

resources too quickly, yet they need them now. Try to resolve those two problems. Hon. members asked about our Minister of Energy. He is great.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Mrs. Holt: Our Minister of Transport (Mr. Lang) has already shown great strength in his portfolio.

Some hon. Members: Order!

Mrs. Holt: You started it. You started talking about leadership. I am giving you a roll call of leadership.

An hon. Member: What about the back bench?

Mrs. Holt: Oh, the back bench is splendid. But I am talking about the Minister of Transport. He is new on the job—

An hon. Member: What about the Whip?

Mrs. Holt: Oh, the Whip is fantastic. Look at all the people he has brought out. Where are your boys?

The Minister of Transport has already shown great strength and courage in his portfolio. His intelligence and vigour will assure solutions to difficulties involving the dredging prices and the chronic problems of our railway system, and maybe we will get equalization of freight rates in the west through him because he is a westerner.

One last quotation. Everybody has used a quotation from somebody else—

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Order!

Mrs. Holt: I just wish to put one quotation on record—

The question, "Who ought to be boss?" is like asking "Who ought to be the tenor in the quartet?" Obviously, the man who can sing tenor.

Some hon. Members: Order! Order!

[Translation]

Mr. Deputy Speaker: I regret to interrupt the hon. member, but it being 9.45 p.m. it is my duty, pursuant to section 10 of Standing Order 58, to interrupt the proceedings and put forthwith all questions necessary to dispose of the proceedings on the motion and of the supplementary estimates (A) and for the passage through all stages of any bill based thereon.

The question is on the amendment in the name of the hon. member for Richmond (Mr. Beaudoin).

All those in favour of the amendment will please say yea.

Some hon. Members: Yea.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: All those opposed will please say nay.

Some hon. Members: Nay.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: In my opinion the nays have it. And more than five members having risen:

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Call in the members.
