[[ 1361]]

SIR TOHN MORD AUNT being afked; whether he had any Queltion to propole to the Admiral, or any other Matter to offer, answered. That he had nothing farther to mouble the Court with; - that he felt himfelf quite happy in having gone through a publick Trial. and before fuch Judges. indifiable Meritire, veci he tierene od t end els and indiguods vir afface confidered the whole Matter before them, is unanimously of Opinion, that the Prisoner Lieutenant General Sir John Mordaunt is NOT GUILTY of the Charge exhibited against him; and doth therefore ACQUIT him. Knowled a in their a.m. Prolessor, that he adminent to figning the Relation or the first Cornell of Wes.

land the Troups, if they thought proper, and to give from all the Allitabecin their Post . - When the Der nur zunentioned the Major Gen ral Contert faid, ## and Arestocky, solar or sides .... TYRAWLY. a er er Time exenti dalDefire.

ther the Loud Office, Thought eire it is True Copy, a will block to all both to the state of the s

Deputy Judge Advocate General. 1 s 200 1 and bad us he recent re. . Wer wall two of Opinion. Bash Pagura Howle age, it is a later of Opiinon or our own; but in Could en or or the Abidiches at the Congress of the magneticity beautiful their Cohilons of the dies Liedbilley e. Bibliog Reits-fart by en kirriede or, Strims however, thoughts affected 'un the most age or upon that the the Parties of the use the empire of the Bridge the old rice land at all, the way other a range, while the fire and Capitors for wishing proper and exications edr him modre i gyranger od no festyre keller the May there approved to him, or doing through . executive to the blood Inflatellipes.