

FROM ALL OVER NEW BRUNSWICK

SACKVILLE.

Sackville, Nov. 23-24. Mrs. B. C. Borden returned Monday from a pleasant visit at Avonport (N. S.). Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ford, of Truro (N. S.), are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Ford. Mrs. Harry T. Cochran, of Campbellton, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Levin, Squire street. Mrs. Tweedie returned to her home at Hampton on Monday after an extended visit with her son, Professor Tweedie, of Mt. Allison University. A. V. Smith, of Halifax, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Professor and Mrs. A. D. Smith. Mrs. Ernest Smith returned from St. John on Monday. Mrs. Chesley Wells spent Thanksgiving at Dochester, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Dickie. A. B. Copp, M. P. P., spent Sunday at Newcastle. Mr. James Smith returned on Monday from a trip to Montreal. Miss Mary Trites, of Moncton, is the guest of Mrs. Geo. R. Read. Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Estabrook received a surprise on Thursday evening, when about 75 of their friends gathered at their home to do honor to the completion of Mr. and Mrs. Estabrook's new residence. A pleasant evening was enjoyed at the close of which coffee and cake were served by the visiting ladies. Mrs. Edna James, of the High School staff, spent Sunday at Truro. Miss B. Ramsay, of Amherst, spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Harriet Ramsay, Squire street. Rev. A. D. McCully, of Summerside (P. E. I.), and Mrs. McKay and children, of Moncton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Fawcett during the Thanksgiving holidays. The reading circle under the auspices of the W. M. S. met at Mrs. Hurston's on Monday evening. Dr. Baker presided. Mrs. McCready gave an interesting essay on China. Brougham Wells, of Port Elgin, spent Sunday in town. Middle Sackville Literary Club met at the home of Mrs. P. S. James on Monday evening. Longfellow was the subject of discussion. Mrs. James and Miss Alice Campbell gave excellent essays. Miss Stockell gave a reading. A good musical programme was rendered. Miss Nellie Read gave some violin selections. An instrumental duet by Miss Lena Anderson and Miss Nellie James was much enjoyed. Geo. Campbell gave a vocal solo, the Holy City, very effectively. Misses Julia Town and Jessie Fawcett spent Sunday at Bellefleur. Miss Annie Fawcett is visiting friends at Upper Cape. Miss Emma George has gone to Dochester to spend the winter, where she will be the guest of her niece, Mrs. T. Cochran. Miss Bertie Hicks gave a pleasant party on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. T. Lingley are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a son. Miss Mary Fawcett gave an enjoyable tea party on Tuesday. Mrs. Stanley Sears and children spent Thanksgiving at Parrsboro (N. S.). Mrs. I. C. Harper will entertain Bethel Sewing Circle on Friday evening. Miss Lena Anderson spent Sunday at Moncton. The ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal church will hold their annual hot supper on Thursday evening at the new curling rink. As the ladies of this church are proverbial for their delicious suppers, a good time is anticipated. Mrs. Sarah Cole, of Mount View, recently celebrated her 86th birthday. A turkey supper was given in honor of the event to which twenty ladies (the young part of the number being 78) did ample justice. Mr. and Mrs. Guilford Hioke returned on Monday from a visit at Springhill (N. S.). Mrs. Wesley Wheaton spent Thanksgiving at Moncton. Miss Ethel, Bishop, of the Ladies College, spent the holiday with her sister, Mrs. F. S. James. Mrs. Milton Hicks, of Presque Isle, spent Sunday at his old home. Mrs. Fullerton, of Parrsboro, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. B. M. Fawcett. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur George and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wheaton are visiting friends in Canim (N. S.). Mrs. Fred Thompson has returned to her home in Lynn (Mass.) after a month's visit with her mother, Mrs. John Estabrook. Mrs. Thomas Stewart has returned to Boston. Mrs. Josiah Wood returned from a visit at St. John on Saturday. Miss Nellie Copp is spending a few days in Shediac. Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Wiggins, Professor and Mrs. Wilson, spent Thanksgiving in Dochester. Messrs. Chas. Pickard and Chas. Fawcett, Jr., left on Tuesday for St. Louis Fair. There was a large attendance of the Royal Arcanum on Monday evening under the auspices of Crystal Court. Grand Regent Kimball, of St. John, made his first official visit. The councils of Moncton, Dochester and Belle Yerte were well represented at the meeting. Fort Moncton and Crystal Court were amalgamated. This new order will be known as Royal Council, No. 480. At the close of the meeting the members were entertained at Harper's restaurant to an oyster supper. Mrs. Wm. W. Fawcett is visiting at her old home in Mass. Mr. Edgar Tuttle is spending sometime at the Upper Cape for the benefit of his health.

CHATHAM.

Chatham, Nov. 22-Mrs. S. Haberley has gone to Boston for the winter. Miss Maggie Cassidy left on Thursday for Sherbrooke (Que.), where she will spend the winter with relatives. Miss Eva England has returned to her home at Church Point, after a pleasant visit to Mrs. Andrew Cassidy. Mr. and Mrs. John MacLagan have returned from Melrose (Mass.), and expect to soon move into their new home. Mrs. Frances Snowball returned Wednesday from a pleasant visit to Fredericton. Mrs. William Andrews, of Church Point, was the guest of Mrs. C. Boyson on Wednesday. Mrs. J. Walter Reed returned Monday from a visit to relatives in Maryville. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Neale, who have been visiting Boston, are home again. Miss Katie Anderson has returned from Campbellton, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson. Miss Laura Snowball left on Friday to visit friends in Toronto. Mrs. Thomas Kelly is visiting her sister, Mrs. Benjamin Henson, at St. John. Mrs. Gussie P. Pugsley, who has been the guest of Mrs. Ernest Hutchinson during the last week, returned to her home in St. John on Monday. Miss Leonard Henson went on Monday to St. John for a few days. Miss Ruth Loggie, of Church Point, visited Chatham friends on Monday. The quadrille assembly on Wednesday evening in the Elkin block, under the auspices of the ladies auxiliary of the A. O. H., was much enjoyed by the large number of guests. Music was furnished by Cahill's orchestra, and supper was served about 12 o'clock. Mrs. Frank McMullen, of Truro (N. S.), is visiting her parents, Colonel and Mrs. McCully. Misses Anna and Mabel Bentley, who spent Thanksgiving at their home, Blink Bonnie, have returned to Mount Allison Academy. Mr. E. H. Anderson, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, returned from a visit to relatives in town. A very enjoyable dance was held in the Temperance hall Wednesday evening. The music was supplied by McElaichair's orchestra. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie and Mrs. C. A. C. Bruce were the chaperones. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McAlpine, who have been spending the last two weeks in Chatham, left for their home in Sydney today. Miss Jennie McElaichair, of Newcastle, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Henry Fieger. Mrs. Joseph Goggin was called to St. Stephen on Wednesday by the death of her sister, Mrs. Vanstone, formerly a resident of Chatham. Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Landry gave a dance in the Temperance hall Monday evening, which was much enjoyed by the large number of guests. Music was supplied by the McElaichair, Tealbedon orchestra, and supper was served about midnight. Mr. Herbert Goggin, of St. John, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Joseph Goggin. Miss Alice McGinn, of Moncton, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Hocken went to St. John on Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Hocken's father, Mr. Arthur Wright. Mr. Nicholas McQuinn, who has been the guest of Mrs. Thomas McQuinn during the past three months, left Monday for his home in Memphis (Tenn.). Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCallum, of Maryville, are visiting friends in town. Mrs. Stephen Gilles and daughter have returned from a visit to Woodstock. Miss Mary Mills, who has been spending a month with relatives here, has returned to her home in Truro. Mr. A. W. Cameron, who has been spending his vacation here, has returned to Seblacon (N. S.), to resume his duties in the Bank of Nova Scotia. The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. George Traer was the scene of a very interesting event on Tuesday at 6.30 a. m., when their daughter, Miss Ella, and Mr. Henry W. Fleiger were tied by man and wife, the nuptial knot being tied by James Strothard, of St. John. The bride wore a very lovely in a beautiful gown of navy blue voile, with drop of shirred white chiffon. She was unattended. After the ceremony the contracting parties, set down to breakfast, after which Mr. and Mrs. Fleiger drove to the L. C. R. station, where they left on the express for a trip to Boston. The bride and groom, who are high-toned, were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, noticeable among them being a cheque for a substantial amount from the bride's father. The bride wore a gown of navy blue broad-gonings, with a white blue broad-gonings. She wore a black picture hat and elegant sable furs, the gift of the groom. Mr. William Griffin, of Boston, spent part of the week in town, as he is visiting his relatives in Sydney, is visiting friends here. Mrs. George Marquis and little son arrived this morning from Shipigan and will remain with friends here until Tuesday. Chatham, Nov. 24-The annual meeting of the directors of the Northumberland County Agricultural Society, to wind up the year, was held this afternoon. In the afternoon the Agricultural Society held their annual meeting, which was largely attended. (Continued on page 2.)

for the year: A. G. Dickson, president; William Kerr, 1st vice-president; John W. McLaughlin, 2nd vice-president; George E. Fisher, secretary-treasurer; Hon. L. J. Tweedie, John Dixon, R. A. Snowball, James Falconer, William C. Stothard, William J. Connors, Thomas Plett, William B. Snowball, George Hildebrand, B. M. Smith, M. F. Noonan, George P. Soar, Henry Gordon, H. Fowle, John P. Burchill, Robert Murray and George J. Dickson, directors; William Johnson, B. M. Moran and J. Fred Benson, audit committee. The J. B. Snowball Co., Ltd., are erecting an up-to-date barn on the site of the old one that was burned a few weeks ago. The length of the building is 102 feet, width 38 feet, and posts 18 feet, with basement and concrete floor. W. S. Loggie, M. P., went to Halifax yesterday. The monthly meeting of the town teachers was held in the assembly hall at the site of the new school this afternoon. Among other subjects an outline on how drawing should be taught in the first five grades, prepared by a committee appointed at the last meeting, was discussed. Fishermen are busy preparing for the smelt season, which opens Dec. 1. The fish seem to be quite plentiful, but small. Lots are being lifted out of the water for the Miramichi paper and pulp mill at the rate of twelve carloads a day and are sent to the banking in trucks. There is about a million feet now on hand. Although work has been resumed ever since the storm of Monday, the 14th, the repairs on telephone wires have not yet been completed. Chatham, N. B., Nov. 26-(Special)-The death of J. Clarke McCullough, of consumption occurred on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. H. D. Hanson on Thursday. The deceased, who was about 33 years old, was the oldest son of Colonel S. U. McCullough, and for several years held a position in A. E. Holston's drug store. He had been lately employed in the C. P. R. office in Winnipeg, and returned from there on sick leave about two weeks ago. A very enjoyable dance was held in the Temperance hall Wednesday evening. The music was supplied by McElaichair's orchestra. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie and Mrs. C. A. C. Bruce were the chaperones. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McAlpine, who have been spending the last two weeks in Chatham, left for their home in Sydney today. Miss Jennie McElaichair, of Newcastle, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Henry Fieger. Mrs. Joseph Goggin was called to St. Stephen on Wednesday by the death of her sister, Mrs. Vanstone, formerly a resident of Chatham. Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Landry gave a dance in the Temperance hall Monday evening, which was much enjoyed by the large number of guests. Music was supplied by the McElaichair, Tealbedon orchestra, and supper was served about midnight. Mr. Herbert Goggin, of St. John, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Joseph Goggin. Miss Alice McGinn, of Moncton, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Hocken went to St. John on Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Hocken's father, Mr. Arthur Wright. Mr. Nicholas McQuinn, who has been the guest of Mrs. Thomas McQuinn during the past three months, left Monday for his home in Memphis (Tenn.). Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCallum, of Maryville, are visiting friends in town. Mrs. Stephen Gilles and daughter have returned from a visit to Woodstock. Miss Mary Mills, who has been spending a month with relatives here, has returned to her home in Truro. Mr. A. W. Cameron, who has been spending his vacation here, has returned to Seblacon (N. S.), to resume his duties in the Bank of Nova Scotia. The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. George Traer was the scene of a very interesting event on Tuesday at 6.30 a. m., when their daughter, Miss Ella, and Mr. Henry W. Fleiger were tied by man and wife, the nuptial knot being tied by James Strothard, of St. John. The bride wore a very lovely in a beautiful gown of navy blue voile, with drop of shirred white chiffon. She was unattended. After the ceremony the contracting parties, set down to breakfast, after which Mr. and Mrs. Fleiger drove to the L. C. R. station, where they left on the express for a trip to Boston. The bride and groom, who are high-toned, were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, noticeable among them being a cheque for a substantial amount from the bride's father. The bride wore a gown of navy blue broad-gonings, with a white blue broad-gonings. She wore a black picture hat and elegant sable furs, the gift of the groom. Mr. William Griffin, of Boston, spent part of the week in town, as he is visiting his relatives in Sydney, is visiting friends here. Mrs. George Marquis and little son arrived this morning from Shipigan and will remain with friends here until Tuesday.

turned from Melrose (Mass.), and expect to soon move into their new home. Mrs. Frances Snowball returned Wednesday from a pleasant visit to Fredericton. Mrs. William Andrews, of Church Point, was the guest of Mrs. C. Boyson on Wednesday. Mrs. J. Walter Reed returned Monday from a visit to relatives in Maryville. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Neale, who have been visiting Boston, are home again. Miss Katie Anderson has returned from Campbellton, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson. Miss Laura Snowball left on Friday to visit friends in Toronto. Mrs. Thomas Kelly is visiting her sister, Mrs. Benjamin Henson, at St. John. Mrs. Gussie P. Pugsley, who has been the guest of Mrs. Ernest Hutchinson during the last week, returned to her home in St. John on Monday. Miss Leonard Henson went on Monday to St. John for a few days. Miss Ruth Loggie, of Church Point, visited Chatham friends on Monday. The quadrille assembly on Wednesday evening in the Elkin block, under the auspices of the ladies auxiliary of the A. O. H., was much enjoyed by the large number of guests. Music was furnished by Cahill's orchestra, and supper was served about 12 o'clock. Mrs. Frank McMullen, of Truro (N. S.), is visiting her parents, Colonel and Mrs. McCully. Misses Anna and Mabel Bentley, who spent Thanksgiving at their home, Blink Bonnie, have returned to Mount Allison Academy. Mr. E. H. Anderson, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, returned from a visit to relatives in town. A very enjoyable dance was held in the Temperance hall Wednesday evening. The music was supplied by McElaichair's orchestra. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie and Mrs. C. A. C. Bruce were the chaperones. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McAlpine, who have been spending the last two weeks in Chatham, left for their home in Sydney today. Miss Jennie McElaichair, of Newcastle, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Henry Fieger. Mrs. Joseph Goggin was called to St. Stephen on Wednesday by the death of her sister, Mrs. Vanstone, formerly a resident of Chatham. Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Landry gave a dance in the Temperance hall Monday evening, which was much enjoyed by the large number of guests. Music was supplied by the McElaichair, Tealbedon orchestra, and supper was served about midnight. Mr. Herbert Goggin, of St. John, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Joseph Goggin. Miss Alice McGinn, of Moncton, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Hocken went to St. John on Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Hocken's father, Mr. Arthur Wright. Mr. Nicholas McQuinn, who has been the guest of Mrs. Thomas McQuinn during the past three months, left Monday for his home in Memphis (Tenn.). Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCallum, of Maryville, are visiting friends in town. Mrs. Stephen Gilles and daughter have returned from a visit to Woodstock. Miss Mary Mills, who has been spending a month with relatives here, has returned to her home in Truro. Mr. A. W. Cameron, who has been spending his vacation here, has returned to Seblacon (N. S.), to resume his duties in the Bank of Nova Scotia. The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. George Traer was the scene of a very interesting event on Tuesday at 6.30 a. m., when their daughter, Miss Ella, and Mr. Henry W. Fleiger were tied by man and wife, the nuptial knot being tied by James Strothard, of St. John. The bride wore a very lovely in a beautiful gown of navy blue voile, with drop of shirred white chiffon. She was unattended. After the ceremony the contracting parties, set down to breakfast, after which Mr. and Mrs. Fleiger drove to the L. C. R. station, where they left on the express for a trip to Boston. The bride and groom, who are high-toned, were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, noticeable among them being a cheque for a substantial amount from the bride's father. The bride wore a gown of navy blue broad-gonings, with a white blue broad-gonings. She wore a black picture hat and elegant sable furs, the gift of the groom. Mr. William Griffin, of Boston, spent part of the week in town, as he is visiting his relatives in Sydney, is visiting friends here. Mrs. George Marquis and little son arrived this morning from Shipigan and will remain with friends here until Tuesday.

turned from Melrose (Mass.), and expect to soon move into their new home. Mrs. Frances Snowball returned Wednesday from a pleasant visit to Fredericton. Mrs. William Andrews, of Church Point, was the guest of Mrs. C. Boyson on Wednesday. Mrs. J. Walter Reed returned Monday from a visit to relatives in Maryville. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Neale, who have been visiting Boston, are home again. Miss Katie Anderson has returned from Campbellton, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson. Miss Laura Snowball left on Friday to visit friends in Toronto. Mrs. Thomas Kelly is visiting her sister, Mrs. Benjamin Henson, at St. John. Mrs. Gussie P. Pugsley, who has been the guest of Mrs. Ernest Hutchinson during the last week, returned to her home in St. John on Monday. Miss Leonard Henson went on Monday to St. John for a few days. Miss Ruth Loggie, of Church Point, visited Chatham friends on Monday. The quadrille assembly on Wednesday evening in the Elkin block, under the auspices of the ladies auxiliary of the A. O. H., was much enjoyed by the large number of guests. Music was furnished by Cahill's orchestra, and supper was served about 12 o'clock. Mrs. Frank McMullen, of Truro (N. S.), is visiting her parents, Colonel and Mrs. McCully. Misses Anna and Mabel Bentley, who spent Thanksgiving at their home, Blink Bonnie, have returned to Mount Allison Academy. Mr. E. H. Anderson, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, returned from a visit to relatives in town. A very enjoyable dance was held in the Temperance hall Wednesday evening. The music was supplied by McElaichair's orchestra. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie and Mrs. C. A. C. Bruce were the chaperones. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McAlpine, who have been spending the last two weeks in Chatham, left for their home in Sydney today. Miss Jennie McElaichair, of Newcastle, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Henry Fieger. Mrs. Joseph Goggin was called to St. Stephen on Wednesday by the death of her sister, Mrs. Vanstone, formerly a resident of Chatham. Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Landry gave a dance in the Temperance hall Monday evening, which was much enjoyed by the large number of guests. Music was supplied by the McElaichair, Tealbedon orchestra, and supper was served about midnight. Mr. Herbert Goggin, of St. John, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Joseph Goggin. Miss Alice McGinn, of Moncton, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Hocken went to St. John on Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Hocken's father, Mr. Arthur Wright. Mr. Nicholas McQuinn, who has been the guest of Mrs. Thomas McQuinn during the past three months, left Monday for his home in Memphis (Tenn.). Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCallum, of Maryville, are visiting friends in town. Mrs. Stephen Gilles and daughter have returned from a visit to Woodstock. Miss Mary Mills, who has been spending a month with relatives here, has returned to her home in Truro. Mr. A. W. Cameron, who has been spending his vacation here, has returned to Seblacon (N. S.), to resume his duties in the Bank of Nova Scotia. The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. George Traer was the scene of a very interesting event on Tuesday at 6.30 a. m., when their daughter, Miss Ella, and Mr. Henry W. Fleiger were tied by man and wife, the nuptial knot being tied by James Strothard, of St. John. The bride wore a very lovely in a beautiful gown of navy blue voile, with drop of shirred white chiffon. She was unattended. After the ceremony the contracting parties, set down to breakfast, after which Mr. and Mrs. Fleiger drove to the L. C. R. station, where they left on the express for a trip to Boston. The bride and groom, who are high-toned, were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, noticeable among them being a cheque for a substantial amount from the bride's father. The bride wore a gown of navy blue broad-gonings, with a white blue broad-gonings. She wore a black picture hat and elegant sable furs, the gift of the groom. Mr. William Griffin, of Boston, spent part of the week in town, as he is visiting his relatives in Sydney, is visiting friends here. Mrs. George Marquis and little son arrived this morning from Shipigan and will remain with friends here until Tuesday.

turned from Melrose (Mass.), and expect to soon move into their new home. Mrs. Frances Snowball returned Wednesday from a pleasant visit to Fredericton. Mrs. William Andrews, of Church Point, was the guest of Mrs. C. Boyson on Wednesday. Mrs. J. Walter Reed returned Monday from a visit to relatives in Maryville. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Neale, who have been visiting Boston, are home again. Miss Katie Anderson has returned from Campbellton, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson. Miss Laura Snowball left on Friday to visit friends in Toronto. Mrs. Thomas Kelly is visiting her sister, Mrs. Benjamin Henson, at St. John. Mrs. Gussie P. Pugsley, who has been the guest of Mrs. Ernest Hutchinson during the last week, returned to her home in St. John on Monday. Miss Leonard Henson went on Monday to St. John for a few days. Miss Ruth Loggie, of Church Point, visited Chatham friends on Monday. The quadrille assembly on Wednesday evening in the Elkin block, under the auspices of the ladies auxiliary of the A. O. H., was much enjoyed by the large number of guests. Music was furnished by Cahill's orchestra, and supper was served about 12 o'clock. Mrs. Frank McMullen, of Truro (N. S.), is visiting her parents, Colonel and Mrs. McCully. Misses Anna and Mabel Bentley, who spent Thanksgiving at their home, Blink Bonnie, have returned to Mount Allison Academy. Mr. E. H. Anderson, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, returned from a visit to relatives in town. A very enjoyable dance was held in the Temperance hall Wednesday evening. The music was supplied by McElaichair's orchestra. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie and Mrs. C. A. C. Bruce were the chaperones. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McAlpine, who have been spending the last two weeks in Chatham, left for their home in Sydney today. Miss Jennie McElaichair, of Newcastle, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Henry Fieger. Mrs. Joseph Goggin was called to St. Stephen on Wednesday by the death of her sister, Mrs. Vanstone, formerly a resident of Chatham. Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Landry gave a dance in the Temperance hall Monday evening, which was much enjoyed by the large number of guests. Music was supplied by the McElaichair, Tealbedon orchestra, and supper was served about midnight. Mr. Herbert Goggin, of St. John, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Joseph Goggin. Miss Alice McGinn, of Moncton, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Hocken went to St. John on Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Hocken's father, Mr. Arthur Wright. Mr. Nicholas McQuinn, who has been the guest of Mrs. Thomas McQuinn during the past three months, left Monday for his home in Memphis (Tenn.). Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCallum, of Maryville, are visiting friends in town. Mrs. Stephen Gilles and daughter have returned from a visit to Woodstock. Miss Mary Mills, who has been spending a month with relatives here, has returned to her home in Truro. Mr. A. W. Cameron, who has been spending his vacation here, has returned to Seblacon (N. S.), to resume his duties in the Bank of Nova Scotia. The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. George Traer was the scene of a very interesting event on Tuesday at 6.30 a. m., when their daughter, Miss Ella, and Mr. Henry W. Fleiger were tied by man and wife, the nuptial knot being tied by James Strothard, of St. John. The bride wore a very lovely in a beautiful gown of navy blue voile, with drop of shirred white chiffon. She was unattended. After the ceremony the contracting parties, set down to breakfast, after which Mr. and Mrs. Fleiger drove to the L. C. R. station, where they left on the express for a trip to Boston. The bride and groom, who are high-toned, were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, noticeable among them being a cheque for a substantial amount from the bride's father. The bride wore a gown of navy blue broad-gonings, with a white blue broad-gonings. She wore a black picture hat and elegant sable furs, the gift of the groom. Mr. William Griffin, of Boston, spent part of the week in town, as he is visiting his relatives in Sydney, is visiting friends here. Mrs. George Marquis and little son arrived this morning from Shipigan and will remain with friends here until Tuesday.

turned from Melrose (Mass.), and expect to soon move into their new home. Mrs. Frances Snowball returned Wednesday from a pleasant visit to Fredericton. Mrs. William Andrews, of Church Point, was the guest of Mrs. C. Boyson on Wednesday. Mrs. J. Walter Reed returned Monday from a visit to relatives in Maryville. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Neale, who have been visiting Boston, are home again. Miss Katie Anderson has returned from Campbellton, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson. Miss Laura Snowball left on Friday to visit friends in Toronto. Mrs. Thomas Kelly is visiting her sister, Mrs. Benjamin Henson, at St. John. Mrs. Gussie P. Pugsley, who has been the guest of Mrs. Ernest Hutchinson during the last week, returned to her home in St. John on Monday. Miss Leonard Henson went on Monday to St. John for a few days. Miss Ruth Loggie, of Church Point, visited Chatham friends on Monday. The quadrille assembly on Wednesday evening in the Elkin block, under the auspices of the ladies auxiliary of the A. O. H., was much enjoyed by the large number of guests. Music was furnished by Cahill's orchestra, and supper was served about 12 o'clock. Mrs. Frank McMullen, of Truro (N. S.), is visiting her parents, Colonel and Mrs. McCully. Misses Anna and Mabel Bentley, who spent Thanksgiving at their home, Blink Bonnie, have returned to Mount Allison Academy. Mr. E. H. Anderson, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, returned from a visit to relatives in town. A very enjoyable dance was held in the Temperance hall Wednesday evening. The music was supplied by McElaichair's orchestra. Mrs. L. J. Tweedie and Mrs. C. A. C. Bruce were the chaperones. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McAlpine, who have been spending the last two weeks in Chatham, left for their home in Sydney today. Miss Jennie McElaichair, of Newcastle, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Henry Fieger. Mrs. Joseph Goggin was called to St. Stephen on Wednesday by the death of her sister, Mrs. Vanstone, formerly a resident of Chatham. Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Landry gave a dance in the Temperance hall Monday evening, which was much enjoyed by the large number of guests. Music was supplied by the McElaichair, Tealbedon orchestra, and supper was served about midnight. Mr. Herbert Goggin, of St. John, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Joseph Goggin. Miss Alice McGinn, of Moncton, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Hocken went to St. John on Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Hocken's father, Mr. Arthur Wright. Mr. Nicholas McQuinn, who has been the guest of Mrs. Thomas McQuinn during the past three months, left Monday for his home in Memphis (Tenn.). Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCallum, of Maryville, are visiting friends in town. Mrs. Stephen Gilles and daughter have returned from a visit to Woodstock. Miss Mary Mills, who has been spending a month with relatives here, has returned to her home in Truro. Mr. A. W. Cameron, who has been spending his vacation here, has returned to Seblacon (N. S.), to resume his duties in the Bank of Nova Scotia. The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. George Traer was the scene of a very interesting event on Tuesday at 6.30 a. m., when their daughter, Miss Ella, and Mr. Henry W. Fleiger were tied by man and wife, the nuptial knot being tied by James Strothard, of St. John. The bride wore a very lovely in a beautiful gown of navy blue voile, with drop of shirred white chiffon. She was unattended. After the ceremony the contracting parties, set down to breakfast, after which Mr. and Mrs. Fleiger drove to the L. C. R. station, where they left on the express for a trip to Boston. The bride and groom, who are high-toned, were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, noticeable among them being a cheque for a substantial amount from the bride's father. The bride wore a gown of navy blue broad-gonings, with a white blue broad-gonings. She wore a black picture hat and elegant sable furs, the gift of the groom. Mr. William Griffin, of Boston, spent part of the week in town, as he is visiting his relatives in Sydney, is visiting friends here. Mrs. George Marquis and little son arrived this morning from Shipigan and will remain with friends here until Tuesday.

Thanksgiving in town, accompanied Mr. Newcomb home on Monday. Mr. Leonard, of Fredericton, spent a few days in town, on their way to the future home in Charlottetown (P. E. I.). Miss Bertha Wilbur, who is teaching school at a short distance out of Dorchester, spent a short time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Wilbur, Shediac Cape. Miss Nellie of Johnson's Mills, was also at the home of her parents at Shediac Cape for the Thanksgiving holidays. Mrs. F. Smith and little son, Dean, of Moncton, spent a few days in town recently, the guests of Mrs. Chas. Harper, Main street east. Miss Schurmann, of Bedoue (P. E. I.), has returned to her home from visiting Mrs. W. Avard. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McLean, who were recently married in Newcastle, spent a few days in town this week, on their way to their future home in Charlottetown (P. E. I.). Mr. and Mrs. McLean will away from the city on their way to their future home in Charlottetown (P. E. I.). Mr. and Mrs. McLean will away from the city on their way to their future home in Charlottetown (P. E. I.). Mr. and Mrs. McLean will away from the city on their way to their future home in Charlottetown (P. E. I.).

ST. GEORGE.

St. George, N. B., Nov. 24-Miss Soboy, Miss Warner and Mr. George Dick, St. John, spent Thanksgiving in town. Miss Soboy and Miss Warner were the guests of Mr. James Watt, and Mr. Dick visited his mother, Mrs. John Dick. Miss Florence Hilliard, St. Andrews, is spending the week with Miss Irene O'Brien. The friends of Miss Florence McGee will be sorry to hear of her illness, which has confined her to her home this week. The ladies of the Presbyterian circle held a successful supper and fancy sale in Court's hall on Wednesday evening, which was patronized by the usual large crowd. The hall was prettily decorated and the supper was served with flags and bunting. The fancy and useful articles procured over by the young ladies were much admired and were liberally patronized, as were the wafers, which were served in abundance. The supper was served from six to nine and the many good things disappeared quickly before the large number present. On Wednesday evening, Miss Margaret Leonard, daughter of Mrs. Hilliard, is to be married to Mr. Maxwell, son of Mr. John Maxwell, at the home of the bride's mother. Mrs. Joseph Clark is visiting Mrs. Jackson, L'Etang.

BATHURST.

Bathurst, Nov. 24-A number of her friends were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. H. D. Hanson on Thursday evening. Mrs. R. G. Duncan is visiting her mother, Mrs. Abbot in Amherst. Miss Kate Gannong, who arrived on Sunday from Philadelphia, accompanying the body of her brother, Clarence, who died in that city, will remain for some time with her home people here. Her friends are pleased to know that she is to remain, but regret the sad cause of her visit. The family have the sympathy of all. Mrs. P. J. Burns, who has been very ill, is very much improved. Mr. and Mrs. P. Rive and family are spending the winter in St. John, and will, as usual, spend the winter at their home here. Their many friends welcome them most heartily. Miss B. Devereaux, of Campbellton, made a short stay in town with friends during the week, and will, as usual, spend the winter at their home here. Their many friends welcome them most heartily. Miss B. Devereaux, of Campbellton, made a short stay in town with friends during the week, and will, as usual, spend the winter at their home here. Their many friends welcome them most heartily.

ST. STEPHEN.

St. Stephen, N. B., Nov. 23-A very pleasant card and musical party was given by Mrs. Wilmet Berriman at her home last Friday evening. The guests were Mrs. Mrs. Henry Gillespie, Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. M. W. Richardson, Mrs. J. Walker Moore, Mrs. Henry Gillespie, Mrs. May Clarke. Miss Stella Robinson very pleasantly entertained a party of friends at her home on Wednesday evening. The party was a very enjoyable one. Mrs. J. W. Richardson was "at home" to her friends on Thursday afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock. On Thanksgiving afternoon Mrs. A. A. Luffin gave a very pleasant tea at her home in St. John. There were about a dozen ladies present and the afternoon and evening were passed most merrily. Mrs. Gilbert W. Gannong gave a whist party on Tuesday evening at which Mrs. Wilbur Webb, of Boston, was guest of honor. This is the first entertainment of the kind given here. Mrs. W. W. Richardson was "at home" to her friends on Thursday afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock. On Thanksgiving afternoon Mrs. A. A. Luffin gave a very pleasant tea at her home in St. John. There were about a dozen ladies present and the afternoon and evening were passed most merrily. Mrs. Gilbert W. Gannong gave a whist party on Tuesday evening at which Mrs. Wilbur Webb, of Boston, was guest of honor. This is the first entertainment of the kind given here. Mrs. W. W. Richardson was "at home" to her friends on Thursday afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock. On Thanksgiving afternoon Mrs. A. A. Luffin gave a very pleasant tea at her home in St. John. There were about a dozen ladies present and the afternoon and evening were passed most merrily.

ST. ANDREWS.

St. Andrews, Nov. 24-Miss Florence Hilliard is spending a few days with friends in St. George. Miss Kathleen O'Neill who has been visiting her home here, has returned to New York. Prof. William Brit is having the interior of his new home at St. George, which he has just completed, painted and papered, which has been done to perfection by Thomas E. O'Neill. Invitations have been issued this week for the wedding of Miss Alberta Teed and Mr. George Wilson, which will take place on Wednesday, Dec. 14, in the Methodist church. Mrs. Louise Taylor, the accomplished violinist, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Helen Taylor, will give a concert at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Taylor, this evening. Mrs. George J. Clark, accompanied by her young daughters, the Misses Pauline and Doris Clark, are the guests of Mrs. F. P. McGill for several days. The many friends of Miss Eva Stoop are pleased to hear of her return from San Francisco (Cal.), after an absence of two years. Her uncle, Mr. John Treed will, according to reports, be in St. Andrews, later. Miss Agnes, who has been visiting in town with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. McGill. Mrs. Frank Stoop has returned from an extended visit in St. Andrews with her daughter, Mrs. G. D. Grimmer. Hawthorne Hall was the scene of a delightful reception on Wednesday afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock, given by the Misses Stevens in honor of their sister, Mrs. William B. Torrance of Montreal. There were seventy-five ladies present. The reception was most informal and greatly enjoyed. Invitations were issued on Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. Almon I. Teed to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Margaret Alberta, to Mr. George Wilson on December 14 in the Methodist church at 2 o'clock. Immediately after the ceremony a reception will take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Torrance, on Saturday from 4 until 6 o'clock. The following officers were appointed:

ST. JOHN.

St. John, Nov. 24-Mrs. A. B. Copp, M. P. P., spent Sunday at Newcastle. Mr. James Smith returned on Monday from a trip to Montreal. Miss Mary Trites, of Moncton, is the guest of Mrs. Geo. R. Read. Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Estabrook received a surprise on Thursday evening, when about 75 of their friends gathered at their home to do honor to the completion of Mr. and Mrs. Estabrook's new residence. A pleasant evening was enjoyed at the close of which coffee and cake were served by the visiting ladies. Mrs. Edna James, of the High School staff, spent Sunday at Truro. Miss B. Ramsay, of Amherst, spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Harriet Ramsay, Squire street. Rev. A. D. McCully, of Summerside (P. E. I.), and Mrs. McKay and children, of Moncton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Fawcett during the Thanksgiving holidays. The reading circle under the auspices of the W. M. S. met at Mrs. Hurston's on Monday evening. Dr. Baker presided. Mrs. McCready gave an interesting essay on China. Brougham Wells, of Port Elgin, spent Sunday in town. Middle Sackville Literary Club met at the home of Mrs. P. S. James on Monday evening. Longfellow was the subject of discussion. Mrs. James and Miss Alice Campbell gave excellent essays. Miss Stockell gave a reading. A good musical programme was rendered. Miss Nellie Read gave some violin selections. An instrumental duet by Miss Lena Anderson and Miss Nellie James was much enjoyed. Geo. Campbell gave a vocal solo, the Holy City, very effectively. Misses Julia Town and Jessie Fawcett spent Sunday at Bellefleur. Miss Annie Fawcett is visiting friends at Upper Cape. Miss Emma George has gone to Dochester to spend the winter, where she will be the guest of her niece, Mrs. T. Cochran. Miss Bertie Hicks gave a pleasant party on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. T. Lingley are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a son. Miss Mary Fawcett gave an enjoyable tea party on Tuesday. Mrs. Stanley Sears and children spent Thanksgiving at Parrsboro (N. S.). Mrs. I. C. Harper will entertain Bethel Sewing Circle on Friday evening. Miss Lena Anderson spent Sunday at Moncton. The ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal church will hold their annual hot supper on Thursday evening at the new curling rink. As the ladies of this church are proverbial for their delicious suppers, a good time is anticipated. Mrs. Sarah Cole, of Mount View, recently celebrated her 86th birthday. A turkey supper was given in honor of the event to which twenty ladies (the young part of the number being 78) did ample justice. Mr. and Mrs. Guilford Hioke returned on Monday from a visit at Springhill (N. S.). Mrs. Wesley Wheaton spent Thanksgiving at Moncton. Miss Ethel, Bishop, of the Ladies College, spent the holiday with her sister, Mrs. F. S. James. Mrs. Milton Hicks, of Presque Isle, spent Sunday at his old home. Mrs. Fullerton, of Parrsboro, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. B. M. Fawcett. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur George and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wheaton are visiting friends in Canim (N. S.). Mrs. Fred Thompson has returned to her home in Lynn (Mass.) after a month's visit with her mother, Mrs. John Estabrook. Mrs. Thomas Stewart has returned to Boston. Mrs. Josiah Wood returned from a visit at St. John on Saturday. Miss Nellie Copp is spending a few days in Shediac. Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Wiggins, Professor and Mrs. Wilson, spent Thanksgiving in Dochester. Messrs. Chas. Pickard and Chas. Fawcett, Jr., left on Tuesday for St. Louis Fair. There was a large attendance of the Royal Arcanum on Monday evening under the auspices of Crystal Court. Grand Regent Kimball, of St. John, made his first official visit. The councils of Moncton, Dochester and Belle Yerte were well represented at the meeting. Fort Moncton and Crystal Court were amalgamated. This new order will be known as Royal Council, No. 480. At the close of the meeting the members were entertained at Harper's restaurant to an oyster supper. Mrs. Wm. W. Fawcett is visiting at her old home in Mass. Mr. Edgar Tuttle is spending sometime at the Upper Cape for the benefit of his health.

ST. JOHN.

St. John, Nov. 24-Mrs. A. B. Copp, M. P. P., spent Sunday at Newcastle. Mr. James Smith returned on Monday from a trip to Montreal. Miss Mary Trites, of Moncton, is the guest of Mrs. Geo. R. Read. Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Estabrook received a surprise on Thursday evening, when about 75 of their friends gathered at their home to do honor to the completion of Mr. and Mrs. Estabrook's new residence. A pleasant evening was enjoyed at the close of which coffee and cake were served by the visiting ladies. Mrs. Edna James, of the High School staff, spent Sunday at Truro. Miss B. Ramsay, of Amherst, spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Harriet Ramsay, Squire street. Rev. A. D. McCully, of Summerside (P. E. I.), and Mrs. McKay and children, of Moncton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Fawcett during the Thanksgiving holidays. The reading circle under the auspices of the W. M. S. met at Mrs. Hurston's on Monday evening. Dr. Baker presided. Mrs. McCready gave an interesting essay on China. Brougham Wells, of Port Elgin, spent Sunday in town. Middle Sackville Literary Club met at the home of Mrs. P. S. James on Monday evening. Longfellow was the subject of discussion. Mrs. James and Miss Alice Campbell gave excellent essays. Miss Stockell gave a reading. A good musical programme was rendered. Miss Nellie Read gave some violin selections. An instrumental duet by Miss Lena Anderson and Miss Nellie James was much enjoyed. Geo. Campbell gave a vocal solo, the Holy City, very effectively. Misses Julia Town and Jessie Fawcett spent Sunday at Bellefleur. Miss Annie Fawcett is visiting friends at Upper Cape. Miss Emma George has gone to Dochester to spend the winter, where she will be the guest of her niece, Mrs. T. Cochran. Miss Bertie Hicks gave a pleasant party on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. T. Lingley are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a son. Miss Mary Fawcett gave an enjoyable tea party on Tuesday. Mrs. Stanley Sears and children spent Thanksgiving at Parrsboro (N. S.). Mrs. I. C. Harper will entertain Bethel Sewing Circle on Friday evening. Miss Lena Anderson spent Sunday at Moncton. The ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal church will hold their annual hot supper on Thursday evening at the new curling rink. As the ladies of this church are proverbial for their delicious suppers, a good time is anticipated. Mrs. Sarah Cole, of Mount View, recently celebrated her 86th birthday. A turkey supper was given in honor of the event to which twenty ladies (the young part of the number being 78) did ample justice. Mr. and Mrs. Guilford Hioke returned on Monday from a visit at Springhill (N. S.). Mrs. Wesley Wheaton spent Thanksgiving at Moncton. Miss Ethel, Bishop, of the Ladies College, spent the holiday with her sister, Mrs. F. S. James. Mrs. Milton Hicks, of Presque Isle, spent Sunday at his old home. Mrs. Fullerton, of Parrsboro, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. B. M. Fawcett. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur George and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wheaton are visiting friends in Canim (N. S.). Mrs. Fred Thompson has returned to her home in Lynn (Mass.) after a month's visit with her mother, Mrs. John Estabrook. Mrs. Thomas Stewart has returned to Boston. Mrs. Josiah Wood returned from a visit at St. John on Saturday. Miss Nellie Copp is spending a few days in Shediac. Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Wiggins, Professor and Mrs. Wilson, spent Thanksgiving in Dochester. Messrs. Chas. Pickard and Chas. Fawcett, Jr., left on Tuesday for St. Louis Fair. There was a large attendance of the Royal Arcanum on Monday evening under the auspices of Crystal Court. Grand Regent Kimball, of St. John, made his first official visit. The councils of Moncton, Dochester and Belle Yerte were well represented at the meeting. Fort Moncton and Crystal Court were amalgamated. This new order will be known