

lency, that we are, with great respect, your Excellency's most humble and most obedient servants,

Signed by

Addison, Henry	Lutwyche, E. G.
Anderfon, James	Longworth, Isaac
Billopp, Christopher	Maudsley, John
Bell, Andrew	Moore, John
Barrell, Colban	Peters, James
Blane, Thomas	Peters, Henry
Bouden, John	Panton, George
Bannister, Thomas	Potts, John
Campbell, Colin	Roome, John Le Chev.
Campbell, William	Seabury, David
Camp, Abiathar	Seaman, Richard
Crannell, Bartholomew	Seaman, Benjamin
Chandler, Rufus	Sayre, James
Chandler, Nathaniel	Sayre, John
Coffin, Nathaniel	Skinner, Stephen
Chaloner, Walter	Smith, John
Clarke, James	Stewart, Anthony
Chipman, Ward	Taylor, Joseph
Cantelyou, Aaron	Taylor, William
Davis, Benjamin	Taylor, Joseph
Donaldson, Samuel	Taylor, William
Fenley, James	Taylor, George
Goldberry, Samuel	Watson, John
Henderson, Hugh	Wanton, William
Horsfield, Thomas	Wilkins, Isaac
Inglis, Charles	Willard, Abijah
Knox, Thomas	Willard, Abel.
Livingston, P. J.

Upon this letter, Sir Guy Carleton wrote to Governor Parr in the manner most agreeable to the fifty-five signers, recommending the following persons, the Rev. John Sayre, and Anthony Stewart, Philip J. Livingston, and Nathaniel Chandler, Esqrs. to Governor