THE EVENING TIMES, ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1907

We have just received a Large Shipment of

DRESS GOODS IN ALL THE

New Shades of Brown

from the Light Tan to the Dark Browns, at prices ranging from 45c to $1.50 yard.

Our stock is now well assorted with other fashionable shades:

NAVYS, GREENS, REDS and GREYS.

New Tweed Suitings, all Colors, 49 inch, at . . 55c yard New Tweed Suitings, extra heavy, 54 inch, at . $1.10 yard Furness steamer Shenandoah arrived at ous plight. Mrs. Allen in describing her New Plaid Coat Cloth, all Colors, 54 Inch, at 1.35 to 1.85 yd fax with a general cargo.

95 and 101 King Street.

1878

1907

Birthday

Waterbury @ Rising.

We Have Gathered Together What We Feel Sure You Will Say is the Best Stock of Medium Priced

TO BE FOUND IN ST. JOHN. THE ASSORTMENT IS LARGER THAN EVER, AND THE PRICES ARE ALL IN YOUR FAVOR.

Homespun Suitings, 50c., 55c., 60c., 75c., $1.10 yard. Fancy Tweeds, 35c., 48c., 50c., 55c., 60c., 80c. yard. Venetians, (in all Shades,) 80c. and 90c. yard. Plain Colored Goods, (Broadcloth finish.) 27c., 28c., 45c. yd. Plaids, in Heavy or Light-weight Materials, 30c. to 80c. yard Heavy Coat Cloths, (56 inches wide) 70c., $1, 1.50, 1.65, 1.85 yd

S. W. McMACKIN.

335 MAIN STREET. 'Phone Main 600.

"Here You Are"

10 Astrachan Jackets, very Special the Latest Styles.

Call and see our German Mink in all styles. Nobby stuff from $6.00 to $18.50.

FOXALINE. This goods cannot be told from the genuine White Fox. In all styles from original promoters of the movement for Gagetown would like very much if you $1.75 to $7.00. A look at our goods better will convince you that we are leaders. Catalogues on application.

ANDERSON @ CO. 55 Charlotte Street.

JUST RECEIVED Magnum Bonum Plums Lombard Plums,

Fresh, Firm Fruit

$5.00. We Make $5.00 Gold Crown in the City.

Gold Crown in the City. the Best

THE FAMOUS BALE METHOD.

Roston Dental Parlors.

The latest fashion among Austrian painters is to establish themselves at picturesque points in the mountains in summer, and make the portraits of tourists amid over surrounding.

A THRILLING

Carleton Cornet Band and address by Mayor Sears at the Every Day Club. Local Union 919, Carpenters and Joinrs, will meet in their hall at 8 o'clock. Moving pictures, illustrated songs, specialties and full orchestra at the Opera

THIS EVENING

Performance at the West End Nickel. The Cedar Moving Picture Theatre. Motion pictures, illustrated songs and orchestral music at the Nickel. New Brunswick Lodge No. 1, K. of P., will meet in Castle Hall at 8 o'clock.

This evening in the Every Day Club rooms the Carleton Cornet Band will give a fine programme of music. Mayor Sears will deliver a short address. All men are

The small Eastport steamer Phantom, with schooners Bessie A. Anderson and Atlantic in tow, of and from same place, was on the Dewey's deck." arrived here today. They come to this port for sardine fish for the factories.

The marriage of Miss Birdie Lodge, daughter of Rev. W. W. Lodge, formerly of Charlottetown, to Rev. Mr. Gaetz, of daughter of Rev. W. W. Lodge, formerly of Charlottetown, to Rev. Mr. Gaetz, of the Methodist Episcopal church, took place at Umai, South Africa, on Wednes-Marion Lorne Roach, second daughter of Madame Yulisse Harrison has returned J. Edward Hand officiating. rom a successful concert tour to Amherst and Sackville. While in Sackville she her father, was gowned in cream was the guest of Hon. Josiah and Mrs. with long tulle veil and tiara of or Wood. Arrangements are now being made for the appearance of Madame Yulisse Harrison in a grand concert in the Opera House. During the coming session of the federal parliament it is also likely she will be heard in concert in Ottawa.

with long tulle veil and tiara of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white roses.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Beatrice Roach, who wore a pretty costume of blue silk with hat to correspond, and carried pale pink carnations.

on the 19th September, bound for Barbados, from there she will proceed to Tusket Wedge, N. S. This is the vessel that young McKelvie and Doherty are on, doing the deep sea voyage to become eligible for branch pilots. After arriving at Tusket they will come home and go the popularity of both bride and groom. at Tusket they will come home

Mrs. F. H. Howell (nee Hollis), will reive her friends Wednesday and Thursy afternoons and Thursday evening, list A. May Woodley. of Mrs. C. P. Harris, Miss Harris and Miss Mrs. C. P. Harris, Miss Harris and Miss Helen Harris. Oct. 16th and 17th at 16 Charles street.

Miss A. May Woodley, of No. 3 Hazen street, left this morning by the Flying Yankee to spend her vacation with her parents in East Boston, Mass.
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Murphy, of Tacona, are at the Dufferin. G. M. Suffren, of Sussex, was registered at the Dufferin vesterday by train after a visit to Boston. the city yesterday on his way to Grand

OITBUARY Capt. Andrew F. Kenney

The death of Capt. Andrew Freeman Kenney took place last evening at his friends in St. John and other places. residence, 34 Orange street. The deceast The happy couple will reside at 207 'ed had been ill for some time. He is survived by a widow, formerly Miss Wheaton of this city; one son, F. Godfrey of the Royal Bank and one daughter, Helen, at home. F. L. Kenney, M. D., of the west side, is a brother of the deceased. Several sisters reside in the states. The late Capt. Kenney was formerly in the employ of Troop & Son. He had not red the sea for several years.

Thomas Fairweather, one of the United Empire Loyalists. Although he passed the greater part of his life on the farm upon which he was born, he always took a very ty. In the early sixties he was one of the better methods in selection of domestic animals, and was for thirty-eight years secretary for the local agricultural society. At various times the provincial government availed itself of his judgment and integrity in the purchase of thoroughbred integrity in the purchase of thoroughbred town. That would give them an opportunity of the secondary of arbibitions. stock and in the conduct of exhibitions.

Mr. Fairweather was ever a staunch this section.

Mr. McLeod and Dr. Voll in a section.

The minister of agriculture was down this section.

Liberal in politics, and in 1878 ran with Mr. McLeod and Dr. Vail in opposition to the then Fraser government. He was the first warden of the county at the institution of the present municipality, and at the time of his death was one of the Oct. 15th, 1907. Mr. Fairweather was a zealous adherent of the Church of England, and was for several years warden of his parish church. He was twice married—first to turned to their home, after their summer Emma, daughter of the late Rev. Thomas son Robertson; and, second, to Julia, daugh-

HONEYMOON

Wife of Skipper of Lost Bark Addie Morrill Tells of Narrow

BOSTON, Oct. 15-Capt. Everett W. Social visit of York Lodge, No. 3, to Allen, his young bride, and the crew True Blue Lodge, No. 11, in their hall, of the Boston barkentine Addie Morrill, arrived here Monday on the steamer Admiral Dewey from Jamaica, having been Battle line steamer Pydna, Captain was driven off her course and was so bad-Fancy, sailed today from Cardiff for Rio ly battered by the tremendous seas that her seams opened and she began to fill. All on board the barkentine lashed them-Walter Short has been reported by Poseeman S. D. Hamm for cruelty to his bestor to Port Antonio bore down upon them and rescued them from their peril-

a leak until we were resuced we were Battle line steamer Arcola, Captain Shaw, is in port at Cardiff and will sail today for Spezia.

The officers and members of York Lodge, L. O. L., No. 3, will pay a social visit to True Blue Lodge, No. 11, in their hall, west end, at 8 o'clock this evening.

This evening in the Every Day Club.

This evening in the Every Day Club. ently we saw the shadow of a boat. head was in a dizzy whirl when they got

WEDDINGS Harris--Roach

Richard Roach, was married to Dr. Leon-ard Christopher Harris, of Moncton, Rev. The bride, who was given in marria

Word was received yesterday from the British bark Strathisla, Captain Douglas, that the vessel sailed from Beunos Ayres on the 19th September, bound for Barbados, from there she will proceed to the ceremony a wedding the content of the ceremony a wedding the content of the ceremony a wedding the content of the ceremony a wedding the ceremony a wedding the ceremony as well as the ceremony as wedding the ceremony as well as the ceremony as the ceremony as well as the ceremony and the happy couple left by the midday train for a short honeymoon trip, and on their return will reside in Moncton. the popularity of both bride and groom. The bride is a graduate in nursing of Newport Hospital, where she practiced for a $12.00 garment.

Katie Gertrude Cathers, eldest daughter of the late William A. Cathers, will be married to Joseph Morgan. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. W. W. Mc The bride's costume is a dainty crea Miss Taylor, of Moncton, who has been visiting relatives in the city, returned to her home last evening.

The taylor will preside at the piano and render Mendels sohn's wedding march.

After the ceremony a dainty supper will After the ceremony a dainty supper will be served in the dining room, which has been tastefully decorated in pink and most popular young ladies, has been the recipient of numerous beautiful gifts from Wentworth street, where the bride will receive her friends on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 5th and 6th.

SOME POTATOES

James E. Fairweather

Yesterday afternoon there passed to his

been mostly "small potatoes and few in a hill" this expansive tuber, at first glance looked like one of the boulders being raisrest at his home in Lower Norton, James ed in the west end by the Mayes dredge. E. Fairweather, a well known and highly respected man in his neighborhood. He had been in ill health for more than a year, but his death, which was due to heart trouble, came most unexpectedly.

Mr. Fairweather, a well known and highly and had been raised by John V. B. Foster of Wells, P. O. Kings county. It weighed 1 lb. 10 oz., and rejoiced in the name of working the late of the bounders being raised in the west end by the Mayes dredge. It was a real sure 'nuff potato, though, and had been raised by John V. B. Foster of Wells, P. O. Kings county. It weighed 1 lb. 10 oz., and rejoiced in the name of working the late of the bounders being raised in the west end by the Mayes dredge. It was a real sure 'nuff potato, though, and had been raised by John V. B. Foster of Wells, P. O. Kings county. It weighed 1 lb. 10 oz., and rejoiced in the name of working the late of the west end by the Mayes dredge. Mr. Fairweather was a son of the late James E. Fairweather, and grandson of ed one bushel of cut seed and raised 37

THE HIGHWAY ACT

Editor Times: Dear Sirs,-The people of Petersville and

WESTFIELD NOTES

Mrs. George A. Scott is recove ter of the late James Melick. By his first wife he had four children, all of whom

Mrs. Arthur McKenzie is at Victoria survive him—Arnold Fairweather, of Norton; Mrs. Charles Hendricks, Clarence a serious operation. She is now said to be leaves one sister—Mrs. T. P. Dixon, ot Philadelphia, and two brothers—Humbert Fairweather and Stephen Fairweather, of Norton. The late Charles H. Fairweather, of this city, was also a brother.

Joseph Anse, Texas ranger, and Miss Annie Buntz, a Chostaw Indian girl, were married on horseback in mid-stream at the junction of the Kimitia and Red rivers, while a man supposed to be a tribesman of the maiden was shooting at them from the bank.

Coat Sale $10.75 Each. Your Choice of a Large Stock of Coats, $10.7

MACAULAY BROS. @

Have Just Opened a Special Range of

and Winter Coats

In Ladies' Sizes. 32 to 42 Bust.

rescued by that steamer on her southern passage from their sinking vessel after all hope had been abandoned.

The Addie Morrill was bound from Salem, Mass., for Philadelphia with a cargo of paving stone. She man and was a gale, was driven off her course and was a gale course and was a gale course and was a gale course and Self Cloth Strappings, $10.75 for regular $15.00 Coats. Black Plain Tailor-made Coats, Box Shape, Velvet Collar, $10.75 for regular $15.00 garment. At $10.75 Grey, Brown and Fawn Scotch Tweed Coats, Full Length, some "Gibson" Shoulders, $10.75. Others, Plain Tailor-made, with or without Velvet Collar.

MACAULAY BROS. @ CO.

SPECIAL VALUE Men's Suits, $8, 10, 12.

The best value in St. John-as evidenced by the fact that we sell as many each season as any two other dealers. The best in fabrics and the best in tailoring.

Fancy Tweeds, Blues and Blacks.

American Clothing House

11--15 Charlotte Street, St. John.

Two Styles of Ladies' Coats of Exceptional Which We Call Your Attention To.

No. 1-A Coat Full of Style, made of those Shadow Plaid Effects in Green, Brown, and Grey Shades, Good Full Size and Perfect Fitting. And only $8.00; worth $12.00. Sizes 32 to 38.

No. 2--A Black Coat at $9.00, with all the style and qualities of ROBERT STRAIN & CO., 27 and 29 Charlotte St.

We Have Just Opened

A NEW LINE OF

Figures and

Ornaments

Bronze and Ivory Finish

85, 87, 89, 91, 93 Princess 3t.

FOR THE DOG SHOW

Dog Collars,

From 25 cts. to $2.75

Chains, Leads, Whips Muzzles,

Bells,

Whistles

W. H. Thorne & Co.

Market Square. St. John, N. B.

OVER FIVE THOUSAND YARDS

FLEECY CASHMERE FINISHED 10 CENTS A YARD.

Bargain Sale Starts Tomorrow.

HERE we have a pretty, a warm and common-sense material for cold weather---something for Ladies Wrappers, Kimonos, Waists, and a most suitable fabric for Little Children's and Growing Girls' apparel. A real good thing for schoolday wear.

ONOVELTY PLAIDS, STRIPES, FANCY EFFECTS.

This offering will, without doubt, be the best bargain of the kind this season.

PERFECT IN WEAVE, ATTRACTIVE IN DESIGN.

SAMPLES. IOC. YARD. NO SAMPLES.

WEDNESDAY AND AFTER. LINEN ROOM.

MANCHESTER ROBERTSON ALLISON, Ltd.