FOSTER-TANNER.

The marriage of Miss Alice May Tanner, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tanner, Plumstead, England, to Mr. Robert Foster, Toronto, took place very quietly at St. James' Cathedral on Monday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Warren. The bride, who was given away by the groom's cousin, Mr. H. A. Wilson, was attired in a pretty empire gown of champagne voile, trimmed with glace silk and lace. She wore a trimmed pearl bracelet and crescent to match, gifts of the groom, and carried a shower of roses and carnations. Her sole atendant was Mrs. H. A. Wilson, who wore an empire grown of sage. Wishart, Mr. R. A. Pyne, Mr. J. J. green, with silk trimmings, and a large Foy. Mr. Arthur W. Hughes, Mr. D. grey hat, adorned with green feathers, and a gold locket set with diamonds, the groom's gift. Mr. Walter W. Bambett, who acted as best man, and Mr. H. A. Wilson wore gold pins set with pearls, gifts from the groom. A reception was held at 206 Queen-street. Later Mr. and Mrs. Foster left for

I first tried various household remedies, but as these waved allowather weekers. first tried various household remedies, but as these proved altogether useless, I took medical advice. Not one, but several doctors in turn were consulted, but I was unable to get any permanent relief. Some time back I determined to give Zam-Buk a trial, and after a thoroughly fair test, I can say I am delighted with it. I have the best reasons for this conclusion; because, while everything I tried failed absolutely to relieve my pain and rid me of my trouble, three boxes of Zam-Buk have worked a complete cure. In my opinion this balm should be even more widely known than it is."

It was Mr. Hamilton who discovered the big vein on the Hudson Bay mine, over which he now has a lawsuit pending. It was Mr. Hamilton who, the other day, sold properties in Gowganda and Miller Lake people for $33,000. And as the things were not coming fast enough, Mr. Hamilton happened to be the man who staked a claim on which the townsite of Gowganda was located. The government settled with Mr. Hamilton on the basis of one-third of the cash receipts from the sale of town lots. No miner in the north has more confidence in the future of Gowganda than Mr. Hamilton, and few men know the resources better. "The element of doubt that exists in the formations at other camps has no place here," he said. "The veins disclosed on the Bartlett, Reeve, Mann, Boyd and all these well-killwn properties will go down, down to a depth that is beyond the ability of human methods to reach. The assurance rests in the fact that the veins are all in the liabase, which is the eruptive rock and source of the silver.
