Rugby Union Looks Like a Go Meeting Saturday at Toronto

Toronto, Sept. 8.—Jimmy Ray, captain of the Montreal football club; President Eddie O'Brien, of the Quebec Union; George Ballard, of the Hamilton Tigers, were in Toronto Saturday in connection with the forming of the new Inter-provincial Rugby Union, to comprise clubs from Hamilton, Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal. J. P. Baskerville will look after Ottawa's interests and W. A. Hewitt the Toronto faction.

The delegates discussed the proposition with great favor, and it is expected that the meeting tomorrow night will see the union a reality.

The executive of the Montreal football club has decided to join the proposed new league, to consist of Hamilton, Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal. The following conditions, however, have been decided upon: First, that the league must be purely amateur, with a registration system for the players, the president and secretary of each club to furnish affidavits certifying the amateur standing of the players. The other condition is that each club must pay its own traveling expenses, the home team to retain all gate receipts.

TIGERS WALLOP WHITE SOX IN RATTLING EXTRA INNING CONTEST

Detroit Rallies in the Eleventh and Bat in Three Runs.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 8.—After eleven innings of bitter battling, the Tigers were victorious over the White Sox this afternoon, six to three. In one of those old-time batting rallies they got to Walsh, and with the score tied, rapped in three runs. Eddie Siever was in for the Tigers, per schedule, but the Sox bumped him in one round and netted three tallies. It was just the one bad inning. But it nearly lost the game.

One run behind, Mullin went to bat in the eighth and this took Eddie out of the game. Mullin made a hit, but no run was scored in that inning. Victory might not have been for the Tigers if it had not been for the erratic catching of Hub Hart, who took his place behind the plate for the Sox as Bully Sullivan is laid up with a split thumb.

The Tigers made but one tally in the first owing to Bill Coughlin's double and Cobb's single. Sam Crawford added the second with a home run, but this left them one behind at the close of the eighth for the Sox had landed three as the result of a base on balls, two singles and a double.

But in the ninth Cobb doubled with one out. He made third on Rossman's out and came home when Hart let one of Walsh's spitters get through him.

With the opening of the eleventh the pennant chasers landed on Walsh. Jones singled to left, Coughlin singled, Crawford singled, and one run was in. Cobb hit one in front of the plate and Hart lost his head. He held the ball and then threw wild to first, Ty being safe and Coughlin scoring.

Downs singled to center and Crawford scored, but Cobb was nipped at the plate.

Another remarkable crowd was out to see the Tigers. Fully 20,000 people packed the grounds to witness the fight and the rooters' club as usual was strongly in evidence.

The game was marked with some remarkably good playing when the crowd is taken into consideration and is also brought out some poor playing.

Sam Crawford was again the star of the day with his hitting. The big fellow practically saved the day for the Tigers with his home run hit in the sixth that pulled the Sox within reaching distance. It was one of the longest drives ever hit on the local park. It went into the middle of the stand in the right field. Bill Coughlin and Ty Cobb were other factors in the Tiger hitting.

Coughlin opened up in the first round with a two-bagger to right. He made third on Crawford's out to Rohe and scored on Cobb's smash to left. Ty was caught off first and run down, retiring the side in this round.

Siever looked good when he started off and was not really bad in the inning they hit him—the fourth. Fielder Jones drew a base on balls. Donahue forced him, but Davis singled to left. Dougherty hit a short fly back of third and it bounded into the crowd near the foul line, going for a two-bagger. This let in Donahue. Rohe lined to Jones and Davis beat the throw to the plate.

Tannhill hit a scratch to O'Leary, the ball taking a false bound, but Dougherty scored on it and three runs were in. Two runs behind and with two out, Crawford made Tiger victory look more possible by banging out his home run.

The last time Toronto won a pennant was in 1902, under Manager Ed Barrow's master hand at the helm. It was a heart-breaking finish for the fans, though the Toronto had wrestled the leadership from Buffalo on July 31, when they defeated Newark 4-2, while Worcester trimmed the Buffalo three times in a string.

The Herd had been leading since the first week in July, when they wrestled the leadership from the Leafs, and even after the Canucks did get the lead, the Bisons clung on grimly, and there never was more than 10 or 15 points between the leaders. Usually it hovered around the 10-point mark, where a win for Buffalo and a double loss for Toronto would have placed the men from the Pan-American City on top of the heap.

"Say," the Indian finally said, tugging at Bonnah's sleeve, "you won't have quite such a swelled head now after Coley beating you."

Bonnah laughed. "I never had a swelled head," he said.

"Yes, you had," insisted Tom, "after you beat me."

A Russian Journal tells the army of how the murderer of General Lunin, prefect of St. Petersburg, obtained admission to the semi-official party at which the deed was committed. After the crime all the guests were detained and their tickets were examined. There was one ticket the rightful owner of which was not present. It was no other than that of Premier Stolypin himself. The murderer was committed under cover of the invitation ticket of no less a personage than the Prime Minister. Premier had not been able to go and his ticket fell into the hands of a member of the secret police named Zolopahad, and adds that it is unfortunate that Mr. Dickinson's bill could not be referred to the secret arbitration of Premier and Thummin. The same Journal mentions that one of the pioneers of the women's suffrage movement in America was a Jewess, Mrs. Ernestine L. Rose, who addressed meetings as early as in 1838. She attended the famous "Bloomer" convention at Syracuse in 1852.

LONGBOAT SCARED

It's funny to hear Tom Longboat tell about his mile in relay race with the Irish-Canadians and the Garrison. It was even up until Longboat took up the last mile with Selby. The Indian started out at a terrific clip, and at the end of a lap had a hundred yards on Selby. Then the Garrison shoved in a couple of new men.

"What dammit all," said the red-skin, after the race, "I started out with a little fellow with white pants and a red and white jersey. I ran fast for a lap and a quarter, and then I looked around to see how the little chap was coming along, and right there to my shoulder was a great big six-footer in blue pants and a white jersey. Dammit all, I thought I had fallen asleep and the other fellow had growed up. Then I ran him awhile, and when I look around again there's another little fellow in some other colored clothes. My eyes never were very strong, and I think I've gone color blind. I feel like I'm a little white, until they tell me what was up. That's not a fair deal to scare me like that."

Those Who Earn Their Own

Living Are Barred From Competing in England.

The attitude of the English Olympic officials in ruling that no oarsman who earns his own living can be considered an amateur means there will be no American or Canadian entries to worry the Britishers in the scull events.

The same ruling applied to all branches of athletics would mean Uncle Sam would send no teams to compete in the next Olympics, and a possible chance for England to win something besides international tennis laurels.

KELLEY WANTED

BY NEW YORK

Toronto, Sept. 7.—The Star says:

It transpires now that a number of other National and American League clubs were after Manager Joe Kelley, of the Toronto Club, by the draft system, but that Boston Nationals were first in their claim.

Following President Dorey's announcement comes the report that New York Americans are likely to enter into a deal with Boston to secure Kelley. This is followed up by another rumor that if Kelley is secured he is booked to succeed Clark Griffith as the manager of the Yankees next season.

Kelley's remarkable success here this season, where he made a record-winning team out of a tail-end aggregation, brought him out prominently as a player of extraordinary managerial ability, which attracted the attention of major league magnates.

Kelley, by his work on the diamond, also demonstrated that he is far from being in the "has-been" class, and is still capable of playing ball of big league quality. Kelley has been especially valuable to the Maple Leafs this season, because of his heavy batting and his ability to play the different positions. During the season he has played every position on the team, with the exception of catcher.

INDIAN REMEMBERED

Going to Buffalo Monday Tom Longboat and George W. Bonnah, who was beaten Saturday by Tom Coley, of the Irish-Canadians, were traveling companions.

Tom smoked and gazed at Bonnah thoughtfully a while. He has no love for Bonnah ever since Bonnah beat him three miles in 14:43 at Buffalo indoors.

"Say," the Indian finally said, tugging at Bonnah's sleeve, "you won't have quite such a swelled head now after Coley beating you."

Bonnah laughed. "I never had a swelled head," he said.
