LATE LOCALS

DIDA—The mysterious, mystifying creation of a woman out of nothing.

The steamer Huron landed 93 passengers last evening and sailed on her return trip this morning.

One of the six new street cars now in the car shed on Main street will be placed on the route this week, probably on Friday.

Emery Bros' and Gibbons' delivery teams collided on Main street at noon today, but no damage resulted further than a few complimentary words exchanged between the drivers.

The street railway are placing a new wooden pavement at the foot of Main street and are getting along rapidly with the work.

Do not forget Fairville Presbyterian picnic at Westfield Beach tomorrow. Trains leave Union Depot, St. John, at 9:23 a. m. and 1:10 p. m. Fairville 9:35 a. m. and 1:20 p. m.

The Elaine arrived this morning at 10:30 o'clock and brought with her a goodly supply of new potatoes, which still remain high in price and it is expected will remain so until after haying time.

A London despatch says: "C. P. R. steamship Montezuma, Captain McNeill, from Antwerp for Montreal, before reported in collision near West Hindu with steamer Kilmore, has been badly damaged and forepeak is full of water."

Work is progressing favorably on the new north end branch building of the Bank of New Brunswick. A quantity of stone to be used in the pillars and other portions of the structure has been conveniently placed and a hoisting gear is in readiness to raise the blocks to their proper places.

HIGH SCHOOL MEDALS

The Winners Will be Announced in a Short Time—Close Competition.

The medal winners this year at the High School have not yet been definitely announced. The Corporation gold medal, of course, goes to William S. McIntyre, who led the school.

There are two or three scholars in the Grade X examinations whose work is very close together, and Dr. Bridge is now going over the papers a second time before announcing the winner of the Governor General's medal.

The papers in mathematics have not yet been received by Dr. Bridges, but they will probably be along in a day or so, when the winner of the Parker silver medal will be announced.

THE NEW PASTOR

NEXT SUNDAY

Rev W W McMillan, of Ottawa, who is to be the new pastor of German St. Baptist church, is expected to arrive tomorrow on the maritime express at noon. He will attend the regular monthly conference meeting of the church on Friday evening and will preach his first sermon on Sunday morning.

LATE PERSONALS

Mr. Lanyon, who has a baritone voice of great power and sweetness, sang Herbert Johnston's beautiful solo, "Face to Face" in the evening, which was much enjoyed by the large congregation present. —Halifax Mail, Monday.

Yesterday's Halifax Chronicle says: "Miss Edith Messervy, accompanied by her younger sister, Edna, left yesterday on a visit to Mrs. Curll, St. John, N. B. Hon. W. S. KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS
DECORATION DAY

Aug 16th. the Date—Grand

Lodge Meets Here Aug 28th.

—Great Preparations.

There is great activity in K. of P. circles now, as committees are hard at work preparing for the annual Decoration day on Thursday, August, 16th, and for the festivities in connection with the grand lodge meeting on August 28 and 29.

The Knights will be pleased to receive flowers from their friends at the Queen's rank on Wednesday, the 15th, or during the morning of Thursday the 16th. As there are a number of new graves to decorate this year they will require more flowers than in previous years.

More than ordinary interest is attached to the meeting of grand lodge this year, owing to the fact that the supreme chancellor will pay an official visit to this domain, and the local knights are making extra efforts to entertain him.

Previous to the excursion on the river on the 28th, the supreme chancellor, who is commander-in-chief of the Uniform Rank, will inspect the regiment, King St. East, near the court house, probably being accompanied by the grand lodge. In the evening a banquet will be given in the York Theatre assembly rooms, and the following morning the visiting officer will be taken for a drive about the city to various points of interest.

RIVER TRAFFIC

THIS SEASON

Not Many Tourists—The Fruit Trade—Plenty of Vegetables Now Arriving.

The quantity of vegetables being brought down river by the steamers is gradually increasing, though it is yet rather early for very large shipments. Peas, beans and potatoes are the principal products in this line coming now.

As near as can be learned the supply this year will be about equal to that of last season. The potatoes that have arrived up to the present time are of good quality and free from rust. According to reports the indications are that they will be fully up to the average both as regards quality and size.

The strawberry season is practically finished, only a few scattered lots arriving the past few days. The supply this year has been about equal to that of last summer, though the prices realized were rather low.

Probably one of the largest shipments by any one grower in a single day was that received by D. H. Nase, of Main street. He received 1,377 boxes from one man, during the height of the season. This looks like a record.

Blueberries and raspberries are coming down fairly plentifully, and so far good prices have been realized. Gooseberries and native cherries are also coming along freely.

According to the steamship men this year has not been much of a success in the tourist business. This traffic has so far been very light, the majority of the travellers apparently having passed through on the railways, only a small portion of them staying in the city and patronizing the river boats.

DARK MYSTERY OF

THE NORTH END

"NO LOAFING HERE," "POLICE TAKE NOTICE."

The above sign appears on a north end business establishment, and is eyed curiously by many north end people. The most of them are at a loss to understand what is meant by the last section of the notice, which implies that the police loaf there, or that the police are requested to look after others in the habit of hanging around.

A Times man was talking yesterday afternoon with Sgt. Kilpatrick, when his eye caught the notice and he asked the sergeant if the police were in the habit of "holding up" that building.

"Why, I never saw that before," quoth the busy officer, and straightway he began to try to figure out what was implied. When the scribe left him a few minutes later he was still "at sea" as to its proper meaning.

It is assumed that the north end guardians of the peace will not decorate the building with their presence, whatever other people may do.

WATER BOARD

THIS EVENING

The regular monthly meeting of the water and sewerage board will be held this evening, when a number of important matters are to be considered. The claims made by Messrs. Mooney in connection with their work on the water extension will be discussed, and Engineer Barbour will likely have an extensive report to make. Consideration will also be given to Barker claim, in connection with sewage at Loch Lemond.

THE TUG QUIDDY

IS NOT INJURED

Captain McAllister, of the tug Quiddy, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and is very indignant about what he terms the exaggerated report that appeared in the Star relative to his tug running aground at the mouth of the Gagetown creek.

Speaking to the Times this morning the captain stated that his tug had not suffered a particle of injury by the mishap, which was occasioned by the dense fog on Wednesday morning. The captain said that he came to the city for the purpose of getting the Joseph and two tugs and expected getting the Quiddy off Hall's bar, where she is stuck on soft bottom, on Saturday at high water.

The captain said that on Wednesday his tug would have been gotten out of her predicament all right but for the fact that the line passed too hard over her stem and it was kept down. Yesterday morning the captain got a derrick at the bow and two screws under her stern and was ready to haul her off but the tug he had employed was not available.

Fur Styles
—FOR—Next Winter.

A LITTLE GOSSIP ABOUT FURS will doubtless be of interest to the lady whose mind is made up to have something new in this line next November.

Because our 1909-10 sample show is now to the fore, we feel justified in talking furs, regardless of the mercury's proximity to the eighty mark.

Contrary to some prophecies furs will be used in a greater degree of popularity this coming season than ever before. Preparations are being made in all the centres to meet the demand.

Many novelties are introduced, and we show the best of them. The Mortar Muff is a conspicuous departure. It is large, almost square, and quite flat.

Cravats are also new—the Broad-tail and other styles. In fact so many ways of conforming furs to the ensemble needs of women and children have been introduced, that one feels perfectly satisfied with the wide range of designs.

An early examination of our advance supply will settle one's mind on a choice, at least, and may be the means of securing an exclusive model before the fall activity.
