ARTICLE IV.—It is agreed that the Citizens and Inhabitants of the United States shall have the Right to navigate the River St. Lawrence, and the Canals in Canada, used as the Means of communicating between the Great Lakes and the Atlantic Ocean, with their Vessels, Boats, and Crafts, as fully and freely as the Subjects of Her Britannic Majesty, subject only to the same Tolls and other Assessments as now are or may hereafter be exacted of Her Majesty's said Subjects; it being understood, however, that the British Government retains the Right of suspending this Privilege, on giving due Notice thereof to the Government of the United States.

It is further agreed, that if at any Time the British Government should exercise the said reserved Right, the Government of the United States shall have the Right of suspending, if it think fit, the Operation of Article III. of the present Treaty, in so far as the Province of Canada is affected thereby, for so long as the Suspension of the free Navigation of the River St. Lawrence or the Canals may continue.

It is further agreed, that British Subjects shall have the Right freely to navigate Lake Michigan with their Vessels, Boats, and Crafts,
