the stomach, irregular and painful menstruation, all ovarian troubles, inflammation and Ulceration, Floodings, all Displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life." It cures every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes fatness, restores the system, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Irritability, and all the ailments of the system. It is a permanent cure by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system. It costs only 25c per bottle or six for $1.50, and is sold by all druggists. Any druggist who does not have it, send the name of Mrs. Plankham to the publisher, and a copy of the Compound will be sent to you.
