

WE begin to-day the last week of November, and personally we're going to complete a record month of fur sales. Unstinted patronage has come our way and we attribute it to this: Never before have we shown such splendid lines of beautiful fur garments. We never had in our vaults such a priceless collection of pelts.

You must call if you are interested in good furs. If you intend to purchase you can't get beyond our doors.

These few items were picked at random from our catalogue:

No. 29-Mink Boa, one stripe, four skins, double fur around neck to heads, tabs lined with satin . . $45 No. 26-Mink Tie, two stripes around neck to waist, two whole skins at each end, with heads, tails and paws; satin lined to waist, double fur$80
