GRAY HAIR
Restored to its Original Youthful Color
By its use.
It will make fine, new hair upon bald heads, except in very aged persons, as it furnishes the nutritive principle by which the hair is nourished and supported.
It will prevent the hair from falling out, and does not stain the skin.
No better evidence of its superiority need be adduced than the fact that so many imitations of it are offered to the Public.
IT IS A SPLENDID HAIR-DRESSING!
Our Treatise on the Hair sent free by mail.

Nursery Rhymes, No. 16.
THE TURTLE.

Down King street one I wandered, while before me there moved
A most curious action that I'd noticed not before;
And I watched it sailing, sitting, as hither it came skipping,
Like a stone upon the waters, near proud Germain street.
"'Tis young 'Bolivar' or 'Shellback' sporting on the pebbly shore;"
Thus I'm said, and nothing more."
And then there came a tapping, like unto a wild beast's snapping,
Or like a dragon dancing on a stalwart oaken floor.
Casting distant and curious eavers worthy notice in the papers;
And I halted at the "druggist's on King street, twenty-four."
And pushing back the crowd, glanced meekly through the door.
And saw—a turtle—nothing more.
And while the crowd was standing, a man came in demanding
A vial of Quaker Bitters—such as he had before;
"I want it made by Shakers, a select tribe of the Quakers.
To cure an five-ball painful and a torpid system sooner."
Dyspepsia, cramp and ague, and pains and aches a score—
Only these and nothing more.
"My liver's in disorder, and my stomach's out of order;
I have chills and intermittents, less or more;
My chest is like a Bank—light, chimmy, cold as ice;
And the gnawing at my vitals is tearing my heart's core.
Have you anything to cure me in your varied stock and store?"—
Quaker Bitters—nothing more
Then nothing more was spoken, and the silence only broken,
By the movements of the turtle as, in vain, it tried to roar:
And then came a groaning—a tender plaintive moaning,
And on its back the turtle lay, wildly struggling on the floor;
The man with Quaker Bitters had just turned him slightly o'er—
Only this and nothing more.
EDGAR A. POE.

Mrs. George Waterbury's
CELEBRATED DINNER PILLS!
A sure remedy for Indigestion, and all bilious and Liver Complaints. Made by her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Lester.
THE above Pills having stood the test over forty years, and being produced with great care and study, nothing cheap or impure being tolerated in their composition, are perfectly safe to administer to the most delicate constitution. They never reduce the patient; no cessation from business or any unusual chance is ever necessary. They never render any one more liable to take cold, containing no dangerous drug, but act as kindly on the tender infant, the most delicate female, and infirm old age, as upon the most vigorous and athletic system, exercising the most healthful influence on the whole system, invigorating the debilitated organs, building up the wasting nervous energies, imparting vigor to body and mind, and bringing every faculty into healthy play.
To Females, from the peculiar affections that attend them when they are arriving at maturity, and also at the decline or "change of life," they are the best remedy and assistant that can be found.
What may seem almost incredible is the astonishing rapidity with which they cure diseases hitherto considered incurable.
Numbers of our first-class families keep them constantly on hand for the various ills of life, and rely on them implicitly.
They are sold with the understanding that they exceed their recommendation, and are the best Household Medicine extant.
For sale at all Drug Stores.
