Maple Leaf Continues Its Advance to Sixty-One-War Loan Bonds Dealt In.

Contrary to expectations, comestic stocks showed more vitality yesterday and altho there were no conspicuous advances with one exception the demand was keener than the desire to sell in some issues. Maple Leaf made a further rise to 61, an advance of 4 points for the day. A general rise in four prices and a large cutput is evidently advantageous to this company and the market is appreciating this idea. But stocks were all slightly firmer and the impression exists that there is a good underlying strength in these stocks at current prices. There was no special news in the market and the nearness of the holidays was a determining factor as far as speculation was concerned. In the unlisted section the only interesting feature was fair-sized dealings in the new Cana-

The other war order stocks were variable, but most of them on the heavy side. Outside of the war order group business was even duller than usual. In the bond department the first transactions in Anglo-French bonds were reported, small lots selling at 94% to 95. The Canadian war loan sold at 971/2 to 97%, against 97 7-8 the

RECOVERY FOLLOWS

Livelier Trading in Afternoon Session With Prices Stronger -Chambers a Feature.

The feature of trading yesterday at the Standard Mining Exchange was the strong recovery made in the afternoon following upon a very dull morn-ing session, in which almost the whole list displayed weakness. The undertone of the market is undoubtedly strong, as was shown by the large vol-ume of buying which deveoped in the reactions. There was comparatively little liquidation. So much profittaking has been going on lately that it leaves little stock to be put on the market, and, on the other hand, there are a large number of traders who are endeavoring to replace their holdings and who are waiting for the holiday dulness to shade prices in order to pick up bargains.

It is further reported that large financial interests from New York and War Loan bonds. 971/2... Chicago are planning a visit to the Porcupine camp after the Christmas holidays with the idea of becoming financially interested in some of the properties.

In the Porcupine Apex was lower at 6 1-2, as against 8 the day before, but closed a little higher at 7 1-8. It is Dome Ext. 37 rumored that a hitch had occurred in the deal for the purchase of the treathe deal for the purchase of the treasury stock of this company, which was responsible for the decline. It is generally believed, however, that the parties will get together again and put the deal thru.

The McIntyre Extension was easier, selling down to 27, but closing stronger at 29 bid. West Dome was fractionally higher than the day before, selling up to 16. The new West Dome stock was traded in at 25 1-4. This price is equivalent to approximately 17 cents for the old stock, which is being traded in at present. It is said that a strong pool in New York has an active interest in this stock and it is expected to become a leader with the upward ed to become a leader with the upward swing of the market.

There seems to be a large public interest in Jupiter and big blocks of the stock are reported to have been withdrawn from the market by people who will hold for an upward movement. Jupiter was strong yesterday, selling up to 18 1-2. MeIntyre should benefit, as the McIntyre people have a controlling interest in Jupiter. Dome Extension was steady around 37 to 27 1-2. Bets were made on the floor that this stock would rise 10 points before it went down 2 points.
