

NO FURTHER LEGISLATION

Will Be Sought For by Mgr. Merry del Val.

ECCLESIASTICS MAY WAIT

But the Manitoba School Law Will Be Left As It is at Present.

Mgr. Langvin of St. Boniface, Report Says, Will Have to Submit-There is Going to Be Some Fun in Connection With the Champlain Election-Will Premier Laurier Present Himself at the Feet of the Pape Before Returning to Canada?

Montreal, June 7.—(Special)—Important news reached here to-day regarding Mgr. Merry del Val and the Manitoba school question in general, and when the facts come officially to light there will be weeping and wailing in Canada, more so than in any other part of the world.

The Premier of Manitoba will grant no further concessions to the Roman Catholic minority in that Province, but he has given Hon. Mr. Laurier and Mgr. Merry del Val to understand that the law will be administered a good deal more liberally than the contract would seem to justify. This, it seems, is the only way Mr. Greenway can satisfy the ultra free school element in his government, and at the same time do a little something for his leader at Ottawa and Mr. Tarte.

The Pope's representative has, it appears, made up his mind that from His Excellency's point of view it is wise to make the best of a bad bargain, and has no other end in view but to pave the way for a complete acceptance of the Manitoba school law by the faithful of that Province. It is well understood, however, that His Grace of St. Boniface is going to kick like the proverbial steed, but Mgr. Merry del Val, after talking in the whole situation, has come to the conclusion that any further agitation of the school question, either on the part of Quebec or St. Boniface, will lead to a war of races and credits in Canada, and this, not falling to further jeopardize the Catholic position in other matters, will be sternly frowned down by the delegate and his superior at the Vatican. In other words, the young diplomat from Rome has decreed that there must be an eternal truce, and that the Catholics must look to the generous instincts of the majority of the people in Manitoba for the preservation of their privileged rights. As a matter of fact the appointment of a Roman Catholic representative on the school board and a good increase in the staff of Catholic teachers and inspectors throughout the Province of Manitoba enters into the ablegate's plan of pacification. The question arises, however, as to what will be done with the Archbishop of St. Boniface, for who seems settled in the minds of those who are in the secrets of this Greenway-Merry del Val diplomacy, that in order to spare His Grace any humiliation that he might feel, the good Archbishop could be removed to another diocese. It is, however, Mgr. Langvin's opinion that the new order of things His Grace will be allowed to carry on his good work within the shadows of St. Boniface Cathedral.

There's Going to Be Fun in Connection with the Champlain election, and it looks as if the petitioners would meet the same fate of the men who tried to deprive Mr. Laurier of his seat for St. Boniface. Dr. Marcotte, the elect of the county, on the 22nd of June last, having been unseated, was re-elected, yet the Liberals are not satisfied and have contested the election the second time. Two, however, can play at this game, and Dr. Marcotte's advocates, might have contested the election the second time, and Dr. Marcotte's advocates, might have contested the election the second time, and Dr. Marcotte's advocates, might have contested the election the second time.

Minister of Public Works Says It is Paired Down the Whole Liberal Machine Will Go Down.

Montreal, June 7.—(Special)—Political rumors of a very interesting nature were discussed here to-day, and they appear to be in connection with the departure of Hon. Wilfrid Laurier for England and the anti-Tarte movement amongst the Liberal members from the Montreal district referred to some time since in this correspondence. There can be no doubt that such a movement exists, and it is quite likely that it will be made felt before the close of the session at Ottawa. Hon. Mr. Tarte has known for many days past that a dozen or more of Mr. Laurier's supporters from the Province of Quebec have been thoroughly cognizant of their intentions. We do not intend to stab in the back any of these gentlemen to "The World." "Our work will be carried on honestly and above board."

Mr. Charles Marcell of The Star, who ran against Hon. Mr. Flynn in Gaspe, has been selected as the Liberal candidate in the Magdalen Islands, and stands a good chance of being returned by acclamation. No less than 117,755 pilgrims visited Ste. Anne de Beaupre during 1896.

MOULTON COLLEGE

Successful Performance of the Cantata "Gitanella"—Commencement Exercises.

The opening of the Moulton College school yesterday afternoon made the Moulton College girls look ruefully from their windows, because great preparations had been made for the cantata "Gitanella," to be given that evening, and they feared the desertion of those friends who had been invited to listen to their performance. Many, however, were present, and showed their appreciation in hearty applause. The school room of Bloomsbury Baptist Church was attractively decorated for the occasion, and when the girls, attired in white, ascended the platform it was a refreshing sight, for there are many pretty maidens at Moulton. Everyone thought the opening chorus most appropriate:

"Sing, pretty maiden, The lullaby of Spain; Sing of love and beauty, Power or tested pain; Sing, sweet Maritana, The melody of Spain; Sing, sweet Maritana, Sing that song again; Sing, Gitanella, sing that song again."

The soloists, besides the director, Miss Mary H. Smart, who carried through admirably her important role, were Miss Lena Burke, soprano, and Miss Helen Hoffman, contralto. Miss Burke is a first year student, and Miss Hoffman a fine voice and good training.

The concert program was brief, but very excellent. The singing of two parts, by Misses Little and Agnes Nicholas, and Miss Lena Burke, was particularly good. Life's Lullaby, by Miss Lena Burke, was particularly good. Life's Lullaby, by Miss Lena Burke, was particularly good.

Miss Abbie Helmer was a good accompanist. This evening the department of election will furnish the program, to be held before friends of the college the fine training of the students.

On Thursday evening the public commencement exercises will take place, when the prizes will be awarded, after which the girls will not object to being free for the summer holidays, earned by a conscientious term's work.
