competition which has always marked the Canadian business world.
e, therefore, ask you to take the same view, namely, keep osts down and aggressively seek business so that we can coninue to improve our standard of living.