Induction of New Pastor.

The induction of the new pastor of St. Mark's Presbyterian Church, West Kingstreet, was accomplished last night by the Presbytery of Toronto. The pastor-elect, Rev. D. R. Robinson, late of Port Dallousle, was asked and approximately accomplished last night by the presbytery of Toronto.

try.

Chairman Spence, Inspectors Hughes and Chapman, Rev. Robert Atkinson and Trustees Hales, Davis, Miss Martin, Roden, Blayney Scott, S. Alfred Jones and R. S. Baird all made congratulatory addresses. Rev. Robert Atkinson thought it would be in the educational interests of the city to place ministers upon the School Board. Trustee Davis and other speakers to a lesser extent attacked Inspector Hughes for his system of adornment of schools with a view to the cultivation of art, and for his laxity in the dismissal of poor teachers.

Will Was Upheld.

In the Surrogate Court yesterday Judge Morgan gave judgment in the case of Miss Margaret Franklin and Mrs. Meiv'na Franklin, sister and widow, respectively of the late J. J. Franklin, at one time superintendent of the Toronto Street Railway Company. The judgment upholds the will, which divides all his estate equally between his two sisters, Margaret Franklin as his executrix. It also states that the issue raised by the widow were without foundation.

Plaintiff Got Judgment.

Before Judge Morgan yesterday Charles Norman of Kettleby sued Melvin Nelson
of Temperanceville for the sum of $61.17, said to be due him as the balance of the purchase money for the stock of general merchandise transferred to Nelson. The goods were sold en bloc, at 90 and 75 ceuts
on the dollar. Nelson says that the price of sale was placed definitely at $1158, for which notes have already been given. Judgment was given for the full amount of the claim.

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Annis
