

On appeals from government decisions on athletes' assistance and other funding that directly or indirectly affect the careers or working conditions of athletes, coaches and others, the Sub-Committee recommends:

- 13. That the federal government accept the recommendation of the Dubin Report and replace appeals to the Minister with appeals to an independent arbitrator.

The Sub-Committee is willing to work with the Minister and the sports community to develop practical procedures to implement these proposals.