DOUBLE DROWNING

Tillsonburg, June 3.—Shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon a double drowning accident occurred on the River, four miles south of here, when their lives.

A younger brother of the Currie boys was the only survivor of the drowning and stated that he tried to rescue his brother and playmate with his fishing pole but was not successful. He had to walk two miles for assistance, and the bodies were re-

U-BOAT CAPTAIN MADE APOLOGIES Had Torpedoed Spanish Steamer and Killed Captain and Passengers.

Washington, May 31.—News of the shelling of the Spanish steamer Maria Pia, which caused the death of her captain, and several passengers, reached here today in diplomatic dispatches. The vessel reached a Spanish port after the encounter.

The steamer encountered the U-boat off the Chaffarinas Island and was immediately fired upon. One shell killed the captain in his stateroom as well as one of the crew, and wounded a woman passenger. A number of Moors aboard as passengers were drowned when a lifeboat capsized.

The submarine came to the surface and aided in the rescue of the passengers. The Commander expressed his regrets, asserting that he did not know the steamer was a Spanish boat.

DEATH OF CHAS. WILSON OCCURRED AT WOODSTOCK

At seven o'clock Friday morning, Charles Wilson, a well-known Woodstock resident, died at his home at the jail residence. His sudden demise, which was due to heart failure, came as a surprise, and shook to many, for while he had been unwell recently, it was not known that his illness was of a serious nature.

The deceased was sixty-nine years of age, having been born on the twentieth of October, 1849. He lived in this city all his life. His school days were passed here, and after their termination, he went into the Wilson tannery, then owned and managed by his father, the late William Wilson. After the death of his father, he took over the business himself, and conducted it for a number of years. However, he sold the business and for the next five years he farmed a few miles from Woodstock. At the end of this time he moved again to the city, and became agent for
