

Social Notes of the Week

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, Oct. 5.—The monthly report of the Red Cross Society for September was read by the secretary, Miss Muriel Robertson at the meeting on Tuesday and was as usual most satisfactory. A lot of work had been done, splendid help having been given by Red Cross circles of Fair Vale, Grand Point, Clifton, Hammond River, etc. The weekly tea and shop table continue to be most popular; the help of our summer people being greatly appreciated. The appeal of the British Red Cross for funds to assist in carrying on the great work they are doing at the various seats of war, for our sick and wounded soldiers and sailors of the "home-land," and overseas dominions. It is expected that in the churches and perhaps in other ways, something of the extent and value of this grand society may be given to the public before Trafalgar Day, October 19th, the date fixed (as last year) for special effort throughout the Empire. Last year each of the churches in our parish were asked for the offering on one Sunday and all generously responded. The red Christmas stockings are all finished and ready to be filled for the men on our parish honor roll, and about everything required to make these a real Santa Claus message from home has been donated, a few more puzzles and small games seem to be all that is left to give, and the packing will be done about the middle of the month. Tuesday's afternoon tea was largely attended, the hostesses being Mrs. Joseph Henderson and Mrs. A. W. McEwen.

Two hundred dollars from the recent County Fair held here, under auspices of the Soldiers' Comforts' Association, was given the local leaders of this society, to provide Christmas parcels for the Rothsay soldiers. Miss Brock, Mrs. W. S. Allison, Miss Deneau and Mrs. Bell had the various articles at St. Paul's Sunday school house on Saturday and with many willing helpers, accomplished the pleasant work of "doing up" the several packages, (a hundred of them) for each of our own men, the extra ones to make glad some of the "home soldiers" of which there are so many. A pair of socks, tobacco pipe, cigarettes, candies, chocolate, gum, paper and envelopes, pencil, soap, tooth paste, shaving soap, cards, a red bon-bon and other articles were neatly tied together, wrapped in white paper and tied with tri-color ribbon, the whole being sewed in white cotton and the address printed on each (this, the printing, done by Mrs. W. S. Allison). The scene to those going in out of the rain on Saturday evening was a very bright and animated one. The parcel in all its stages was the "home soldiers" of the babies, and was most interesting.

With much sincere regret, many friends said goodbye to Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Barclay Boyd, who on Tuesday left here for Toronto, where they expect to reside. At the station farewells were said as they boarded the train. They will be greatly missed in Rothsay.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jones have taken give at least one million dollars monthly toward the cost of a special meal which will be served every day in the schools.

The commission's efforts have resulted in a decrease of infant mortality but there has been a terrible increase in the birth rate. Even the children who are born are deformed and ill-nourished owing to the condition of the mothers. But, returning to the older children the commission has found that most of the children on one meagre meal a day are stunted, the former healthy children into little emaciated figures, whose bodies are held together by barely enough nourishment but whose flesh and bones refuse to expand and grow as those of a normal child should. This leads to mental deficiency and tuberculosis is becoming prevalent.

Some of the cases on record are pitiful—in fact, all are pitiful for here is a nation torn from health and happiness and through no fault of its own made a nation of deficient.

One million dollars a month is necessary to combat this alone. Mr. Honnold and all his associates are pleading with the world—pleading with Canadian fathers and mothers of healthy children—to help supply this million a month. Every father, every mother can appreciate what it means. Picture your child gradually wasting away to death, its little body wanting away and that bright little mentality gradually fading almost to the point of imbecility.

Would a few dollars stand in your way to prevent all this? Why let a few dollars stand between you and helping these children of our brothers-in-arms—the men who are helping fight our battles and who fought them entirely for us in the dark days of August, 1914.

Help with the million a month. There is a Belgian Relief Committee in your neighborhood. Send your contribution to it or to the treasurer of the Belgian Relief Committee, 59 St. Peter street, Montreal.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with flowers and flags. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a point lace, and wore a Juliet cap and wedding veil, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and white sweet peas. Rev. A. S. Hazel performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family. The Morrell left with the bride from the 65th Battery for overseas, on Monday evening.

Belgians are Starving While Canadians Have Plenty

Our Heroic Allies Deserve More Help than We are Giving

An accident of geography, and the fortunes of war, have subjected Belgium to the cold-blooded, calculated cruelty and attempted starvation of the German conquerors—while we in Canada, secure from danger, are making money out of the War.

Legitimate though our profits are, we surely owe a substantial share of them to our Allies, who are destitute because they dared stand up for their rights and defy the enemy.

We have given much—but barely enough to help keep the Belgians alive. More of them every week are calling for help, as their own resources are exhausted, and every one of the millions should have something more than the three slices of bread and the pint of soup which is all the Relief Commission can supply out of present contributions.

If you have been given, do more if you can till the war is over and Belgium is free. If you have not given yet, will you make up for lost time with a substantial contribution? Better still, will you give every month, enough to feed one or more Belgian families, at the rate of $2.50 each per month?

Whatever you can afford to give, send your subscription weekly, monthly, or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees, or
