A FAST PHILLIE BASEMAN

Hans Lobert, the sensational hard-hitting third baseman of last year's Reds, went to Philadelphia in the trade last winter. He has done a great deal toward bracing up the Quakers with his batting and fielding and is one of the real reasons why the team has been in the front so long.

taken kindly to the diamond game. Old Johnny Bull has representatives in Aitchison, Burch and Coulson. The Irish on the team are Bergen, Tooley, Burk, Ragan and Staniou. President Ebbetts himself is descended from Holland Dutch, his family being one of the earliest to settle in Greater New York. It's up to the owner of the Superbas to see that the scouts of Brooklyn club pay particular attention to Irish recruits if there is anything in the claim that a winner must have a majority of these aggressive scrappers.

NEED OF IRISHMEN ON BROOKLYN TEAM

It is a well known fact that in practically all winning and championship baseball aggregations, the majority of the players have hailed from descendants of the Emerald Isle. Take your McGraw, Clarke, McGinnity, McGuire, Farrell, Daly, Dahlen, Kelley, McGann and other prominent Irishmen who have made the national game famous, and you will find them all with successful teams.

The Paddys seem to have a much more aggressive spirit than the Germans and other nationalities that break into baseball.

Where will you find a more aggressive leader than Muggsy McGraw? He does not know when he is beaten and he instills that fighting spirit into his team until they fight it out to the last ditch. They never know when they are whipped.

The baseball hall of fame is full of the stars who can trace their descent, ants back to that little green island where the Shamrock grows and flourishes.

Of the Superba lineup the wearers of the green are in the minority: Dahlen, Hummel, Rucker, Schardt, Belt, Knetzer, Zimmerman, Stark, and Miller certainly are Germans. Lejeune and Dabbert can trace their ancestry back to old France. Wheat is of Indian descent. McElveen lays claim to the land of the heather, and is one of the few Scotchmen who have present slow-up is not considered permanent by Philadelphia critics, who are strong in claiming that the team was simply playing up to its natural pace, and will soon regain the form which threw a scare into New York, Chicago and Pittsburgh a couple of weeks back.

R.K.Y.C. TO HOLD RACES ON SATURDAY

On Saturday afternoon June 17th, the Royal Kenosha Yacht Club will open their racing season.

The sailing races will be held that day, and they promise to be very interesting. A number of entries have already been received, and more are expected before 6.00 p. m. Thursday, when the time for entries closes.

In the first race, that for class "H" (Salmon Hoots) starting at 2.45, considerable interest is being taken, old rivals will meet again, and there will be several new boats whose speed has not yet been tested. It will be a hard matter to pick the winner, and the race promises to be very close and exciting.

The second race which will start at 3.00 is for the Lovitt cup, and open to class "B" yachts. There are a large number of yachts eligible for this class and as several of them have already scored wins toward the final possession of this cup, the racing promises to be very keen.

Preparations for the celebration of "Members' Day" on June 22nd, are progressing. There will be four races besides other contests, and many interesting features. Arrangements are being made for a good transportation service between the city and Millidgeville. Besides the regular bus lines, there will probably be one or more motor buses, and it is also intended to have a passenger boat capable of carrying about one hundred persons, make regular trips during the day and evening between Findlayton and Millidgeville.

This will give a choice of routes and the trip by water should be a very enjoyable one.

GREATEST OF ALL PITCHERS WAS "OLD HOSS" CHARLEY RADBURN

Few names are dearer to the old time baseball fans than that of Charley "Old Hoss" Radbourn, hero of the 1874 Providence team which won the national league pennant.

It is hard to convince the old timers the stars of today are any better than Radbourn, all things considered. Certainly it would be a hard task to find any latter day pitcher who would duplicate the herculean task which made the name of Radbourn famous.

This feat was the pitching of 27 consecutive games and winning 24 of them. He won 18 of his games without a miss, shutting out Boston upon three occasions and allowing but one run in the series. His one defeat was by Buffalo and but five hits were made so he could not have been performing poorly. Radbourn's pitching took the pennant to Providence. After the pennant was clinched he worked in eight games, winning five of them. His record stands unparalleled.

Radbourn's wonderful work was toward the last, the result of grit, pure and simple. He suffered untold agony being unable to raise his arm higher than his shoulder, morning after morning upon arising.

Instead of quitting, however, he worked the harder, going to the park before the other players and beginning to warm up by tossing the ball a few feet, gradually increasing the distance until he could throw to the plate from the outfield. During this process the players watched Radbourn until he could finally throw to the plate and then they would shake their heads. Such pluck was beyond their ken.

Radbourn, in addition to his wonderful pluck, possessed splendid and perfect control. A favorite trick was to place a pint bottle on a stool at the home plate and work until he could knock down the bottle to his own satisfaction. Knowing his opponents, he seldom placed the ball where the batter desired it. He wasted little time trying to master deceptive curves, depending upon his speed, change of pace and control to serve the ball where it was not wanted.

Before he started his winning streak Radbourn was shown an agreement signed by the club owner, agreeing to give him his unconditional release at the end of the season if Providence won the flag. He wanted to get away from the town and his earnestness can be appreciated from his work. When the season closed, Ned Allen, president of the club, handed Radbourn a blank contract and told him to fill it in at his own figure or accept the release, as he saw fit. Radbourn added $2,000 to the sum he had drawn and destroyed the release.

SNAKE PLAY WON SUNDAY BALL GAME

New York, June 13.—In the ninth inning of a game of baseball between the Mohawk Athletic Club, of Richfield, N. J., and the Alert Club, of Centerville, Sunday afternoon, a big black snake made his appearance and glided across the diamond, causing much excitement among the five hundred or more spectators and the players on both sides.

The serpent emerged from a pile of underbrush as Frank O'Malley, pitcher for the Alerts was delivering a ball and started for the snake, and at last got him cornered. It took at least a dozen blows from the bats to end the snake's life. The snake was one of the largest ever seen in that vicinity. It was more than six feet in length. According to "Eph" Johnson, who lives near by, the serpent had been seen in and around Richfield for at least twenty years.

O'Malley had not recovered from the shock when the game was resumed the largest ever seen in that vicinity. His team lost by a score of 6 to 5.

KLING SAW GAME FROM THE STAND

Chicago, Ill., June 13.—John Kling, the backstop, traded to Boston, was a spectator in the grandstand yesterday. He declined to say definitely whether or not he would join the Boston team, but intimate friends say that he will not, even though his terms be met. One of his reasons is that Boston is such a distance from Kansas City and that his business interests in the latter city would suffer.

Kling did not appear at the West Side Park. Manager Tenney says he gave John a day off to attend to some important business. In baseball circles it is said this is just a bluff. It is learned that Kling has asked Boston for a $500 increase in salary.

The greatest player must come to the end of his playing career, however, and the player himself realizes that better than the public. Kling has been looking forward to the day when he would retire from the diamond. He expected two years ago that his playing days were over, for he established himself in business in Kansas City and would have been content to stay there had of a flattering offer been made to return to the Chicago club. Kling realizes he is not the same catcher that he was before he quit for a season.

He has lost his speed and his batting eye is not so good. His throwing is still a good deal better than most of the catchers in the league, but it is not up to the standard he established for himself in his best days. His experience is the big stock in trade that Kling has at the present time.

N. B. & MAINE LEAGUE MET LAST NIGHT

The representatives of the Maine and New Brunswick Baseball League met at McAdam Junction last night.

The protest made by the St. Stephen club in their game with Calais was disallowed. The Spaulding ball was adopted and the matter of permanent umpire was left to a committee composed of D. J. Donah, of St. John and Mr. Muir of Woodstock.

At one o'clock this morning the representatives started on the schedule which is expected to last all night.

AVIATOR FELL 125 FEET; WILL RECOVER

Madgeburg, Germany, June 13.—The first serious attempt of the national aviation circuit race occurred here today, when Karl Mueller in attempting a landing, fell from his biplane from a height of about 125 feet. The aviator suffered a concussion of the brain, but at the hospital to which he was removed, it was thought that he would recover.

Lindharter, Koefig, Buechner, Laitseh and Wittenstein, all of whom covered the first stage from Berlin to this city, would have prescribed time, continued this morning on the second leg to Schwerin, the distance from Madgeburg to Schwerin being 113 miles.

CANADIAN GIRL LOST AT GOLF

St. Andrews, Scotland, June 13.—Miss Dorothy Campbell, of Hamilton, Ont., holder of the golf championship of Canada, and the United States, and winner of the British championship on May 19 at Port Rush, Ireland, was defeated today by Miss Fucelle in the second round of the Scottish women's golf championship, by one hole.

BATTING OF THE BIG LEAGUE SLUGGERS

42 MEN IN THE LIST.

Simon Gives Up National Batting Lead, Falling to Eighth Place, while Fred Clarke Comes up to Second.

Miller of the Boston Rustlers has once more assumed leadership among the 29 best hitters in the National league who have taken part in ten or more games. His average shrunk slightly during the week, but that of Simon of the Pirates has had a real smash, and Miller being the runnerup quickly assumed the place vacated by the Pirate catcher. The latter, however, is still among the leading batsmen.

Perhaps the most notable showing of any of the hitters of the league last week was that by Johnny Bates, who left Boston to go to Philadelphia and was a part of the big trade engineered last winter between that club and Cincinnati. In seven games he has been at bat 25 times and hit safely 14 times, the result of which was a jump in his average from .260 to .328.

As far as Bates is concerned the Cincinnati's got all the better of the trade, for Johnny is hitting far ahead of Paskert and has shown a good deal more speed on the paths, having stolen 16 bases, against five for Paskert.

LIGHTNING STRIKES KINGSTON HOSPITAL.

Kingston, Ont., June 13.—Lightning yesterday struck the Dorin wing of the general hospital and caused a blaze in one of the rooms. The nurses promptly attached a hose to the hydrant and speedily subdued the flames with all the courage of firemen. Little damage was done to the building.

CHIHUAHUA, MEX. IN MEXICAN FLOOD.

Chihuahua, Mex., June 13.—Santa Eulalia, a village 18 miles to the east of Chihuahua is reported to have been washed away and twenty persons drowned as the result of the Shuscar river overflowing, due to heavy rains. The telegraph wires between this city and Santa Eulalia are down. A passenger train from El Paso is 24 hours overdue.

There is doubt whether Day will consent to a match, as he has never appeared as a professional, but Johnson's agents are confident that a meeting will be arranged, in which event it has been decided to have it take place in Ireland.

The idea is to hold it in the open air in the neighborhood of Dublin within a few weeks, so as not to interfere with Johnson's arrangements for a return to America in the autumn.
