Baseball Rulings.

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 5.—The National Baseball Commission to-day formally declared Player Fred W. Ulrich, formerly of the Brooklyn National League team, to be a free moral agent. The player contended that he was released by the Brooklyns to the New Bedford Club last spring, but did not sign a contract until the close of the season. He requested that he either be paid his salary for the full season, according to his Brooklyn contract, or that he be declared a free s and the player to the New Bedford Club with the understanding that an option was to be obtained on him, the New Bedford Club with the understanding that an option was to be obtained on him, the New Bedford Club in order to secure it, entered into an agreement with the New Bedford Club for an outright purchase of Player Ulrich. The Brooklyns then secured waivers on the player and released him to the Atlanta Club.

The sale by the New Bedford Club to the Brooklyn Club is required to reimburse the Atlanta Club for the money they received from that club for the player, and the New Bedford Club will be required to reimburse the Brooklyn Club.

Eastern League Must Be Satisfied.
CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 5.—According to statements made here by President Barney Dreyfuss, the joint schedule committee of the National and American Leagues has arranged the schedules for both leagues so that each club will save between $1000 and $5000 in railroad fares next year.

between $1000 and $5000 in railroad tates
next year.

He says that each of the clubs has been traveling many extra thousands of miles every year, and that the joint schedule body has cut down the number of miles to the lowest ebb. He would give no exact instance of this, and said that his hearers would have to await the deliverance of the new schedule.

"We will grant no higher classification to either the American Association or the Eastern League," said President Dreyfuss.
