

ENGLISH PAINTINGS HERE AND FRENCH ON THE WAY

Exhibition Grounds and Buildings Stood the Storm Superbly—Irish Guards' Band at Montreal.

Arrangements for the exhibition, the opening of which is now only twelve days off, are progressing finely. The grounds have been placed in excellent repair and are doing their work well, a fact which is proven by the splendid state of the grounds yesterday after the heavy rain of the previous day. There was not a vestige of water visible anywhere and there was not a leak apparent in any roof. In fact, everything was in splendid order.

The new art gallery at the exhibition grounds is as nearly as possible completed and ready for the hanging of the pictures. The paintings loaned by the corporations of the city of London, England, South Kensington Museum and Lord Strathmore have arrived and to-day will be unpacked. Abbey's collection of pictures has also reached the grounds and will be placed in a room in the new art gallery by itself. The room is being handsomely decorated in an appropriate manner, and the pictures will be shipped by one of the French lines of steamers and are expected here in a few days. They are five in number, from the Grand Palace of Versailles, and are as follows: "A Pastry Cook," by Carlevario, a chef of the kitchen of Louis XIV.; "The Kitchen of the King," by Carlevario; "The Kitchen of the King," by Carlevario; "The Kitchen of the King," by Carlevario; "The Kitchen of the King," by Carlevario.

Great arrangements are being made for the reception of the band of the Irish Guards at Montreal, which will be reached on the 25th inst. Col. Buchanan has the matter in hand and is preparing to meet the band at the station. The band is composed of 100 men, and will be accompanied by a band of 25 men. The band is expected to arrive on the 25th inst. and will be accompanied by a band of 25 men. The band is expected to arrive on the 25th inst. and will be accompanied by a band of 25 men.

F-A-U-L-T WAS FALSE. Mistake in Spelling Falls to Convent Woman in County Court.

In a case of sending indecent letters thru the mail, Mrs. Ann Weaver was dismissed yesterday. Sarah Weaver was accused. It seems that the two women were bosom friends until they had falling out. On day Miss Weaver received a letter that had a whole lot of indecent remarks in it. She hid her to the authorities and the writing resembled that of Mrs. Weaver.

When the case came to trial yesterday, Mrs. Weaver was asked to spell false and did so incorrectly, spelling it f-a-l-s-e. The judge, Mr. Justice Morgan, however, considered that the evidence was insufficient and dismissed the woman.

JAPS SIGN AGREEMENT. Seoul, Korea, Aug. 15.—(Delayed transmission.) After repeated negotiations, Japan has signed an agreement with Korea for the restoration of navigation on the coast and interior rivers for a term of fifteen years. The agreement will be published officially in a few days.

Give Severe Lecture.
J. H. Milner, who was accused of shooting a valuable mare, the property of Harry Garbutt, at a fair yesterday, was given a severe lecture yesterday morning by Judge Morgan. He was guilty, and as an excuse said that it happened at a fair where he was driving her. He said that Garbutt had been driving her and that Garbutt had been driving her and that Garbutt had been driving her.

Marine Investigation to Be Made.
President Oiler of the Ferry Company returned home yesterday, and after a conference with the board of directors, in which all of the circumstances, in the collision between the Turlin and the Primrose were taken into consideration, a committee was appointed to investigate the cause of the collision and to report thereon.

Big Real Estate Deal.
The valuable southwest corner of Queen and Bay streets has just changed hands. This property has been owned by the Tredale family for half a century. It is about 70 feet on Queen street by 75 feet on Bay street. The purchaser, J. J. Thorley, secured this property for $100,000, including the buildings, and he has undoubtedly made a good sound investment.

Sir Wilfrid's Health.
Ottawa, Aug. 16.—(Globe Special.)—Sir Wilfrid Laurier's health is altogether better. When last heard from the prime minister was fishing at Winchester Springs and enjoying himself thoroughly. He will return to Ottawa early next week.

Didn't Kiss the Book.
St. Catharines, Aug. 16.—James J. McArthur, who was accused of perjury in falsely entering goods into the country, to get a fine, was held today by the court. He had perjured himself in not having kissed the Bible.

Live Stock Entries at Fair.
The horse classes and live stock classes generally at the coming Canadian National Exhibition will be exceptionally strong, the entries being the largest scale yet, and including representative animals from every province and from many states in the United States.

Drowned at Ogdensburg.
Ogdensburg, N.Y., Aug. 16.—John O'Shea, of Deseronto, Ont., who was on the steamer "America," was drowned here last night. O'Shea walked off the deck into the water. Three others followed, but were rescued.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

At Shea's.

At Shea's Theatre this week the crowd has been coming every evening to see the first show of the season, and Manager Shea promises to keep up the standard which has been established this week and through the season bigger acts than ever before will be seen here. Helms, Bertram, the headliner this week, has been warmly welcomed by her Toronto friends and has made a host of admirers for her graceful personality and charming voice. Sherman and DeForest are fun-makers of the best order and the Fall of Port Arthur is as clever as it is funny and has kept the audience laughing all week. For the week of August 21 Manager Shea will give his patrons a special show, headed by J. W. Albaugh and Oliver May. In this sketch, "Lady Betty's Highwayman," The Colby family in their novel musical entertainment will also be seen. The Fall of Port Arthur will be equal prominence on the bill with Oliver May and Louis Wesley, Howard and North and the LaVine Cimeron trio.

Haverly's at the Grand.

Haverly's Minstrels are announced as the opening attraction at the Grand for the first three nights next week, and owing to the success of their previous visits, it is reasonable to expect that the Grand will be filled to capacity. The company is composed of the most brilliant artists, Billy Van, the assassin of sorrow. Of all the genuine old-time black face minstrel troupes, Haverly's is the best. The combination of Van and Haverly's is a combination that never before has been engaged for this season.

One of the best porters of the south is Billy Pearl, an exceptionally funny comedian, and a singing comedian. He is a native of the south and is a native of the south. He is a native of the south and is a native of the south.

Billy Van's monolog is the feature of the company. He is a native of the south and is a native of the south. He is a native of the south and is a native of the south.

With a cast of forty capable players, including a number of the best comedians, and complete scenic equipment, the sensational Chinese-American play, "The King of the Opium King," comes highly recommended to our theatregoers for the opening attraction at the Grand Theatre Monday afternoon.

The play is taken from life in San Francisco. It is a story of the opium trade, and the life of the opium smokers on the coast. The first act shows David Mann, a Chinese, with a golden cage in the distance, the escape of the smuggler's yacht, "Halcyon," with a revenue cutter in hot pursuit. The second act shows the interior of an opium joint, in which men and women, with opium in their veins, are playing a game of chance.

A smart show is presented at the Star Theatre for the opening on Saturday, August 15. The California Girls' Extravaganza will attract and execute an absolute novelty. The show is a novelty, and is a novelty. The show is a novelty, and is a novelty.

Waiting for Belcher.
Paterson, N.J., Aug. 16.—Public Prosecutor Emory of this city has evidence that William H. Belcher, for whom a warrant has been issued, is in the city. He is a native of the south and is a native of the south.

Successful Amateur Boys.
Two Ridley College boys did very well at the recent matriculation examination. John D. Barter, a grandson of Judge Travis, formerly of Calgary, won the gold medal in English, French and German and fourth place in English, and carried off the first scholarship in the examination. The second scholarship in moderns and a third in English, and a fourth in English, and a fifth in English.

Dogs at Exhibition.
The exhibit of dogs at the Canadian National Exhibition will be on a scale equal to the best ever shown by the Westminster Kennel Club. New York, or any other kennel club in America. The exhibit will include a number of the best dogs in the world, and will be a great attraction to the public.

TOO ARTIFICIAL.

Shooting at Biley Camp All Wrong, Says Expert.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)
London, Aug. 16.—Walter Wills, in The World, gives his views on rifle shooting at Biley, says: "The system of shooting is all wrong. It is absolutely contrary to the conditions of warfare. The Biley champion is almost more useless at the front than the man who never before handled a rifle. Shooting at a big stationary target at long range is the worst possible training. The Biley man fires under the most artificial conditions. He lies down on his stomach, rests his elbows on the ground, and a baby could do that."

BLOWN TO SHREDS.

Dynamite Used by Desperados in Virginia Feud.

Elkins, Va., Aug. 16.—Nine Italian desperados were blown to shreds and their bodies reduced to atoms by a dynamite explosion at the construction camp of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, yesterday. The explosion was caused by a feud between the Italian and the American men working on the line. The Italian men were the ones who were blown to shreds.

REMAINS OF ROMAN CITY.

Ancient History of English Country Reveals Buried Villa.

The remains of what is believed to have been a Roman city have been discovered by a schoolmaster near West Meon, in Hampshire, England. The schoolmaster, Mr. H. B. Parker, discovered the remains of a villa, which he believes to be a Roman villa. The villa was built on a hill, and was surrounded by a wall. HOSPITAL FOR ANIMALS.

LONDON IS TO HAVE ONE.

Our Dumb Friends' League Secures Suitable Site for Its Erection.

London will soon have a hospital for animals, for Our Dumb Friends' League, which has been considering the establishment of one for some time, has now acquired the lease of very suitable premises in the neighborhood of Victoria Station. The hospital will be worked on similar lines to the existing hospitals for human beings, and will have "wards" for various ailments. The poor man who depends upon a pony or donkey for his living, the benefits of the hospital will be invaluable.

WHAT WILL THE CENSUS BE?

City Has Ordered Police Commissioners to Count Population.

The police commissioners are requested by the board of control to take a census of the city about Nov. 1. Controller Hubbard, who introduced the measure, thinks the new census will show a population of 200,000. The police census was taken nearly nine years ago. The mayors of North Toronto, East Toronto and Toronto have agreed to take a census at the same time the next Toronto census is taken.

BANK HEADQUARTERS CHOSEN.

New Sterling Bank Building Will Be Erected on Bay Street.

The bank building to be erected at the northwest corner of Bay and Adelaide streets, on the site of the historic old Bank Building, is, if arrangements can be made, the headquarters of the new Sterling Bank. Arrangements have also been made in Uxbridge and several other towns for premises for branches. The world saw yesterday some samples of the Sterling Bank $5 and $10 bills. They are neatly designed and are dated Jan. 2, 1906, presumably the date on which the new institution will go into active business.

CARELESSNESS CAUSED DEATH.

Stephen Lawson, While Intoxicated, Falls on Gas and Dies.

The strong smell of gas attracted the attention of a chambermaid in the old Imperial Hotel building at 52 Jarvis street yesterday morning. She traced it up and found that it came from the room occupied by Stephen Lawson. She entered and found Lawson stretched across the bed dead. His death was due to an accidental turning on of the gas jet.
