AT INDIANAPOLIS.

Indianapolis, Aug. 19.—The second day of the Grand Circuit races drew a small crowd. The 2.40 trot and the 2.30 pace were rather uninteresting contests, because of the ease with which the favorites won. Phenol, the favorite in the 2.12 pace, fell in the preliminary warming up, but nevertheless she captured the first two heats handily. The third was lost by her to Pearl C., who won the fourth and fifth heats easily.

THAT STORY FROM GUELPH.

There is No Foundation for the Rumor Regarding the Death of Ex-Mayor Smith.

The World yesterday received the following despatch:

Guelph, Aug. 19.—I desire to emphatically contradict the sensational article in The Toronto World of this morning in reference to the sad death of W. G. Smith. The whole article is utterly devoid of truth, and there is no basis on which it could be founded. There is not the slightest suspicion that Mr. Smith was in any way connected with the alleged embezzlement by the City Treasurer. The whole article is a cruel libel on the memory of the deceased.
John A. Lamprey, Mayor.

The World is only too glad to be able to print the foregoing. The story was printed simply as a rumor which was in circulation, and we are pleased to know that Mayor Lamprey is able to set the rumor at rest.

No Truth in It.

Hamilton Spectator.

A Guelph despatch printed in The Spectator yesterday intimated that it was rumored in that city that the death of the late ex-Mayor Smith was due to self-administered poison, and that the cause of the suicide was that he had been implicated in the "shortage" discovered in City Treasurer Harvey's accounts. Further advice from Guelph sets this rumor at rest, and fully acquits the late Mayor of any connection whatever with the Treasurer's misdeeds. It is beyond doubt that Mr. Smith's death was due to natural causes, and all who knew him know that it would have been impossible for a man of his strict integrity to connive at any improper disposition of public funds.

Ex-Treasurer Harvey's Arrest.

With reference to the arrest of ex-Treasurer Harvey, a gentleman called at The World office on Sunday night, announcing himself as C. L. Nelles, a Guelph bookseller, who produced a document signed by three news vending firms in Guelph, intending himself. He stated that he had visited the offices of The Globe and Mail and that the editors of both journals had agreed to suppress the story of the ex-Treasurer's arrest that morning. Mr. Neles also stated that the telegraph companies had been so fixed that no news regarding the arrest would be sent out. The World, not knowing the facts of the case, also went blank on the item until the sensational story which appeared in The World yesterday came out in The Hamilton Spectator.

Signed it by Misapprehension.

The World received a communication from a leading citizen of Guelph, which states: "On Saturday C. S. Nelles got a petition signed by some merchants here to get the Toronto papers not to publish anything with reference to the arrest of E. Harvey, late Treasurer. Now, in speaking with some of the signers, they claim they did not understand the circumstances or would not have signed it. T. J. Day is one I can mention. Now, there was never such a bald affair in Canada as this. The newspapers won't publish the facts. Just come and talk among the citizens and get their opinions. You would be astonished. It is worth your while to look into this case and get the facts, which are plenty and further reaching than you have any idea of. It is the worst case that ever happened in Canada."

Other statements are contained in the Guelph citizen's letter which it would not perhaps be desirable to publish just at this juncture.

Mr. Nelles Gets Angry.

But another letter was received at The World office last night. It was from Charles L. Nelles of Guelph, who admitted when in Toronto that he was one of Treasurer Harvey's bondsmen. It reads: Your word concerning my request having been broken without cause, to publish a most uncalled for attack on the late Mr. Smith and Mr. Harvey, and you not considering that your local business depends upon the support of Mr. T. J. Day, the Smith Co. and myself, who all signed the request, action will be entered against you from both parties, and the booksellers will jump on The World to the full extent of their powers, besides shutting it off the counter entirely, as was done to-day. (Signed) Charles L. Nelles.

Accompanying this was an order to cancel a number of copies of The World.

The World has no fear of the attempted boycott by Mr. Nelles. There are plenty of dealers who will sell The World to Guelphites who read it every morning.

The Charges Against Harvey.

The arrest of Mr. Harvey by Chief of Police Randall on Saturday, which Mr. Nelles was so anxious to suppress, was on information laid by Mayor Lamprey, who took this step after a consultation with Ald. Taylor, chairman of the Finance Committee, and the Town Solicitor. There are two charges against Mr. Harvey, one of taking $175.16 belonging to the city on March 9th, 1888, and the other of taking $10,000 on June 2, 1896. The latter sum is made up of various amounts discovered by Mr. Edwards and Mr. Powis, and reported to the council on the date mentioned. The total shortages so far revealed aggregate, it is said, over $15,000, but no definite statement can be obtained at present.

The ex-Treasurer was released on furnishing three sureties for a total of $6000 and the preliminary hearing has been set down for Saturday.

An Offer of Settlement.

Guelph Herald Yesterday.

The latest development in the financial investigation is the statement current to-day that Mr. Harvey's friends have offered to hand over to the city the full amount discovered by Auditor Edwards. The aggregate of the shortages, exclusive of the sums discovered by Auditor Powis, and already handed back to the city is about $13,000.

Auditor Edwards left for Toronto on Tuesday evening to prepare his final report. It is understood that Mr. E. F. B. Johnston, Q.C., has been retained by Mr. Harvey, and that Mr. Wallace Nesbitt will represent the city in the preliminary hearing on Saturday.

IT WILL SAVE $150,000

If Junction Bondholders Will Accept the Council's Offer for Interest,

Which Will Save the Town $20,000 This Year—Tax Rate Will Then be About 28 Mills—A New Era of Economy—Water Rates Increased and Electric Light Expenses to be Decreased—Other Junction News.

Toronto Junction, Aug. 19.—It looks as if a settlement of the debt for interest on general town debentures is in sight. At the special Council meeting to-night the matter was brought up in committee by Councillor Laughton, chairman of the Executive Committee, who has interviewed most of the bondholders, and believes that they will grant generous terms to the town. Those present at the meeting were: Mayor Clendinnan and Councillors Linton, Lovell, Rice, Gilbert, Gildike, Laughton and Bell.

The Bond Interest.

After a short discussion regarding the water bill by the Street Railway Company, which is not yet settled, the Council went into committee, and Councillor Laughton, on behalf of the Executive, went into the question of bond interest. He said the bondholders would like to get a written offer of what the Council could see their way to do. As matter stand at present, it is impossible to pay the 4½ per cent. interest on the debentures. An offer of 1 per cent. for this year's interest had been made, but it was not satisfactory. If the Council would offer 2 per cent. for the present year, 2½ per cent. for the next four years, and 3 per cent. for the following five years, Councillor Laughton though the offer would be entertained by the bondholders, and they would write off arrears at 2 per cent. for the present. This would necessitate a tax rate of 27 or 28 mills.

Bondholders Agreeable.

Councillor Rice said that Councillor Laughton's idea did not include the local improvement debt, on which full interest must be paid. However, there was no trouble anticipated regarding this year. Referring to the bondholders, Councillor Rice said that they were all agreeable to the terms imposed by Councillor Laughton, with the exception of Molsons Bank, but the latter would likely acquiesce. Should the bondholders agree to the reduced rate of interest, and it is considered likely that they will, it will mean a saving of $20,000 to the town this year, and over $150,000 over the whole period.

Taking a Turn for the Better.

Councillor Laughton said he had shown how at present the town was not in a position to pay the interest, and the bondholders had asked what reason the town had to expect to be able to pay in future. He had pointed out that at the end of five years the C.P.R. exemption would discontinue. There would also be a larger return from the waterworks and the G.T.R. assessment would be double. He had also pointed out that the Junction had had seven years of depression, and was now taking a turn for the better.

The Formal Resolution.

The following resolution was carried unanimously:

Moved by Councillor Rice, seconded by Councillor Bull: "That the Mayor, the chairman of the Executive Committee and the mover be a committee, with authority to make the following offer to the holders of general town debentures; that the payment of interest on general town debentures this year and the following nine years, be accordingly to the annexed schedule: For 1896, 2 per cent.; for 1897-8-9, 1900, 2½ per cent.; for 1901-2-3-4-5, 3 per cent."

Raised the Water Rate.

After the resolution had carried, Councillor Laughton reminded the Counvil that the Executive Committee had, in the event of their offer to the bondholders being accepted, promised th most rigid economy. This led to the passing of a resolution raising the water rate 10 per cent. and reducing the discount 10 per cent., and, in order to further save expenditure, the electric lights will be shut off at 1 a.m., and Superintendent Hardy will be instructed to dispense with one of his assistants at the end of next month. Other means of economy were suggested, and the Council adjourned.

Minor Items.

John McCabe, the self-accused Parkdale wife-beater, who gave himself up here, showed signs of mental derangement. His wife turned up to-day and took him home. The Public School Board did not have a quorum last night, so no meeting was held. The meeting will take place on Friday evening.

A warrant is out for Blake Mulqueen of Toronto, who said he was John Irwin, and hired a horse from Boyle's Livery stable. He illtreated the animal, and is to be brought to book for it.

Jack Farrel lives here, but doesn't come home often. When he does he gets into trouble and goes away again. If he can be found to-morrow he will have to answer a charge of threatening to do bodily harm to John Linton.

EAST OF THE CITY LIMITS.

Magistrate Ormerod Dismisses the Charge of Keeping a Vicious Dog.

The case of Young v. Troughton, steward of the Golf Club, for keeping a vicious dog, was continued last evening after two adjournments. At the last sitting, while defendant acknowledged that the dog, a St. Bernard, had bitten Young, no proof was produced showing that the animal had ever bitten anyone else. Last evening John Pickering, H. Pickering and John Clark were in court to prove the viciousness. The first witness testified that the dog rushed out at him, and he was going to hit it with his dinner pail, when the animal was called off. The next witness said that the St. Bernard ran up to him and then ran away, while John Clark gave evidence that he prevented the dog from biting him by stuffing a bag into its mouth. Magistrate Ormerod held that the evidence was not strong enough, and dismissed the case, without costs. Mr. W. Gow defended.

The last Toronto moonlight excursion, after flooding the village with music, made an enjoyable run to High Park and about the city.

J. Smith, who has been in training at the Ontario House for his fistic encounter with Pugilist Morrow at Hanlan's Point, left his quarters for the city yesterday.

A garden party will be held on Friday at the pretty grounds of Mr. F. W. Roberts, the proceeds to go to the Ladies' Aid Society of Emmanuel Church, East Toronto.

CANADIAN HORSES IN LONDON.

London, Aug. 19.—The Field this week expresses natural surprise and alarm over the large number of American horses which it says it has discovered "in our midst." During the past year no less than 10,000 American horses have been sold in London alone. A large number are used on omnibuses and street cars, but the Field adds: "The cabmaster and small dealer profess not to touch them, the former believing, and possibly rightly, that the majority of foreign horses are somewhat soft, while, as a rule, he declares that at his price he can get plenty of well-bred English horses, and that they do his work very well. The fact is, however, that there are almost as many American horses drawing cabs as American subjects riding them. After American and Canadian horses have changed hands at the hammer they are resold without anything being said as to their nationality. They get into the country and add to the difficulties and perplexities of the breeder."

The Premier Will Open the Fair.

A despatch was received from the Mayor yesterday, stating that Hon. Wilfrid Laurier had consented to visit Toronto and open the Industrial Exhibition. The Mayor also requested the City Engineer to proceed to Ottawa last evening, to join Ald. Preston and himself in waiting upon the Government respecting several matters which are under discussion.
