

ARMY OF BIG GUNS PRACTICE WORK

Artillery Brigade Goes to Scarborough This Morning for Field Day.

MUST KEEP OUT OF U.S. No Soldier in Uniform Can Cross Border Under Any Circumstances.

About 45 of the officers and non-commissioned officers of the second contingent, artillery brigade, will go to Scarborough this morning to hold a field day. The place selected is the high plateau just west of the town, and extending on each side of the Kingston road. The operations are to last practically all day and will include the firing of artillery, machine guns, and the throwing of "powder-puffs" which burst into a ball of smoke and represent the exploding of a mine. The day's work will be interesting to the spectators.

A tour of the suburbs was made yesterday by Col. W. A. Logan and Major C. Bickford, for the purpose of selecting a new place for the next field day to be held by the infantry. It will likely be held on Monday.

Camp Called Off.

The arrangements for the 12-day camp of the Canadian Officers' Training Corps, to have been held at Scarborough from May 3 to 15, have been canceled, was a report at Exhibition Park yesterday.

Lieut. W. Ford Howland, divisional intelligence officer of the headquarters staff, has been promoted to the rank of captain. Official notice of his new rank has just been received from Ottawa.

Not in Uniform.

A special order, issued yesterday afternoon, says that it is to be distinctly understood that no officer, N.C.O. or man is permitted to enter the United States in uniform, under any circumstances whatever, and that this particularly applies to officers of the Niagara and other frontier towns. The order is being read out on two parades.

An inspection of the Fourth Canadian Mounted Rifles was made at camp yesterday by Lt.-Col. C. A. Smart, commander of the second brigade, the Fourth C.M.R. form one-third of the brigade.

Major E. N. Harris, Army Service Corps, second contingent, who was dangerously ill with pneumonia, is doing very well at Welland Hospital and likely to be well enough to go to work to leave for his home at London, Ontario.

As ordered by Lt.-Col. J. T. Fotheringham, all the blankets at the camp are being sterilized with live steam, the process starting yesterday.

One hundred and thirty signallers for the wireless examination under Capt. S. D. Dunn.

The promotion is posted of Lieut. W. H. Robinson of the Railway Supply Battalion to be captain (provisionally) of the West End Y.M.C.A. He has invited all contingent soldiers who are members and ex-members of the association to a dinner at the Y.M.C.A. on Friday, April 16, at 6.45 p.m.

Selection Made Yet.

About one hundred doctors who wish to join the Royal Army Medical Corps have sent in applications to Lieut.-Col. J. T. Fotheringham, A.D.C., but no word has been received from him as to the number of men required from this military division or when required. For this reason no selections have as yet been made.

Color-Sergeant J. E. Oliver, Princess Patricia's of 107 Denison avenue, invalided home from the front, arrived in Toronto yesterday. He has 11 bullet and shrapnel wounds in his arms, legs and back. On March 15, with other "Fats," he charged a German trench and received wounds from which he was unconscious for a week. He was taken to a hospital in Belgium, and a medal and a star from France, and a medal and a star from England. His wife and a 2-month-old baby boy welcomed him home yesterday.

Doctor's Experiences.

A fine description of the work of the medical men with the front-line regiments is given by Capt. G. G. Children, a doctor with the Canadians in Union. He says that his parents' station is only half a mile from the trenches. Here he attends the wounded. The stretcher-bearers are a fine sight. With the aid of the stretcher he also looks after the water supply. Another Canadian doctor, Major C. P. Preston, writing home to Napoleon, tells of the advance dressing station while a great battle was on. "You can't imagine what we have hundreds of guns continuing to shell your head from a hundred yards behind the enemy's machine in return bursting all around," he writes.

Nobody Loves Huerta.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Gen. Victoriano Huerta, who arrived here from the United States, was attacked tonight in a state general in New York for the time being, and both factions in Mexico, however otherwise divided, were united in opposition to Huerta.

MORDEN

The Tomodromos Concert will be held tonight at 8 p.m. at the Pape avenue. It is a plan of campaign.

KING'S CABARET RESTAURANT

14 King St. East

DANCING

From 10:30 to 12 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. G. G. G. will give exhibition dances.

Popular Luncheon, 35c, served daily from 12 to 2 p.m. Saturday, Sunday and Holidays, 50c.

La Carte Service at all hours. Proprietor and Pure Food, combined in the place to dine. Our automobiles will take you to the cafe for 35c. Telephone M. 7340. e47

INDIAN LANDS RICH "PICKING"

Government Decided to Drop Proposals Owing to Objections Raised.

DISCUSSION DRAGGING

Amended Measure Likely to Reach Third Reading Today.

Officials of the interior department in the west, formed partnership with three men—W. Crawford of Medicine Hat, T. Kilpatrick and G. McCarty of Revelstoke, and got for $15,000, which a year previously were valued at $125,000. The case is found to be one of conspiracy.

In what is known as the Craver Dan case, it was established that Hon. George Brown, now Lieut.-Governor of Saskatchewan, secured $1 an acre 1000 acres of land which, when expropriated by the government in connection with the building of the dam, were valued at $25 an acre. Hon. Walter Scott, premier of Saskatchewan, wrote to G. T. Turfitt, then Dominion land commissioner, asking that this land be held for a "private party," who turned out to be Mr. Brown.

Increased Grants.

A grazing ranch lease in Alberta involved J. Adamson, ex-Liberal M.P. A notification of $2,000, 32,000 acres of land was made to the Dominion land commissioner, J. D. McGregor of Brandon, and the beneficiary, Adamson, who is a brother-in-law of Mr. Turfitt, then land commissioner. The peculiar fact was that while 32,000 acres were granted, and Adamson was to receive $2000, he was not aware of the increase till told so at the inquiry. Adamson formed a company which paid $450 the first instalment of rental, and then disposed of it to J. Conroy of McLeod, for $25,000. The commissioner strongly condemned the transaction, especially the increased grant.

The Cedar Lake timber berth is another case of increased acreage being granted. A. W. Fraser, of Ottawa, some years ago submitted a tender to lease a berth at $200 a year. It was supposed to be 80 miles square. Mr. Fraser afterwards claimed the island in the lake as well as the property surrounding it, and without extra payments, secured 17 miles additional.

G. T. P.'s Newspaper Deal.

The statement made when Hon. Frank Oliver was member of the government, the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway bought 15,000 worth of stock in the Edmonton Bulletin, in which, he states, Mr. Oliver was a partner.

His statement is based upon the evidence of Frank Scott of Montreal, who testified in 1905, that G. T. P. forwarded $15,000 to the Imperial Bank at Edmonton, for which he received a stock certificate for 150 shares.

According to Mr. Scott, 285 shares were held by Mr. Oliver and 150 by Mr. Scott. The railway company held the stock in trust, but did not receive any dividends upon it, which was in the business of the company.

Treasurer Scott of the railway company stated that the money was forwarded by him to the Imperial Bank at Edmonton on Oct. 1, 1905, and that later he received certificates for 150 shares of stock, which he held in trust for the railway. He could not say why the company purchased the stock.

FORCED INTO EXILE BY HIS UNIONISM

Telegraph Operator Says Western Union Deliberately Blacklisted Him

SPOTTER'S ADMISSION

He Joined Union to Get Information Against That Body.

CHICAGO, April 13.—The commercial telegraph business, present subject of enquiry by the United States Commission on Industrial Relations, in session here, was presented from widely divergent angles today.

The witnesses were S. J. Koenekamp, president of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, who completed his testimony; Belvidere Erosy, vice-president and former general manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company; Henry Lynch, a telegraph operator, who claimed that his unionism forced him into exile into Winnipeg, Canada, to find work; H. B. Perham, president of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers; Edgar G. Barrett of Downer's Grove, Ill., a Western Union employe, who confessed himself a former spy agent, or "spotter," and Edward C. Reynolds, general manager of the Postal Telegraph and Cable Company. Mr. Koenekamp was the star witness in the case.

Mr. Erosy, who completed his testimony, said that he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Reynolds said that the welfare of the employes of the Postal Company was at present a subject of consideration. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Barrett said that while engaged as a spotter, he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Perham said that he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Barrett said that while engaged as a spotter, he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Reynolds said that the welfare of the employes of the Postal Company was at present a subject of consideration. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Barrett said that while engaged as a spotter, he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Perham said that he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Barrett said that while engaged as a spotter, he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Reynolds said that the welfare of the employes of the Postal Company was at present a subject of consideration. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Barrett said that while engaged as a spotter, he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Perham said that he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Barrett said that while engaged as a spotter, he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

NO SCRUTINEERS GOING TO FRONT

Government Decided to Drop Proposals Owing to Objections Raised.

DISCUSSION DRAGGING

Amended Measure Likely to Reach Third Reading Today.

Officials of the interior department in the west, formed partnership with three men—W. Crawford of Medicine Hat, T. Kilpatrick and G. McCarty of Revelstoke, and got for $15,000, which a year previously were valued at $125,000. The case is found to be one of conspiracy.

In what is known as the Craver Dan case, it was established that Hon. George Brown, now Lieut.-Governor of Saskatchewan, secured $1 an acre 1000 acres of land which, when expropriated by the government in connection with the building of the dam, were valued at $25 an acre. Hon. Walter Scott, premier of Saskatchewan, wrote to G. T. Turfitt, then Dominion land commissioner, asking that this land be held for a "private party," who turned out to be Mr. Brown.

Increased Grants.

A grazing ranch lease in Alberta involved J. Adamson, ex-Liberal M.P. A notification of $2,000, 32,000 acres of land was made to the Dominion land commissioner, J. D. McGregor of Brandon, and the beneficiary, Adamson, who is a brother-in-law of Mr. Turfitt, then land commissioner. The peculiar fact was that while 32,000 acres were granted, and Adamson was to receive $2000, he was not aware of the increase till told so at the inquiry. Adamson formed a company which paid $450 the first instalment of rental, and then disposed of it to J. Conroy of McLeod, for $25,000. The commissioner strongly condemned the transaction, especially the increased grant.

The Cedar Lake timber berth is another case of increased acreage being granted. A. W. Fraser, of Ottawa, some years ago submitted a tender to lease a berth at $200 a year. It was supposed to be 80 miles square. Mr. Fraser afterwards claimed the island in the lake as well as the property surrounding it, and without extra payments, secured 17 miles additional.

G. T. P.'s Newspaper Deal.

The statement made when Hon. Frank Oliver was member of the government, the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway bought 15,000 worth of stock in the Edmonton Bulletin, in which, he states, Mr. Oliver was a partner.

His statement is based upon the evidence of Frank Scott of Montreal, who testified in 1905, that G. T. P. forwarded $15,000 to the Imperial Bank at Edmonton, for which he received a stock certificate for 150 shares.

According to Mr. Scott, 285 shares were held by Mr. Oliver and 150 by Mr. Scott. The railway company held the stock in trust, but did not receive any dividends upon it, which was in the business of the company.

Treasurer Scott of the railway company stated that the money was forwarded by him to the Imperial Bank at Edmonton on Oct. 1, 1905, and that later he received certificates for 150 shares of stock, which he held in trust for the railway. He could not say why the company purchased the stock.

FORCED INTO EXILE BY HIS UNIONISM

Telegraph Operator Says Western Union Deliberately Blacklisted Him

SPOTTER'S ADMISSION

He Joined Union to Get Information Against That Body.

CHICAGO, April 13.—The commercial telegraph business, present subject of enquiry by the United States Commission on Industrial Relations, in session here, was presented from widely divergent angles today.

The witnesses were S. J. Koenekamp, president of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, who completed his testimony; Belvidere Erosy, vice-president and former general manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company; Henry Lynch, a telegraph operator, who claimed that his unionism forced him into exile into Winnipeg, Canada, to find work; H. B. Perham, president of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers; Edgar G. Barrett of Downer's Grove, Ill., a Western Union employe, who confessed himself a former spy agent, or "spotter," and Edward C. Reynolds, general manager of the Postal Telegraph and Cable Company. Mr. Koenekamp was the star witness in the case.

Mr. Erosy, who completed his testimony, said that he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Reynolds said that the welfare of the employes of the Postal Company was at present a subject of consideration. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Barrett said that while engaged as a spotter, he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Perham said that he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Barrett said that while engaged as a spotter, he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Reynolds said that the welfare of the employes of the Postal Company was at present a subject of consideration. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Barrett said that while engaged as a spotter, he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Perham said that he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Barrett said that while engaged as a spotter, he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Reynolds said that the welfare of the employes of the Postal Company was at present a subject of consideration. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Barrett said that while engaged as a spotter, he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Perham said that he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

Mr. Barrett said that while engaged as a spotter, he had been blacklisted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been forced to leave the United States to find work in Canada. He said that he had been a spy agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that he had been blacklisted by the company because of his unionism.

RUSSIAN TRIUMPH AT UZSOK

Complaint Made and Practice Must Stop at Once.

HAD BEEN WORRYING

William Wightman was Temporarily Insane, Says Jury.

According to the evidence at the inquest into the death of William Wightman, 749 Merton street, taken at the morgue last night, Wightman had been despondent for several days before he was found dead under the Moore avenue bridge. He had been sick with his grippe, his aged wife was ailing and he thought she was about to die. This caused him to worry considerably. On the morning of April 3 he was found dead under the bridge with his throat cut and three ribs broken.

The jury under coroner Gibson brought in the following verdict without retiring from the court: "We are of the opinion that William Wightman came to his death by suicide on April 3 during temporary insanity."

Wightman was about 70 years of age and had been living in Toronto for 25 years. For 25 years he was employed as gardener by a member of the firm of Christie, Brown, & Co., Ltd. in Deer Park.

Too Much Profanity.

William Banks Sr., theatrical censor, complained to the police commissioners yesterday that there was too much profanity used on the stages of the theatres of Toronto. This form of "humor" will be promptly stamped out. The censor was ordered to take the necessary steps to stop it.

An application made by Joseph Bamford to run a jitney service from King and Yonge streets to the Woodbine was turned down by the commissioners. Talking on the jitney question the chief said the board was aware that many of the vehicles were being overcrowded and that passengers were allowing them to get out of the novelty stage before any action would be taken.

On the advice of the secretary of the harbor commissioners it was decided to swear Captain Chapman of the life saving station as a special constable. The harbor commissioners wanted all members of the crews sworn in.

Go To New York and Sea.

It was decided to have one of the commissioners visit New York and inspect their central post office, where all police officers are under one roof. For some time past the erection of such a building in Toronto has been under contemplation.

Oliver Snell, who has been on station duty at the Court street station for a long period, was granted his resignation. He has been in the force for 29 years and resigned owing to ill health.

Officers Davey and Killen were granted merit marks.

Dunning's, Limited Specials Today

Oxtail Braise, farmer style; Botted Special Cured Ham with spinach, Calves' Liver Sauté and Bacon, Wines, Liquors and Cigars, 27-21 King street, west, 25 Melinda street.

BROCKVILLE EX-M.P. CALLED BY DEATH

John Culbert Dies Suddenly of Heart Failure at Seventy-Three.

Special to The Toronto World. BROCKVILLE, Ont., April 13.—John Culbert, ex-M.P., 73, died this morning quite unexpectedly at his home here. He had been complaining of a cold, and a sudden attack of a lung ailment brought on the end.

He had been a life-long resident of Leeds County and Brockville, and had been engaged in the mercantile business here for fifty years. He represented this riding in the Dominion Parliament from 1900 to 1904, and on seeking re-election was defeated by D. Derbyshire, now senator. He unsuccessfully contested Brockville for the Ontario Legislature in 1898, against Hon. G. P. Graham. He was thrice elected mayor of Brockville and was for several terms a councillor. The only surviving member of the family is one daughter, Mrs. D. Hunt.

BASHI BAZOOKS REPAIRING FORTS

Special Cable to The Toronto World. ADRIANOPLE, April 13.—Twenty thousand Turkish Bashi Bazooks are repairing and putting up fortifications under the direction of General Von Sanders. These repairs are intended it is supposed to offer resistance to an advance on the part of the Russians.

OLD DOC SAYS "DOCTOR'S BLEND" TOBACCO

will not injure the heaviest smoker because all excess nicotine is carefully distilled from it in the course of manufacture.

10c package, or 60c in half-pound tins, at all UNITED CIGAR STORES

RAIDER ASKS TIME TO MAKE REPAIRS

Commander of Kronprinz Wilhelm Makes Application to Newport Customs.

ALLIES' WARSHIPS NEAR

Asserted That Karlsruhe is Still Engaged in Raiding Operations.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., April 13.—Lieut.-Capt. Theobald, commander of the German converted cruiser Kronprinz Wilhelm, delivered to Collector of Customs Hamilton late today formal request for time to repair his ship in this port. The letters were forwarded to the secretary of the treasury, and their contents were not divulged to the public.

While it is understood the German commander asked for three weeks as a maximum, he stated he would make every effort to complete temporary repairs and leave port before that time.

His request included a petition for permission to go into drydock immediately. Until this is granted the merchant raider must remain at anchor in the James River. Unofficially the captain of the Kronprinz Wilhelm urged that action regarding his ship be expedited.

One French warship and one British cruiser were sighted today off the Virginia Capes by pilots who brought ships into port.

It is thought it was reported that while two warships were guarding the Virginia Capes four or five others were searching for the Atlantic German raider. The raider served to revive speculation as to the German cruiser Karlsruhe, several times reported destroyed. One of the Wilhelm asserted they did not believe the Karlsruhe had been destroyed. A British naval base at Bridgetown, Barbados, and that details of the exploit never were revealed.

GEN. VILLA'S ARMY DEFEATED IN SORTIE

Besieged Carranza Garrison at Matamoros Inflicted Heavy Loss.

POSITIONS UNCHANGED

Bombardment of City Did Little Damage—Both Factions Claim Victory.

BROWNVILLE, Tex., April 13.—In a sortie by 1500 of the Carranza garrison at Matamoros today a heavy blow was inflicted upon the Villa army by sieging them. Gen. Saulo Navarro, second in command of the Villa troops, was brought to Brownville tonight dangerously wounded and the Carranza consulate here put in a state of alarm.

The long-promised shelling of Matamoros, but the firing ceased when the Carranza garrison returned to the trenches and the positions of the armies practically unchanged.

During the bombardment eight shells passed completely over Matamoros and both claimed to have won the fight. Villa said he had little damage and that no known casualties.

CHILD'S SEVERE STOMACH TROUBLE

A British Mother's Gratitude for the British Wender-medicine.

DR. CASSELL'S TABLETS

They cured her little boy when nothing else could do any good.

"I feel I could go out into the street and thank the world for Dr. Cassell's Tablets," explains Mrs. Wooding, of 23, The Green, Belgrave, Leicester, England. "To me, they continue, 'it is a marvel that the medicine could act as these Tablets did act when they cured my little son Henry, for to all appearances he was beyond hope of recovery. He had had measles and was left with a diseased stomach, which no ordinary treatment could relieve. Poor child, he could not keep anything, and rapidly he grew well and strong. Now he is just brimful of health and activity.' This remarkable cure is only one of many fully reported by Dr. Cassell's Tablets have effected, and are constantly effecting throughout the British Dominion. Their value is beyond question. They are a safe and reliable remedy for all other forms of Dyspepsia, for Nerve Weakness, Nerve Failure, Neurasthenia, Neuritis, Anaemia, Palpitation, Debility, Wasting, Kidney Trouble, Lame Back, Little Depression, and for weakness and wasting in children. Mother will find them specially valuable while nursing, and during the critical periods of life. Keep a supply by you in case of need. All Drugists and Storekeepers throughout the Dominion sell Dr. Cassell's Tablets at 50 cents. A Free Sample will be sent to you on receipt of 5 cents for mailing and packing, by the Sole Agents for Canada, H. F. Ritchie and Co., Ltd., 15 McCaul street, Toronto, Ont.

GOING TO FRONT

Government Decided to Drop Proposals Owing to Objections Raised.

DISCUSSION DRAGGING

Amended Measure Likely to Reach Third Reading Today.

Officials of the interior department in the west, formed partnership with three men—W. Crawford of Medicine Hat, T. Kilpatrick and G. McCarty of Revelstoke, and got for $15,000, which a year previously were valued at $125,000. The case is found to be one of conspiracy.

In what is known as the Craver Dan case, it was established that Hon. George Brown, now Lieut.-Governor of Saskatchewan, secured $1 an acre 1000 acres of land which, when expropriated by the government in connection with the building of the dam, were valued at $25 an acre. Hon. Walter Scott, premier of Saskatchewan, wrote to G. T. Turfitt, then Dominion land commissioner, asking that this land be held for a "private party," who turned out to be Mr. Brown.

Increased Grants.

A grazing ranch lease in Alberta involved J. Adamson, ex-Liberal M.P. A notification of $2,000, 32,000 acres of land was made to the Dominion land commissioner, J. D. McGregor of Brandon, and the beneficiary, Adamson, who is a brother-in-law of Mr. Turfitt, then land commissioner. The peculiar fact was that while 32,000 acres were granted, and Adamson was to receive $2000, he was not aware of the increase till told so at the inquiry. Adamson formed a company which paid $450 the first instalment of rental, and then disposed of it to J. Conroy of McLeod, for $25,000. The commissioner strongly condemned the transaction, especially the increased grant.

The Cedar Lake timber berth is another case of increased acreage being granted. A. W. Fraser, of Ottawa, some years ago submitted a tender to lease a berth at $200 a year. It was supposed to be 80 miles square. Mr. Fraser afterwards claimed the island in the lake as well as the property surrounding it, and without extra payments, secured 17 miles additional.

G. T. P.'s Newspaper Deal.

The statement made when Hon. Frank Oliver was member of the government, the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway bought 15,000 worth of stock in the Edmonton Bulletin, in which, he states, Mr. Oliver was a partner.

His statement is based upon the evidence of Frank Scott of Montreal, who testified in 1905, that G. T. P. forwarded $15,000 to the Imperial Bank at Edmonton, for which he received a stock certificate for 150 shares.

According to Mr. Scott, 285 shares were held by Mr. Oliver and 150 by Mr. Scott. The railway company held the stock in trust, but did not receive any dividends upon it, which was in the business of the company.

Treasurer Scott of the railway company stated that the money was forwarded by him to the Imperial Bank at Edmonton on Oct. 1, 1905, and that later he received certificates for 150 shares of stock, which he held in trust for the railway. He could not say why the company purchased the stock.

FORCED INTO EXILE BY HIS UNIONISM

Telegraph Operator Says Western Union Deliberately Blacklisted Him

SPOTTER'S ADMISSION

He Joined Union to Get Information Against That Body.

CHICAGO, April 13.—The commercial telegraph business, present subject of enquiry by the United States Commission on Industrial Relations, in session here, was presented from widely divergent angles today.

The witnesses were S. J. Koenekamp, president of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America