

Library fee of one dollar per term during the time that they use the Library, and shall be subject to such rules of the Library as are applicable to them.

All books must be returned to the Library on or before June 24th and December 24th.

Any person retaining a book beyond the time allowed or after the two days mentioned in the preceding paragraph will incur a fine of two cents a day till the return of the book.

Non-residents of Toronto must prepay the charges for the carriage of books both ways.

Loss of books or damage done to books must be made good by the person in whose name the book is taken out.

The following books have been added to the Library:

Johannis Wyclif Operis Evangelici, Liber Tertius et Quartus.

A Volume of the Dictionary of Biography.

A Volume of the Murray English Dictionary.

A Volume of the Annual Encyclopedia.

The following books, pamphlets, and papers have been presented to the Library:

Inventors; presented by the author, P. G. Hunter, Jr., of Chicago.

A reprint of The Times of November 9th, 1796; presented by the Reverend G. T. Carruthers, M.A.

The Canadian Cricketer's Guide for 1858; presented by the Reverend W. L. Baynes-Reed.

The Theory of Wages; presented by the author, Herbert M. Thompson.

The Acts of the Apostles—(Page).

Burke's Selected Works—(Selby).

The Calendars of the University of Melbourne, Vassar College, St. Mungo's College, Glasgow; the University of New Brunswick, and Harvard University.

An Account of Columbia University, and of the Dedication of the New Site at Morningside Heights, The Columbia University Bulletin, The Bulletin of the University of Wisconsin, The Bulletin of the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Uni-