

Personal Representative of the Secretary General.

This phase would necessarily focus on rehabilitation and economic reintegration of the displaced. Renewed efforts for the peace process, maintenance of corridors of tranquility, and continuation of the ceasefire would be important elements of future success.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.