which it was written appeared new and I dare say was new to many people who had not noted the previous brief mention.

What, of course, we both must avoid is any misunderstanding, but I do not think we are open to the charge that news goes to the Star while the Gazette gets only semi-advertisement stuff. At the University we, of course, appreciate all the decent publicity we can get and our only desire is to be eminently fair to all sections of the Press.

With all good wishes, I am,

Yours faithfully,
