

CONFIDENTIAL

January 15, 1951

THE BUREAU OF STATISTICS AND CENSUS

It should be noted that a selection of statistics concerning the Census of Canada, 1946, is being prepared which will be available to the public in the form of a book. This book will contain data on the population of Canada, the number of families, and the number of persons in families.
This book will be available to the public in the form of a book. This book will be available to the public in the form of a book.

Director, Bureau of Statistics

RELATIONS BETWEEN CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES

The relations between Canada and the United States are of great importance. The two countries are neighbors and have a long history of friendship.
The relations between the two countries are
based on mutual respect and cooperation.
The relations between the two countries are
based on mutual respect and cooperation.

For more information on the relations between Canada and the United States, please contact the Bureau of Statistics.

Director, Bureau of Statistics