MOTHERS

Note these extraordinary values in Children's Wear in Dykeman's, July Clearance Sale. Think of a good serviceable gingham or chambray dress, size 2 to 4 years for 69c, or an all-over cotton night gown, sizes up to 11 years for 98c and many other bargains like these. Come early Wednesday, P. A. Dykeman & Co., 55-59 Charlotte Street.

The word "cop" originated from the initials C. O. P., meaning constable of police.

NOTED ARTISTS IN THE IMPERIAL SHOW

Miss Armstrong and Mme. Nikolic Score Success at Opening

Two artists of truly exceptional merit are gracing the Imperial's programme this week in Marion Armstrong, Scottish-Canadian soprano and Madame Nikolic, an American pianist of widespread acquaintance in musical circles. They happen to be in this part of the country as special performers at the great "Hector" celebration in Nova Scotia and when finished with the Keith people here—an impromptu booking in a sense—will spend a few weeks enjoying the recreational spots afforded in this oval, peaceful country so far removed from Broadway and the whirl of metropolitan life. Their performance last night was a most successful one, and the result of their success and resultant success should certainly give the Imperial an extra dash of business throughout the week.

Considerable of a physical strain so the lady was forced to acknowledge the recalls with bows.

St. John has within its borders right now, and at picture prices too, two concert stars, whom none should miss enjoying. They are performers who travel in the best musical circles in their own stellar capacities and in little flurries into picture programme is a summertime lark with them. To those who hear them it is a gift occasion, as it were. Last night's large patronage at the Imperial was quite charmed with the concert, five lovely numbers, which in addition to entertainment than which one could hardly conceive better for the money. Miss Armstrong and Madame Nikolic appear three times daily, noon in the afternoon and twice in the evening.
