

KNOX CHURCH
CONGREGATIONAL MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Annual Meeting of The Missionary Society, was held on the evening of the 23rd February, 1881, in the Lecture Room of the Church.

The Rev. Mr. Fleck occupied the chair and conducted the opening devotional exercises.

After a few remarks from the chair, the Secretary was called upon to read the following

ANNUAL REPORT.

The Executive Committee have much pleasure in laying before the members of the Missionary Society this Report, inasmuch as it indicates satisfactory progress.

For some time back, each year has shown an improvement, and the year that ends to-night is marked by an increase both in subscribers and subscriptions.

The Treasurer's statement which is appended, will show the Society's position financially, so that here they would merely state that the total income has been $745 subscribed by 164 members, an increase of $35 and of five subscribers.

This speaks well for the missionary spirit of the congregation, and is a source of encouragement to your Committee, and especially to the lady collectors, who cannot be too highly praised for the very efficient manner in which they have discharged the duties assigned them.

The Superintendent of Taylor Church Sabbath School, Mr. James Brown, reports most encouraging
