Municipality of the City and Count St. John, and Thomas L. Higgins, Esq. The Municipality of the Liy and county of St. Jehn, and Thomas L. Higgins, Esq.: Gentlemen—By virtue of our appointment by you, dated the lith October, 1893, to determine the swnership of a certain plece of land in dispute situated at the rear of the aims house property and adjoining Thomas L. Higgins' farm, we beg to say that, after having carefully inspected the land in question, having employed a competent engineer to make surveys, searches and plans for our information and guidance, and having heard the eral and documentary evidence produced by both claimants, our finding it that the alms house commissioners are the rightful and indisputable owners of the said tot of land by title, deeds and possession and that the alms house commissioners property extends easterly to the so-calle "diagonal line," which line is the correct casterly boundary, and which is slightly the eastward of the rear line claimed by them. Themas L. Higgins has no clair whatever to the said lot of land.

Yours respectfully,

J. S. ARMSTRONG (L.S.)

Yours respectfully,

(c) To J. H. Merritt, John S. Armstrong and John P. MacIntyre, arbitrators

(d) To Simeon Armstrong, engineer. 145 50

(e) To the county secretary 200 00

4 The committee further recommend that the commissioners of the alms house and work house be instructed to take charge of the lands and premises mentioned in said award, on behalf of the municipality.

5. Your committee have had under consideration the amount of remuneration the clerk of the peace is entitled to receive for criminal and quasi criminal prosecutions in the county outside of the city.

And recommend that the clerk of the peace be paid the sum of $200 annually for such services in lieu of all fees as now charged by him, such payment to date from the first day of January last past, and be paid in equal monthly payments.

There was some discussion as to the payment of such a large amount in the Higgins' case. In answer Coun. Horgan stated that there were six acres of land in all valued at $40.

The report was adopted.

The following supplementary report of the finance and accounts comm was read and adopted: "In the matter of the petition of Daniel Coughlan praying for a reduction in his assessment in the parish of Lancaster, the committee after hearing Mr. Coughlan and Mr. Irvine, the chairman of the assessors of the said parish, recommend that the matter be referred to the councillors for the parish to report upon at next meeting. That George Moore be paid the sum of two dollars for conveying prisoners to and from the goal." The report of the chief inspector was read as follows: read as follows:

As chief commissioner of the district of the said municipality, under the Liquor License act, 1887, I beg to report as follows:

1. During the year forty-five convictions have been secured. A statement of the account in detail up to the 31st of December, last will appear in the auditor's report.

2. Fines amounting to $363 are still uncollected, which is largely due to the granting of rules nist in two cases by the supreme court upon a question of jurisdiction. A decision has not yet been reached in these cases. The balance deposited in the Bank of New Brunswick to April 30, 1896, is $68,30.

3. I recommend payment of the following amounts to the several assistant inspectors for the past year:

The report was adopted. A petition was read asking the council to exempt from the provisions of the act imposing a tax on dogs the city and county of St. John. Coun. McLeod moved the following

"Resolved, That the petition be received and that the prayer therein contained be complied with and the following by-law be adopted:

tection of sheep.' 2. The committee recommend the payment of the following amounts, such payment to be made out of the contingent fund, except as otherwise directed:

"And whereas, by section two of County buildings—The warden and Balcom.

'And whereas such petition has been presented to this council. "Be it therefore ordered by the council of the municipality of the city and county of St. John in council convened as follows: "1.—That in the several parishes of St. Martins, Simonds, Lancaster and Musquash, in the county of the city and county of St. John, the owner, possessor or harborer of one or more male dogs shall be exempt from the payment of dog tax in respect of one male dog and no more."

This matter provoked a long discussion, some of the members feeling that it would not do to pass it. At last the motion and bye law passed. The following petition was read: To the Warden and Members of the Municipal Council of the City and County of Saint John: The petition of the St. John Co. Woman's Christian Temperance Union numbly showeth: That we are informed that the arrangements of the St. John county jail are such that the separation of the male and female tive clothing stores in the city, which prisoners in different departments has he has called the Depot House, in renot been attempted, and furthermore, that the female prisoners are under the sole care and supervision of male

We therefore petition, that you will take immediate steps for placing the female prisoners in a section of the jail exclusively reserved for them, under the supervision of a jail matron. By inquiry and personal investiga-tion, we have ascertained, that some such arrangement prevails in many Canadian cities (notably in the province of Ontario); and we believe that public sentiment in our own commu-nity is strongly in favor of this re-

The clergy of the rural deanery of Chatham met in chapter at Newcastle on the 5th and 6th insts Those present were: the Revs. Rural Dean Forsyth, T. W. Street, D. I. Wilkinson, Jas. Spencer. Two other clergy-men had announced their intention of being present, but were unavoidably detained. The usual service in connection with the association was held in St. Andrew's church at 7.30 p. m., when addresses were delivered by the Rev. W. I. Wilkinson and Rev. Jas. Spencer. At the same hour, 7.30 p. m., the rector and Rev. T. W. MONCTON.

A Baby Placed on a Track in the Rail way Yard by Some Fiend.

Moncton, May 12.-I. C. R. Policeman O'Rourke made a strange find while going to his home in the western part of the station yard after the departure of the evening train last night. He had left the station platform and just passed the railway electric light building when he noticed on the plank look. He was about to kick it off the walk a parcel that had a sust walk when he though he would pick it up and examine it. It seemed quite heavy, but he had no suspicion as to the nature of the contents until he reached his home, when examination revealed a baby girl, apparently about two or three weeks old, apparently stupefied with the cold, but alive, and after it had been warmed none the worse for its adventure. The child was nicely dressed, with silk hood, ied with white ribbon, and cape; it was wrapped in a baby's quilt, so as to have the appearance of a parcel when carried. The child was well supplied with very nice underclothing, and everything indicated that the mother was in comfortable circumstances. It is light complexion, sandy hair and dark :yes. It is supposed to have been left on the platform by some person from the Halifax or St. John train, though no trace of a woman and baby on either 'rain can be got. The child will be kept for some time, and if the mother is not found, an effort will be made to secure a home for it. Rev. A. M. SHORT TALKS ON ADVERTISING.

NO. 14

(Copyright by Charles Austin Bates.) Advertisements won't work miracles won't sell ice in Greenland, nor snowshoes at the equator. An advertisement will sell overcoats in July if they are cheap enough, but a seasonable ad. of seasonable stuff is always best. Dull season advertising must be con sidered in two ways, as advertising and as insurance—insurance of busi-ness—insurance against loss of trade. Such insurance should be placed on the same business principles that dictate the placing of fire and life insurance. Pick out the strongest companies—the best papers.

Business insurance—advertising—is beter than the other kinds. They repay the losses caused by misfortune Advertising prevents the misfortune. It may be possible to do advertising from which you will never see any results. It is certain that you will never get results from the advertising you do not do.

If all the money that is wasted in worthless media were concentrated in the best paper—a paper like THE SUN -it would carry a good advertisement straight through the dull season. Advertising finds a parallel in farming. At some seasons the harvest fol lows the planting very quickly, at others the result is slower. Plant advertising seed in December and the crop comes at once. Plant in July and it may be September before the full, rich harvest comes, but it will come. And if you plant a little "garden sass" along with it you'll get semething to eat right straight through July and August, too.

Don't try to sell heavy things—things involving great outlay. Seek out the little catchy, useful things. Get a wedge of satisfaction started into the big end of it will carry in some silk dreses later on. Running expenses are much the same whether you're dull or busy. Figure the cost of the advertising against the gross profit of the increased business from week to week, and the operation will show a profit every time, provided the advertisements are properly con-sidered and written—"but that's another story," as Mr. Kipling says.
