

Coronation Day Will See Our Store Closed

Every loyal citizen will celebrate the day, and 'tis a time for new clothes and general rejoicing--It also means six days' business must be crowded into five. To do this we have selected from our splendid stock over three hundred Men's and Young Men's Suits to go on sale at two prices

$9.98 and $15.79

The first mentioned price includes all Suits that have been selling from $12 to $16, Tweeds, Worsteds and Fancy Outing 2-Piece Suits. In all there are about one hundred and fifty suits to clear at $9.98.

The Second lot includes all Suits, $18 up to $25, and some of the most handsome patterns you could wish for. Into this lot we have thrown all Outing Suits of English Flannels and Homespuns selling at $20, $22 and $25. The total lot makes a count of some two hundred suits to clear at $15.79. We will make any alteration free of charge and guarantee delivery in time for the holiday.

Please remember that this is a sale of new, clean stock and not an old garment in the lot. We have a stock that is much too heavy and we realize the importance of our short summer season. So buy at once in order to secure your suit for the grandest and most auspicious holiday of the year--Coronation Day.

POLITICS OVERSHADOWED BY CORONATION PAGEANT

Lloyd-George May Not Succeed in Getting Insurance Bill Thru Parliament This Year.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The Tribune's London correspondent cables: "Politics are at a low ebb, without any cross currents or undertow. The prime minister, for whom no place yet has been provided in the main coronation tableau, is without an effective rival outside. The Earl Marshal, however, will doubtless remedy the anomaly before the day of the ceremony. There are whispers among disheartened Unionists that George V. will reveal innate Toryism at the last moment and insist upon the acceptance of an amendment to the parliament bill providing that the issue of home rule be submitted to the country at a general election, but these are counsels of despair. Lloyd George, confronted with the opposition of sixteen thousand doctors, may not succeed in hustling his insurance bill thru parliament this year. A bill for the prevention of rural voting may be substituted for it. The Daily Mail is making frantic efforts to upset the government on the measures to be taken for carrying the declaration of London into effect. Sir Edward Grey won a decisive victory when he secured the sanction of the imperial conference for the declaration of inter-imperial trade. The conference, while rejecting various artificial proposals for imperial councils without effective representation, has accomplished important practical results."

NOT DEAD—SLEEPING

Acting-Mayor Regards Expropriation as Yet Before Council.

The question of expropriating the C.P.R. corner at King and Yonge streets will likely figure prominently at the city council meeting on Monday night next. The acting mayor by no means regards the matter as finally disposed of. "There is no doubt at all in my mind as to the position," he said to The World. "The council has yet to dispose of the question by formal vote, something that has not yet been done." "Will you push the matter at next meeting of council?" he was asked. "Well that depends," was the parry. "I have written the C.P.R. regarding this matter, and it would scarcely be courteous to them to announce ourselves as planning a certain course, irrespective of their reply." Up to Saturday evening no reply had been received from the company. Moore Park Defeats Scots. Moore Park journeyed to Wychwood for their return game with Scots. The last time these teams met at Moore Park, the game ended in a one-goal draw, and great interest was centered in Saturday's game. There was a large crowd when the teams entered the field. Scots were first to appear, closely followed by Moore Park, who seemed to be a far lighter team than their opponents. Play commenced at 3.30. Half-time arrived with the score: Moore Park 2, Scots 0. The game ended with the visitors the winners. Result: Moore Park 4, Scots 0.

QUICKLY CURES CATARRH CLEARS OUT YOUR NOSTRILS

It's simply disgusting to keep on sniffing when Catarrh cures so quickly; it clears away the mucous discharge, presses the nostrils and air passages of offensive matter, cures the catarrh thoroughly. Mrs. W. F. Breach of Chapman writes: "I have used a great many catarrh remedies, but none of them ever helped like Catarrh. It cleared out my nose and throat and stopped a ringing noise in my ears. Catarrh is very simple and pleasant to use, and many times better than any other catarrh remedy." Your druggist has Catarrh, get it to-day. Two months' treatment guaranteed to permanently cure costs $1; sample size twenty-five cents.

LONDON ABLAZE WITH COLOR FOR CORONATION

World's Greatest Metropolis Now Appears in Her Gayest Gala Attire.

LONDON, June 17.—On the eve of coronation week London is ablaze with color. A few days ago the aspect of the streets suggested a city in splinters, so vast was the area of bare timber. All this has been transformed with paint and hanging fabrics. The metropolitan now appears in her gayest gala attire. From early morning until late at night the streets are crowded with a cosmopolitan throng. Motor busses are doing a brisk business, carrying sightseers to the coronation route. Musical rehearsals are proceeding with full choir and orchestra for the great ceremony in Westminster Abbey. No fewer than 450 voices compose the choir, drawn from every cathedral in England. The interior transformation of the abbey is completed, and with the final rehearsal on Monday, at which their Majesties are expected to be present, everything will be in readiness for Thursday's celebration. Early in the week the last of the royal delegates will arrive and London will then contain as distinguished a company as ever gathered in any capital. Few seats remain unsold, and those who cry the most expensive. Conspirators of all kinds for taking the users' foot above the heads of their fellows are being extensively advertised, but unfortunately for the buyers Scotland Yard has decided to treat such appliances as portable stands. Anyone carrying or wearing them within 100 yards of the route of the procession will be unceremoniously conducted into the nearest side street.

and not less than 200 persons were trampled by the horses of the cavalry, and by the mob when they lost their footing. Gen. Gorlan, the new minister of war, had selected to-day for comprehensive scouting manoeuvres by the army aeroplans. Twelve of them were detailed to work out certain problems in reconnaissance. One set forth from Chalons, four from St. Cyr and seven from Issy les Moulineux. Among the latter was Captain Princetau. He had scarcely got well into the air when one of the planes of his machine caught fire. Capt. Princetau, it was seen by his fellow officers, was struggling to undo a strap that was holding him firmly in his seat so as to be free to jump as he glided toward the earth. Before he could loosen the belt, however, the motor benzine ignited and flaming utter a cry and when the wreckage fell to the ground the captain was dead. His body was fearfully burned. Captain Princetau probably had been asphyxiated by the first burst of the
