

NEW BRUNSWICK.

the whole of the expenditure for that particular season, but on the other hand that they can only adopt this course on the distinct understanding that henceforward the Provincial Government, having adopted additional precautions and provided for an additional revenue from emigrants, should meet all expenses whatever which may be incurred in consequence of their arrival in the province.

Lieut.-Governor Sir E. Head,
&c. &c. &c.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) GREY.