

DAY'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE,

KING STREET, TORONTO,

(First door East of Wesleyan Book Room,)

CONDUCTED ACCORDING TO BRITISH PRACTICE, with such modifications suited to the requirements of the business community of North America.

A SCHOOL OF BUSINESS FOR YOUNG MEN,

adapted to meet the wants of all classes requiring a good Commercial Education. The method of instruction most practical in its character. Young men attending this College are instructed in the various systems of now in use in the most eminent mercantile houses in Great Britain, Canada, and the neighbouring States, by a Practical Accountant of twenty years' experience, acquired both in England and America—an advantage afforded by no other Commercial College in Canada.

BOOK-KEEPING

The Course of Instruction embraces Mercantile Book-keeping by Single and Double Entry, Bank Book-keeping, Commercial Calculations, Commercial Correspondence (including the principles of English Composition), Commercial Law, Business Penmanship, Telegraphy and Phonography.

LIFE SCHOLARSHIPS

are issued, giving the holder unlimited time to complete his studies, together with the right of reviewing any or all of the branches of study without extra charge. The time required for the full course is about three months; for the extended, four months, varying, however, according to the ability and diligence of the student.
