

THRU

red hair and began that she felt Alice said, "Do you grandmother to Well, I'm young today at least. Al-years older than so much younger,

ok after you."

if, Alice smiled a ought to look at so small and so both love each said simply, "But I'm a generation believe you when

But the romantic st love still hangs does about other on sense tells you of worthy of you away from you.
a perfectly ador-
dial Fairy Prince, hat's nice because do so many lovely nes the first man,

beginning to doubt Fairy Prince. My
is to prove it. One is to see this at prove?" Alice

after an absence ars did you say?
ugh to have solutions if they were nk, you've had so nces to give you a on life? You'll David quite an er after all, and will have all the ain.

find it out now,
the case?" Chris-
y. It's cowardly

slaring thru the sue turned—
"I wonder"
a sudden laugh,
the bed.
an capitulate!" she an shall wear that fin, and the gray
ap that makes you
You must look very sophisticated possessed for this —David.

TER DARK
T IN MANILLA

Are Attracted to nted Tracks.

y 3.—Horse racing
some popular here ords to the electric except during the
June to October,
eld here.

m. until 11 p.m. on very month and except during the
June to October,
eld here.

native ponies from Belmont, except for ed from Australia.
are so small that st be strapped up dragging on the

that was discovered a or native cab
d by his present red with having es on the track $125 to $1,000 for

IBITED.

By The Canadian
an publication, eu-which was bannals in Feb-on the prohibiwards (Frontenac)
e commons this ent

ks capacities on

Company

TO STREET

TORONTO

ST ST.

AVE.

s, and thirty

the beautiful

Hill Road—

mining, corner

large lots attractive on

ULD: first of purchase supervision light, good ny. Bank of Superin-

JOHN CATTO CO. LIMITED

218-219 Yonge St. Corner Shuter St.

Make a Noteworthy Display of

Washable Dress Fabrics

Every fashionable weave will be found in our fine assortment of stock, comprising a choice range of handwoven

PRINTED COTTON VOILES.

In floral and other conventional designs in wide choice of colors in light, medium and dark shades, also plain colored voiles in beautiful range of summer shades.

GINGHAMS.

In this line we are prepared to meet your requirements with such a wide collection of plaids, checks and stripes, and obtainable in such a variety of designs and colors that customers will have little difficulty in making a choice.

We also show a full range of colors in plain chambrays.

LINEN SUITINGS.

Fashionable for either summer suits, tailored dresses or separate skirts. We show all the principal summer shades.

OTHER FASHIONABLE WEAVES.

Of which we make a special display of striped, checked, Swiss muslins, printed and plain cotton crepes, white gabardines, plaques, lawns, etc.

VIVETTA FLANNELS.

Unequaled for ladies' and gents' day and night wear. Shows a big range of stripes and checks in every conceivable shade.

Mail Orders Promptly Filled.

JOHN CATTO CO. LIMITED

TORONTO.

THE WEATHER

Observatory, Toronto, May 3.—(3 p.m.)

—The barometer is now high over the Great Lakes, and relatively low both east and west. A few local showers have occurred today in Saskatchewan and in the St. Lawrence Valley, while elsewhere the weather has been fine.

The temperature has been higher in Manitoba and Ontario.

Minimum and maximum temperatures: Prince Rupert, 46-48; Victoria, 40-54; Vancouver, 46-52; Kamloops, 38-48; Calgary, 35-42; Edmonton, 35-42; Medicine Hat, 30-54; Prince Albert, 34-46; Moose Jaw, 34-50; Regina, 35-53; Winnipeg, 30-52; Pelly, 30-52; London, 32-56; Toronto, 36-53; Kingston, 36-43; Ottawa, 36-58; Montreal, 36-52; Quebec, 34-42; St. John, 32-44; Halifax, 32-44.

Probabilities:

Lower Lakes and Georgian Bay and Ottawa Valley and Upper St. Lawrence—Moderate winds; fair, with a little higher temperature.

Lower St. Lawrence, Gulf and North Shore—Moderate winds; fair and cool.

Maritime Provinces—Fresh northwest winds; a few scattered showers; but mostly fair and cool.

Lake Superior—Light winds; fine and mild.

Manitoba—Easterly winds; mostly fair and mild; a few light local showers.

Saskatchewan and Alberta—Fair and mild.

THE BAROMETER.

Time. Ther. Bar. Wind.

5 a.m. 47. 23.77 9 N.

Noon. 62. 23.88 10 N.W.

2 p.m. 62. 23.88 10 N.W.

5 p.m. 47. 23.65 9 N.W.

8 p.m. 47. 23.66 9 N.W.

Mean of day, 46; difference from average, 1 below; highest, 58; lowest, 36.

STEAMER ARRIVALS.

Steamers. At. From

Pres. Wilson. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

Vasari. New York. Liverpool

SIMPSON ADMITS STATEMENTS, BUT CLAIMS PRIVILEGE

Ten-Thousand-Dollar Action by Arthur O'Leary Against Editor Opens.

Editor Opens.

NO DELAY ALLOWED

Evidence in the action for $10,000 damages for alleged slander, raised by Arthur E. O'Leary against James Simpson, editor of The Industrial Banner, was started before Mr. Justice Middleton and a jury yesterday afternoon.

According to plaintiff's statement of claim, he alleges "that on August 7, 1919, at a meeting of the Toronto District Labor Council, which was largely attended both by delegates thereof and by the public and by reporters representing various newspapers in the city of Toronto, which meeting was held in the Labor Temple, the defendant falsely and maliciously wrote, printed, published and spoke of and concerning the plaintiff in the way of his position or calling, the words following: 'To the officers and delegates of the Toronto District Labor Council. Information of a startling character revealing serious acts of disloyalty to this council and its affiliated organizations on the part of two former officers of this council has been imparted to a number of men in the labor movement of Toronto. This information discloses evidence that the time when A. E. O'Leary and W. J. Hevey were occupying the positions of president and secretary of this council, respectively, they made application to the employers' association for a secret gift or bonus of $5000, with which to treacherously serve the interests of the employers, while appearing to represent the interests of labor, and with which to attempt the ruin of the official labor paper of this city. Such proposals came from the president and secretary of the District Labor Council to the Employers' Association can only be regarded as an act of treason to the organized labor movement of Toronto. The action of these two men will stand out as one of the most serious betrayals of trust that has ever been recorded in the trades union history in this Dominion.'"

Plaintiff Cross-Examined.

Witness admitted that he had gone to Ottawa in the company of Gen. Gunn; he had a chat with him in the National Club; he was present at one meeting in St. George's Hall when Gen. Gunn was present. He introduced the general on the instructions of the council. "I have no connection with the most cut-throat with the allied trades," General Gunn had gone to witness in connection with the butchers' trouble.

"I told him if anyone came to me I always called a conference. You are taking it wrong if you say I was intimate with General Gunn. The first time he had met the general was in connection with the Salvation Army campaign two years ago. During all that time he never discussed a syllable with Gunn as to labor movement. Witness went to Ottawa with Gunn at the request of Mayor Church, and said he did not discuss with him the eight-hour day question. He had no knowledge of an alleged meeting, at which Gunn was supposed to have made a statement."

At the meeting on Aug. 7, witness was asked if he attached any importance to the rounds of applause which greeted Simpson, and replied that he supposed it was because he was the champion. It seemed to witness that someone knew that something was coming. The applause was not general. He could not check on them. The money was placed in the bank these two could have drawing accounts. They were to have absolute freedom. He was to be on check on them. On two questions asked, witness said that it was mentioned that there were two labor factions in Toronto and this proposed newspaper would be split out as the present one was progressive.

Q. "Was there any mention made of the control of the policy of the labor movement?"

A. "Gunn spoke of O'Leary and Hevey as being moderate labor men, and the interests of the employers would be looked after. He said they could be trusted, and advocated the giving of this grant." Witness recognized Thomas Roden as the man who was with Gunn. Roden addressed the meeting and said he considered O'Leary and Hevey the right men in the right place. Witness said that after Gunn and Roden left the meeting there was a discussion and these present speakers entirely opposed to the grant. They considered it would be poor policy. It could not be kept quiet. Some members had suggested that subscriptions could be given immediately.

To Get Simpson.

Witness said that someone remarked that they were going to get Simpson. They were going to get control of the stock of The Industrial Banner, which paper Simpson was the manager. "I told Simpson practically what I have stated here," said the witness, and gave a sworn statement to the effect that he was the manager of O'Leary and Hevey were used several times at the meeting held when Gunn spoke. There is no doubt that the names were used."

Cross-examined by Mr. Ferguson, witness said he considered he was justified in telling Simpson of what had occurred at the meeting. Gunn had said that one of the two had an account in the Home Bank. In witness' affidavit he suggested that the Home Bank on O'Leary's word that he had no account in the Home Bank. He did not know O'Leary or Hevey before, and he was not a canvasser being made. Q. "In your affidavit you state that O'Leary and Hevey made a canvass of the manufacturers personally and received a considerable number of cheques of considerable amounts each, some cheques going at least as high as $500?" A. "This cheque should not have been included in my affidavit. I do not know Simpson very well."

In re-examination witness said that everything in his affidavit, with the exception of the last clause, was true. In regard to that clause he told Simpson's lawyer that he had heard of such a thing. He did not know of his own knowledge that the man referred to had made the statement.

At the conclusion of Davis' testimony the court adjourned until today at 10 o'clock, new time.

Before noon from the bench, Mr. Justice Middleton requested the plaintiff, defendant and their counsel to confer with him in his private room, and the conference was for the purpose of bringing the parties together.

Mayor Church and General Sir Charles Townshend photographed at the city hall yesterday on the occasion of the civic reception to the Kut-el-Amara hero.

defendant made the speech at the Labor Temple on August 7 last, there would be between 150 and 200 present, including non-union men and reporters. Asked what tone of voice defendant employed when making the statement, witness replied, "Very emphatic." Immediately after the reading of the statement, there were shouts of "Hang O'Leary," "Shoot O'Leary." The effect of the statement was to put him in a very bad light in the labor movement, and he had been given a wide berth by many of the men. Plaintiff emphatically denied the truth of the statement made by defendant. He had not spoken to Gen. Gunn on the subject; he had nothing to do with promoting the new labor paper, and had never made the proposition alleged.

Plaintiff Cross-Examined.

Witness admitted that he had gone to Ottawa in the company of Gen. Gunn; he had a chat with him in the National Club; he was present at one meeting in St. George's Hall when Gen. Gunn was present. He introduced the general on the instructions of the council. "I have no connection with the most cut-throat with the allied trades," General Gunn had gone to witness in connection with the butchers' trouble.

"I told him if anyone came to me I always called a conference. You are taking it wrong if you say I was intimate with General Gunn. The first time he had met the general was in connection with the Salvation Army campaign two years ago. During all that time he never discussed a syllable with Gunn as to labor movement. Witness went to Ottawa with Gunn at the request of Mayor Church, and said he did not discuss with him the eight-hour day question. He had no knowledge of an alleged meeting, at which Gunn was supposed to have made a statement."

At the meeting on Aug. 7, witness was asked if he attached any importance to the rounds of applause which greeted Simpson, and replied that he supposed it was because he was the champion. It seemed to witness that someone knew that something was coming. The applause was not general. He could not check on them. The money was placed in the bank these two could have drawing accounts. They were to have absolute freedom. He was to be on check on them. On two questions asked, witness said that it was mentioned that there were two labor factions in Toronto and this proposed newspaper would be split out as the present one was progressive.

Q. "Was there any mention made of the control of the policy of the labor movement?"

A. "Gunn spoke of O'Leary and Hevey as being moderate labor men, and the interests of the employers would be looked after. He said they could be trusted, and advocated the giving of this grant." Witness recognized Thomas Roden as the man who was with Gunn. Roden addressed the meeting and said he considered O'Leary and Hevey the right men in the right place. Witness said that after Gunn and Roden left the meeting there was a discussion and these present speakers entirely opposed to the grant. They considered it would be poor policy. It could not be kept quiet. Some members had suggested that subscriptions could be given immediately.

To Get Simpson.

Witness said that someone remarked that they were going to get Simpson. They were going to get control of the stock of The Industrial Banner, which paper Simpson was the manager. "I told Simpson practically what I have stated here," said the witness, and gave a sworn statement to the effect that he was the manager of O'Leary and Hevey were used several times at the meeting held when Gunn spoke. There is no doubt that the names were used."

Cross-examined by Mr. Ferguson, witness said he considered he was justified in telling Simpson of what had occurred at the meeting. Gunn had said that one of the two had an account in the Home Bank. In witness' affidavit he suggested that the Home Bank on O'Leary's word that he had no account in the Home Bank. He did not know O'Leary or Hevey before, and he was not a canvasser being made. Q. "In your affidavit you state that O'Leary and Hevey made a canvass of the manufacturers personally and received a considerable number of cheques of considerable amounts each, some cheques going at least as high as $500?" A. "This cheque should not have been included in my affidavit. I do not know Simpson very well."

In re-examination witness said that everything in his affidavit, with the exception of the last clause, was true. In regard to that clause he told Simpson's lawyer that he had heard of such a thing. He did not know of his own knowledge that the man referred to had made the statement.

At the conclusion of Davis' testimony the court adjourned until today at 10 o'clock, new time.

Before noon from the bench, Mr. Justice Middleton requested the plaintiff, defendant and their counsel to confer with him in his private room, and the conference was for the purpose of bringing the parties together.

er could not be ascertained. No statement was vouchsafed by either of the parties.

TWO MEN KILLED BY NITRO BLOW-UP

Portion of Plant of Explosives Co. at McMaisterville, Que., is Wrecked.

Montreal, May 3.—Two men, James Morin and John Landrigan, were killed and a Grand Trunk train in motion was stopped when five tons of nitro-glycerine exploded at the plant of the Canadian Explosive Company, at McMaisterville, Quebec, at noon today. The portion of the plant containing the nitro-glycerine and in which Morin and Landrigan were working, was entirely destroyed.

The Grand Trunk train was proceeding across a bridge over the Richelieu River, nearly a mile away, and was stopped by the force of the wind caused. All the windows in the train were smashed. The cause of the explosion is not known.

Squall Hits Motor Boat; Coastguardsmen Drowned

Portsmouth, N.H., May 3.—Three members of the coastguard crew at Appledore Island were drowned late today when their 80-foot motor sailing launch was struck by a squall and sank. They were Reginald G. Chesterton and Leo E. Foss, both of Jonesport, Me., and Sherman Parker of Cape Elizabeth, Me. Elmer Almy, the fourth man in the boat was rescued.

The coastguardsmen had come to this city for a supply of gasoline.

Mother and Son, Cobalt Pioneers; Both Die Within Ten Days

Cobalt, May 3.—Matthew O'Farrell, whose mother, Cobalt's oldest resident, died here ten days ago at the age of 98, has followed her to the grave. He died in hospital here, and his morning was buried beside his mother in the Roman Catholic Cemetery here. He was over 60 years of age and unmarried. Mother and son made their home together for many years.

KNOWN THEIR DENOMINATION.

London, April 17.—A policeman giving evidence at Willesden police court against a man charged with begging said he had seen the prisoner stop "oldest Prosebyrians."

asked the magistrate.

"How did you know their religion?"

"They were passers-by," answered the policeman.

"You mean they were pedestrians?"

"That's the word, sir," said the witness.

OSGOODE HALL NEWS

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Judge's Chambers, Tuesday, 4th inst., at 11 a.m. (Daylight Saving Time).

Second Divisional Court.—Peremptory list for Tuesday, 4th inst., at 11 a.m. (daylight saving time): Parlow v. L. R. R.; Paton v. Fillion; Parry v. Parry; Schmidt v. Wilson; Wiskrowski v. S. J. J.; Oliver v. Frank; Cannings; Garson v. Empire Mfg. Co.

Judgments will be delivered at the opening of court in Walker at 11 a.m. by: Orford v. Orford.—S. J. Birnbaum, for plaintiff, moved for delivery of judgment in one week. Costs to plaintiff.

Howson v. Porcelain Products, Ltd.—T. H. Barton, for plaintiff, moved for judgment in one week. Costs to plaintiff.

Orford v. Orford.—S. J. Birnbaum, for plaintiff, moved for delivery of judgment in one week. Costs to plaintiff.

Orford v. Orford.—S. J. Birnbaum, for plaintiff, moved for delivery of judgment in one week. Costs to plaintiff.

Orford v. Orford.—S. J. Birnbaum, for plaintiff, moved for delivery of judgment in one week. Costs to plaintiff.

Orford v. Orford.—S. J. Birnbaum, for plaintiff, moved for delivery of judgment in one week. Costs to plaintiff.

Orford v. Orford.—S. J. Birnbaum, for plaintiff, moved for delivery of judgment in one week. Costs to plaintiff.

Orford v. Orford.—S. J. Birnbaum, for plaintiff, moved for delivery of judgment in one week. Costs to plaintiff.

Orford v. Orford.—S. J. Birnbaum, for plaintiff, moved for delivery of judgment in one week. Costs to plaintiff.

Orford v. Orford.—S. J. Birnbaum, for plaintiff, moved for delivery of judgment in one week. Costs to plaintiff.

Orford v. Orford.—S. J. Birnbaum, for plaintiff, moved for delivery of judgment in one week. Costs to