

They All Come Back

There are fads in medicine as well as in other things," said a busy druggist, "but the most remarkable thing about Hood's Sarsaparilla is that customers who try other remedies all come back to Hood's, and this is why the enormous sales of this great medicine keep up while others come and go in a short time go out of sight entirely."

"Why is it?" "O, simply because Hood's Sarsaparilla has more real curative merit than any medicine I ever sold."

This is of daily occurrence in almost every drug store. Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured more sickness, and made more happiness through restoration to health than any other medicine.

London, Wednesday, Nov. 4.

Oats, per bu. 12 1/2 to 13 1/2
Peas, per bu. 10 1/2 to 11 1/2

Barley, per bu. 10 1/2 to 11 1/2
Beans, per bu. 10 1/2 to 11 1/2

Wheat has been steady all the week. The outside markets have fluctuated about as usual, but at the close we find the gain to be only slight.

Red wheat brought $1.27 to $1.30 on this market, and the gain to be only slight.

Oats were quite active for the greater part of the week, and the price was well maintained until the close, when they fell off about 2c per 100 pounds, and 80c to 85c for the closing price for new oats, with 50c for old.

Barley came in quite freely for this season of the year, and was in good demand. The range of prices was 45c to 50c as a rule.

Peas came in moderately well, and brought from 60c to 70c, the latter figure.

Corn was scarce, only one load offered, the price paid being 60c per 100 pounds, and the sample good.

Buckwheat was steady; the demand was not so keen as was expected; sales at 50c to 55c per 100 pounds, mostly the former.

Rye—Sales were made at 50c as a general thing; demand steady.

Very little business was done in beans owing to small receipts; 50c was paid for unpickled, 60c for prime, and 65c for hand-picked.

Eggs sold off in per dozen. There was a steady demand at 12c to 12 1/2 per dozen, by the basket. The supply increased a little over last week.

Butter did not show any alteration, and closed steady, at 12c to 14c, according to quality.

The demand for all kinds of meat seemed light, and trade was only fair, with no alteration in values.

Hides and skins were in good demand. The supply was good, but prices did not change any.

Very little trade was done in tallow.

Hay made a gain of 50c per ton during the first part of the week, and held steady to the advance all the way through, closing steady at $7.60 to $8.50.

Straw came in very irregularly—some days plenty and other days none. The usual prices were $2.50 to $3 per load.

Potatoes and other vegetables show little change since a week ago, the former being lower, if anything.

Live Stock Markets.

EAST BUFFALO, Nov. 3.—Cattle closed firm. Hogs closed steady. Sheep and lambs closed steady. Good Canada, all cows and weaners selling $1.15; common and bulky lots, $1.25 to $1.30.

CHICAGO.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—Cattle—Receipts, 800; nominal. Common to extra, $3.40 to $3.50; stockers and feeders, $2.50 to $3.70; cows and bulls, $1.40 to $2.50; calves, $2.50 to $3.50; hogs—Receipts, 6,000; firm and higher. Heavy packing and shipping lots, $2.30 to $2.50; common to choice mixed, $2.25 to $2.60; choice, $2.70 to $2.85; light, $2.30 to $2.50; pigs, $2.50 to $2.75.

Sheep—Receipts, 6,000; firm and higher.

Inferior to choice, $1.75 to $2.25; lambs, $2.50 to $3.00.

TORONTO CATTLE MARKET.

Toronto, Nov. 3.—Receipts at the western cattle yards today were light, but prices were no better. There were 53 carloads altogether, including 624 sheep and lambs, 1,300 hogs, 20 calves and springers, and a dozen calves. Buying of butchers' cattle for Montreal was slow, only seven carloads going through. In export cattle, trade was very drab, there being only a few dealers operating. Prices ruled from 1-1/2 to 3-1/4 c per pound, nothing worth speaking of going at 4c per lb. In butchers' cattle there was a pretty bad market.

Trade was quiet, and a good deal of poorer stuff never left the drovers' hands. The general run of prices was from 2-1/2 to 3c per lb. The latter for choice butchers. In stockers and feeders there was a weak tone, nearly everyone being fully supplied. Good feeders sold at from $2.50 to $2.75 per cwt, the ruling price, mostly for good stockers, being 2c per lb. Light stockers were not in much demand, and several were unsold. Bulls were a little quieter today. Export bulls sold at from 2-1/4 to 3-1/2 c per lb, the latter figure being seldom paid.

Only good a freight bulls brought 2-1/2 to 3c per lb. Quite a large quantity sold at 2-1/2 c per lb; others at 2-1/4 c per lb. A few at 3-1/4 c per lb.

Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 4,500; inquiry for choice shipping sheep at from $2 to $2.50 per cwt. Lambs were steady, the ruling figures being from 3c to 3-1/2 c per lb. For the very best sheep, picked out of fancy lots, prices ruled from 3-1/4 to 3-3/4 c per lb, for immediate export to the United States. Butchers' lambs and sheep are quiet, the former going at 3c per lb, and the latter at from $2.50 to $3 per head.

Cattle steady; prices ruled from $1 to $2 per head for good stockers. Offerings were light, and all sold early.

Milk cows and springers were selling well today, the market being decidedly firmer; nothing went lower than $30 per head. Choice cows are in demand.

Hogs steady; choice selections are holding firm, at 2-1/2 c per lb, weight taken off the cars. Prospects are for a firm market the next few days.

The Oil Markets.

PEORIA.
Peoria, Nov. 4.—Oil opened and closed at $1.00 today.

Midwestern, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Charles Horton, a wealthy and aged resident of this city, went to the polls and voted for McKinley.

He was the father of G. B. Horton, of Brooklyn, of the United States Steel Company.

BRIN, Nov. 4.—Mr. Bryan received the election returns at his home over a special wire. He maintained during the evening in his private room in the second story of his house, leaving the first floor to the voters, and the second to the family.

He had had many communications to make to them he would notify them. He spent the afternoon with his family, and was very little disturbed by callers.

ELECTIONS.
Lexington, Ky., Nov. 4.—About 20 flat lights occurred near the polls yesterday. The lights were in half of them. About 3 o'clock P. M. T. Farnsworth, managing editor of the Evening Post, was shot and killed.

The colonel is reported to have drawn his revolver, and to have fired at the assassin. The assassin was a man named John W. C. Breckinridge.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE.
The electoral votes of the McKinley States number 264; of the Bryan States, 119; of the doubtful States, 64; total, 447. Necessary to a choice, 224.

BULLETINS FROM DOUBTFUL STATES.
San Francisco, Nov. 4.—California gives 4,500 majority for McKinley.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 4.—Two hundred and thirty precincts outside of Omaha give McKinley 22,186; Bryan, 18,686. Two years ago: Republicans, 20,798; Democrats and Populists, 18,420.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 4.—In the northwestern part of the State snow fell, making the returns slow coming in. The Democratic and Republican committees claim the State by majorities of from 1,500 to 2,000. Early returns favor Bryan.

Portland, Oregon, Nov. 4.—Returns from the State of Washington indicate the success of Bryan electors, and the entire fusion State ticket, including two Congressmen.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 4.—Further returns show that Bryan has carried the State; that Taylor (Dem.) carried Governor; that 8 out of 10 representatives are Democrats, and that the Legislature is Democratic by a majority. An exceedingly large vote was polled.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.
The Chicago Times-Herald prints a table of the next House of Representatives, as follows: Total Republicans, 246; Democrats-Populists, 119; Anti-Silver Republicans, 232; Anti-Silver Democrats-Populists, 3; Republicans for silver, 3; Democrat-Populists for silver, 119; sound money majority, 119. The present complexion of the House is 224 Republicans, 106 Democrats, and 8 Populists, and 1 Silver Party.

The New York Tribune's estimate of the next Congress is as follows: Republicans, 242; Democrats, 119; Populists, 6; and 1 Silver Party.

AT MCKINLEY'S HOME.
Canton, Ohio, Nov. 4.—The fever of excitement into which Canton, the home of McKinley, was plunged last night was taken up again early this morning. In fact, there was no intermission, and last night was joined with today by an unbroken din of cheering and whistles, pulled out to their full capacity, and tooted in a variety of ways, and the corps marching and counter-marching, uniformed and ununiformed clubs parading, artillery companies shaking the town with cannon salutes, and the townspeople en masse joining in the demonstration of enthusiastic rejoicing over the result of the election.

KANSAS.
Topeka, Kansas, Nov. 4.—It seems practically certain that Bryan has carried Kansas by a small majority. Democrats claim State by 18,000, but Chairman Simpson, of the Republican State committee, declares that the complete returns will show a victory for the Republicans.

WASHINGTON.
Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 4.—The Bryan and Fusion State ticket have apparently carried the State by a majority of less than 5,000, and will control the Legislature.

CHAIRMAN JONES' CLAIM.
Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 4.—A telegram to Mr. Bryan from Chairman Jones says: "I all along counted on 156 southern votes, and 68 west of the Missouri River, which leaves 7 for us to get to be successful. I counted on Indiana, Michigan and Minnesota, and we have no information except what the press dispatches sent out, to the contrary. The only southern State I concede is Maryland."

KENTUCKY FOR MCKINLEY.
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 4.—Kentucky seems safe for McKinley, though the majority is close. In 1,253 precincts out of 1,600 his plurality is 3,596. The counties not heard from include strong Republican as well as silver counties. Based on a percentage of the votes already recorded, the gains would give the State to McKinley by 4,744.

NORTH CAROLINA.
Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 4.—Returns at 2 p.m. indicated that Bryan carries North Carolina by 10,000. Republicans will not yet concede the State.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

Yankton, S. D., Nov. 4.—Out of 30,000 votes cast and so far counted, McKinley has 1,500 majority. It is not impossible that Bryan may get a majority when all the votes are in.

OREGON.
Portland, Ore., Nov. 4.—Nearly three-fourths of the total vote of Oregon has been received. McKinley's plurality is 4,724. Precincts yet to be heard from will reduce McKinley's plurality perhaps to 3,000.

MISSOURI.
St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 4.—This morning less than half the election precincts of Missouri had been heard from. They show a lead for Bryan which justifies Chairman Cook's claim that the State has gone Democratic.

WEST VIRGINIA.
Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 4.—Returns from the State show Republican gains over 182, and there is little doubt the State has gone for McKinley.

Incidents.
Considerable excitement was occasioned at Twenty-ninth and Halsted streets, Chicago, where one of the polling places is located. It was discovered that a boy had died there of malignant diphtheria, during the night and morning of yesterday. The body was taken to the morgue, and was at once taken to move the polling place.

Specie from Ashland, Ky., says: "Tobe Stanley, a mine superintendent, was shot and fatally wounded on the way to the polls yesterday by Ike Barker, who put three bullets in his victim's abdomen. Stanley opened his eyes but could not speak. Family troubles were at the bottom of the fight."

VOTED, THEN DIED.
Middleton, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Charles Horton, a wealthy and aged resident of this city, went to the polls and voted for McKinley.

He was the father of G. B. Horton, of Brooklyn, of the United States Steel Company.

BRIN, Nov. 4.—Mr. Bryan received the election returns at his home over a special wire. He maintained during the evening in his private room in the second story of his house, leaving the first floor to the voters, and the second to the family.

BEFORE THE FOOTLIGHTS

Side-Track Thursday Night—James O'Neill as Monte Cristo—Human Hearts.

"SIDE-TRACKED." This popular scenic comedy-drama will appear at the Grand tomorrow night, with an excellent cast, and complete mechanical equipments. As the title of the play suggests, Horatio Xerxes Booth, the wanderer, becomes apparent because he is "side-tracked." The box-car in which he pursues his transcontinental peregrination is laid over at a siding, and he drops in upon events which lead up to a tragedy, in which he becomes a most important witness. The Boston Herald says of the performance there on Aug. 17: "Several specialties are introduced into the action of the play, and the scenery carried by the company is new and appropriate. The plot is well constructed, and affords opportunities to display in a natural manner the light and dark sides of life on the rail. There is enough in the play to attract every class of theatergoers, as was evidenced by the applause from every portion of the house. The mechanical effects deserve special mention."

JAMES O'NEILL AS MONTE CRISTO.

The eminent romantic actor, Mr. James O'Neill, comes to this city in a scenic revival of "Monte Cristo." For ten years he has appeared in Alexander Dumas' famous drama, and though he has played the part of Edmund Dantes over three thousand times, he has never missed a single performance. In the public's mind he has become so identified with the main character of Dumas' romantic tale, that he absolutely refuses to see any other actor attempt to portray the role that Mr. O'Neill created in this country. During his coming engagement at the Grand, on Monday, he will be supported by a select company. The scenery is all new, and the costumes are said to be correct and artistic.

"HUMAN HEARTS" ON TUESDAY.

If you would love to go back to the days of your childhood, when you had no other care but that of happy innocence and the love of a mother attending your every want, see Hal Reid's natural play, "Human Hearts," for in it, so all the critics of our great dailies say: "Mr. Reid has picked at every chord of the human heart with such a touch so tender, so thoroughly sweet that laughter and tears are combined so often that one scarcely knows which of the two are affecting him." Mr. Reid argues that people who go to the theater wish to see something which will be of benefit to them, and in this sweet, simple story of the Arkansas hills there is nothing but that will prove most entertaining.

THE FINANCIAL PULSE.

Affected by Yesterday's Treatment of the Silver Question.

New York, Nov. 4.—10-10 a.m.—The first trading done on the New York Stock Exchange after election was characterized by marked strength. The initial prices moved up from 2 to 4 per cent on railway shares, the latter being the most active. The Central 3 per cent on Western Union, Chicago Gas and Tobacco; 4 per cent on Minnesota Iron. New Jersey has since made an additional advance of 1 per cent to 1.10. Sugar opened with sales of 1,500 shares at 125 to 121 against the closing Monday night at 118-1-4. Silver opened 2 per cent off at 68, and declined an additional 1-2 per cent.

A Joyful Occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dibb, Celebrate Their Golden Wedding.

A Happy Gathering Honor the Worthy Couple—The Family Circle Broken by Death.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dibb, of 244 Horton street, yesterday celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage. To mark the attainment of half a century of happy wedded life, they were crowned with the congratulations of relatives and friends, who assembled at the homestead to do them honor. At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon a merry company sat around the festive board, and after a substantial repast, toasted the health of the worthy couple, with the greatest enthusiasm. Speeches were delivered, full of the kindest wishes, and the warmest sentiments towards Mr. and Mrs. Dibb. They received a charming array of presents as practical tokens of the great esteem and affection which they enjoy. The house was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums, and other floral beauties, and presented a very handsome appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. Dibb were wedded in Albany, N. Y., on Nov. 3, 1846. Rev. Father McDonough, of St. John's Church, the bridesmaid, Mr. Riley, of Albany, is still living. Mr. Dibb is a native of Hull, England, and Mrs. Dibb of Montreal. In 1846 they removed to Canada, settling in Westminister, where they remained until they located in London 24 years ago. The joyful event of yesterday was not saddened by the remembrance of death, the family circle remaining unbroken. The children are: David Dibb, of the London postoffice; Ed-ward Dibb, of the G. T. R.; Richard, William and James, of Chicago; Mrs. Mercer, of Imperial, Neb.; Mrs. Geo. Russell, of Denver, Col., and Miss Julia Dibb, at home.

Among the guests who joined in the celebration were: Mr. John Dibb, Derwent; Mrs. Martha Dibb, Derwent; Mr. and Mrs. Morrison, Sweden; Mr. and Mrs. Beattie, Derwent; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dibb, Belmont; Mr. and Mrs. John McClary, London township; Mrs. Chas. Manning, Derwent; Mrs. Brown, Strathroy; Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Spracklin, Mr. T. Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Flannery, Mr. and Mrs. Allison, and Mr. and Mrs. John Dalton, of London; Mr. and Mrs. John Dibb, jun., of Derwent; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Potts, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Conlon, and Miss Alice Hall, of Belmont.

That Mr. and Mrs. Dibb might long live to share the affections of the family, the tender regard of their friends, and the esteem of the entire community, and to celebrate many recurring anniversaries of their marriage, was the heartfelt wish of all.

Victor Herring, of Newbury, the little boy who broke his collar bone, is improving.

ALISA CRAIG.

Business Agent, C. Walker.

Alisa Craig, Nov. 3.—On Saturday night last some evil-disposed person or persons entered into Mr. Wm. Campbell's milk house and stole two crocks of butter and about 25 jars of preserved fruit. Mr. Campbell thinks it was some party who has been acquainted with the premises.
