

CHAPTER VI. Pursuit of the Seminoles Southward—Encounter on the Hatchee River—Conference and Truce with the Indians—Renewal of the Treaty of Payne's Landing—Neglect on the part of the Indians to comply with its Provisions—Capture, Surrender, and Treacherous Seizure of various Chiefs—Death of Osceola—Colonel Taylor's Campaign,	144
CHAPTER VII. Various Minor Engagements—Surrender of Large Numbers of Indians—Continuance of Depredations—Blood-hounds from Cuba—Attack upon a Company of Actors—Seminoles brought back from the West to report their Condition to their Countrymen—Colonel Harney's Expedition to the Everglades—End of the War—Indians shipped West—Numbers still remaining in Florida,	145

THE INDIANS OF VIRGINIA.

CHAPTER I. Expedition of Amidas and Barlow—Of Sir Richard Grenville—Of Bartholomew Gosnold, with Captain Smith—Settlement at Jamestown—Visit to Powhatan—Improvvidence and Difficulties of the Colonists—Exploration of the Chickahominy—Smith taken Prisoner—His Treatment by the Indians,	151
CHAPTER II. Court of Powhatan—Smith's Preservation by Pocahontas—Supplies by the Indians—Newport's Arrival—Smith's Expeditions up the Chesapeake,	150
CHAPTER III. Coronation of Powhatan—Smith's Visit to Werowocomoco for Supplies—Treachery of Powhatan—Smith a second time Preserved by Pocahontas—Visit to Pamunky—Flight with the King of Paspahugh—Ascendancy of the English,	171
CHAPTER IV. Distress of the Colonies—Martin and West's Settlements—Arrival of Lord De la Warr—Retaliations upon the Natives—Seizure of Pocahontas: Her Marriage—Peace with the Indians—Pocahontas visits England: Her Death—Death of Powhatan—Pory's Settlement,	181
CHAPTER V. The Virginia Massacre of 1622 and of 1641 (or 1644)—Death of Opechancanough,	191
CHAPTER VI. Smith's Account of the Numbers, Appearance and Habits of the Indians,	194

NEW ENGLAND INDIANS.

CHAPTER I. Conduct of the Early Voyagers—Arrival of the May-Flower—Samoset—Tisquantum—Massasoit—Weston's Colony—Cumbittant's Conspiracy—Trade in Fire Arms—Thos. Morton—Death of Massasoit and Alexander, and Accession of Philip,	199
CHAPTER II. The Narragansetts—The Pequots—Murder of Stone and Oldham—Endicott's Expedition—The Pequot War—Destruction of the Pequot Fort—The Tribe Dispersed and Subdued,	209
CHAPTER III. Quarrel between the Narragansetts and Mohegans—Uncas and Miantinno—The Mohegan Land Controversy—Subsequent Condition of the Pequots and Mohegans,	219
CHAPTER IV. The Indians furnished with Fire-Arms—Situation of the Colonists—Philip's Accession—His Treaties with the Whites—His True Plans—Emissaries sent to Sagkonate—Captain Benjamin Church—His Interview with Awoshonks—Murder of John Sassamon,	228
CHAPTER V. Attack on Swansey—Collection of Troops—Flight at Miles' Bridge—Philip driven from the Neck—Church at Punkateeg—Destruction of Brookfield,	237
CHAPTER VI. Philip moves Westward—Attacks on Hadley and Deerfield—Goffe the Regicide—Destruction of Lathrop's Command—Assaults on Springfield and Hatfield—Expedition against the Narragansetts: Outrageous Cruelties in their Reduction—Philip on the Hudson—Destruction of Lancaster, Medfield, Seekonk, Groton, Warwick, Marlborough, &c.—Canonchet taken, and put to Death—Further Indian Ravages,	246
CHAPTER VII. Philip's Return to Pokanoket—Major Talcott's Successes—Church Commissioned by the Court at Plymouth—His Interview with Awoshonks: with the Sagkonates at Sandwich—His Campaign against the Indians—Philip seen: his Wife and Son taken—Death of Weetamore, Queen of Pocasset—Death of Philip,	256