

Dear Boys:

We are immensely pleased with your generous response to our efforts to supply your clothing needs with the most up-to-date clothing procurable. We are also glad so many of you secured one of those splendid watches we are giving away, and if any of your boy chums haven't bought their new clothes vet, tell them about us and the watches. We have another shipment of the watches in, and one coming, so that we expect to have enough to last till the 24th, about which date we will stop giving them away. We give one absolutely free with every suit or overcoat from $5.00 up. We are showing all the little kinks of fashion so dear to the hearts of boys, and have a selection of patterns and styles not equaled by any house this side of New York City. We've a price range to please everyone from $3.50 to $15. Don't forget to tell your boy friends to come here, and don't forget to mention the splendid watch that goes free with every Suit or Topper.

Mr. Spera Says He is Angry.

R. B. Spera, foreman of the Kinrade jury, is displeased because his letter to the attorney-general was given out for publication. "I think it is pretty small potatoes to give out a private ommunication such as that." he said this morning. It was said that Coroner Anderson had received a letter from George Tate Blackstock, K. C. giving some information as to the Opinion of plans of the government, but the coroner says that it was a private communication simply expressing apprec iation of his courtesy and assistance during the inquest. House-cleaning operations were commenced to-day at the Kinrade home, much of the bedding, etc., being burned. The Herald editorially to-night says: 'Without knowledge of the nature of the report of the medical experts, it would be unfair to find fault with the inaction of the crown. The Herald is
